(3) If the economic situation of a foundation significantly deteriorates and further payment to a member of the management board of the fees established for or agreed upon with the member, or further allowing of other benefits to the member would be extremely unfair to the foundation, the foundation may require the decrease of the fees or benefits.

(4) The decrease specified in subsection (3) of this section does not affect other terms and conditions of contracts concluded with the members of the management board. In the case of reduction of remuneration or other benefits, a member of the management board has the right to exercise the right to extraordinary cancellation of a contract entered into with him or her with one month advance notice.

(5) Upon declaration of bankruptcy of a foundation and termination of the contract of a member of the management board, the member of the management board has the right to demand, in the course of the bankruptcy proceeding, compensation for the damage caused by the termination of the contract within one year after the date of termination of the contract.

(4) A claim for payment of compensation to a foundation for damage specified in subsection (1) of this section may also be submitted by an creditor of the foundation if the assets of the foundation are not sufficient to satisfy the claims of the creditor. In the case of declaration of bankruptcy of a foundation, only a trustee in bankruptcy may file a claim on behalf of the foundation.

(5) A creditor or trustee in bankruptcy has the right to file the claim specified in subsection (4) of this section also if the foundation has waived the claim against a member of the management board or has entered into a contract of compromise with such member or, upon agreement with the member of the management board, has limited the claim or filing thereof in another manner or reduced the limitation period.
