Chapter 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Scope of application of Act

(1) This Act regulates the bases for organisation of studies of basic schools and upper secondary schools (hereinafter jointly schools), the rights and duties of students and students' parents or guardians (hereinafter parents), the rights and duties of school employees, the bases for management and funding of schools, and the bases for administrative supervision over the teaching and education activities of schools.
[RT I, 13.03.2014, 4 – entry into force 01.07.2014]

(2) This Act regulates the activities of schools operating as institutions administered by rural municipality or city authorities (hereinafter municipal schools) and schools operating as institutions administered by the Ministry of Education and Research (hereinafter state schools). A municipal school is managed by a rural municipality or city. A state school is managed by the state. This Act applies to schools operating as private legal entities (hereinafter private schools) insofar as the Private Schools Act does not provide otherwise.

(3) The provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act apply to the administrative procedure prescribed in this Act, taking account of the specifications provided for in this Act.

§ 2. Basic schools and upper secondary schools and their forms of operation

(1) A basic school is a general education school that provides the opportunity to acquire basic education and fulfil the duty to attend school. The time prescribed for the fulfilment of the basic school curriculum (hereinafter standard period of study) is nine years. The stages of study of basic schools are:

- 1) stage I – grades 1–3;
- 2) stage II – grades 4–6;
- 3) stage III – grades 7–9.

(2) An upper secondary school is a general education school following a basic school, which provides opportunities to acquire general secondary education. The standard period of study in an upper secondary school is three years.

(3) The forms of operation of basic schools and upper secondary schools include the following:

- 1) a basic school;
- 2) a preschool child care institution (hereinafter child care institution) and a basic school that operate as a single institution and which, provided that the school is aimed at students with special educational needs, may also be combined with an upper secondary school (hereinafter general education school and child care institution);
- 3) a basic school where studies are pursued at stage I or at stages I and II, whereby at stage II studies do not need to be pursued to the extent of all the grades of stage II;
3¹) a lower secondary school where studies are pursued at stage III;
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]
- 4) an upper secondary school;
- 5) [Repealed – RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]
- 5¹) a basic school and an upper secondary school that operate as a single institution, whereby in the basic school studies may be pursued in all grades or only in some consecutive grades preceding the upper secondary school;
[RT I, 11.03.2015, 3 – entry into force 21.03.2015]
- 6) an upper secondary school where there may be basic school grades and where only non-stationary studies are pursued;
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]
- 7) [Repealed – RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]
- 8) an upper secondary school and a vocational educational institution that operate as a single institution.

(4) A school aimed at students with special educational needs can be founded and managed for the purpose of improvement of the organisation of the studies of students with special educational needs. The state ensures the foundation and management of schools for visually impaired and hearing impaired students who, in addition to a physical/motor disability, have an additional special educational need, as well as for students with emotional and behavioural disorders, students with moderate, severe and profound learning difficulties, and students in need of special treatment due to behavioural problems.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(5) Where a general education school and a child care institution operate as a single institution, the child care part of the institution is governed by the Preschool Child Care Institutions Act and the general education school part of the institution is governed by this Act. The head of a general education school and a child care institution operating as a single institution has the competence arising from this Act and the Preschool Child Care Institutions Act.

(6) Hobby education for the purposes of the Hobby Schools Act and further training for the purposes of the Adult Education Act may be provided in a school. The organisation of hobby education in a school is governed by the provisions of the Hobby Schools Act regulating the organisation of studies, the rights and obligations of students and the financing of studies in a hobby school and the organisation of further training is governed by the provisions of the Adult Education Act regulating further training. Upon organisation of hobby education, the head, teachers' council and board of trustees of the school also have the competence arising from the Hobby Schools Act.

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 5 – entry into force 01.07.2015]

(7) The principles of operation of an upper secondary school and a vocational education institution as a single institution are governed by § 51 of the Vocational Educational Institutions Act.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 3. Fundamental values of general education schools

(1) General education schools support the mental, physical, ethical, social and emotional development of students. Conditions for the balanced development of the abilities and self-realisation of students and for the materialisation of their research-based worldview are created.

(2) The values arising from the ethical principles specified in the Constitution of the Republic of Estonia, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Convention on the Rights of the Child and the fundamental documents of the European Union are considered important.

(3) The socialisation of the new generation is based on the traditions of Estonian culture, common European values, and the recognition of the main achievements of world culture and research. People who have acquired general education are able to integrate into society and contribute to the sustainable social, cultural, economic and ecologic development of Estonian society.

§ 4. Functions of basic schools

(1) Basic schools have both educating as well as edifying functions. Basic schools help students become creative and versatile personalities who are able to effectively realise themselves in various roles: in the family, at work and in public life, and choose a study path corresponding to their interests and abilities.

(2) The function of basic schools is to provide students with a learning and teaching environment that corresponds to the age of students, is secure, has a positive impact and develops students, supports the development of their interest in learning, learning skills, self-reflection, critical thinking, knowledge and will-based characteristics, their creative self-expression and the development of their social and cultural identity.

§ 5. Functions of upper secondary schools

(1) Upper secondary schools have both educating as well as edifying functions. The function of upper secondary schools is to prepare young people to act as creative, versatile, socially mature and trustworthy personalities who are conscious of their goals and objectives and able to attain them in various fields of life: as partners in their personal life, carriers and upholders of culture, in various occupations and roles in the labour market, and as citizens responsible for the sustainability of society and the natural environment.

(2) The main aspiration of teaching and educating in upper secondary schools is that students find a field of activity that interests them and corresponds to their abilities in order to continue their studies in the field. The function of upper secondary schools is to create conditions where students acquire the knowledge, skills and values that allow for continuing their studies in an institution of higher education or vocational educational institution without any impediments.

[RT I, 02.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 6. Principles of organisation of studies

Upon organisation of studies, the state, owners of schools and schools adhere to the following principles:

- 1) general education of good quality is equally available to all persons regardless of their social and economic background, nationality, gender, place of residence or special educational needs;
- 2) there are no curricula-based impediments to the movement of students from one stage of study, form of study or level of education to another;
- 3) upon organisation of their activities, schools act on the basis of the expectations of society expressed in national curricula and the needs and interests of students, taking into account the proposals of the students and parents as well as the characteristics of the region;
- 4) the needs and interests of students are taken into account upon designing the curricula of schools and implementing individual curricula.

§ 7. Availability of basic education

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(1) Upon managing a basic school, the owner of the school will ensure the existence of qualified teachers required for the implementation of the national curriculum for basic schools, the existence of a learning and teaching environment that complies with the security, health protection and curriculum requirements, and the opportunities for supporting the development of students.

(2) The rural municipality or the city will provide children subject to the duty to attend school who reside in the territory of the rural municipality or the city with the opportunity to perform the duty to attend school and acquire basic education in compliance with the national curriculum for basic schools.

(3) At least 80 per cent of the students for whom a basic school is the school of residence will not spend more than 60 minutes travelling to the school.

(4) At the request of a parent a rural municipality or city will provide children below the age of compulsory school attendance with opportunities for the acquisition of basic education in their school of residence, provided that the counselling committee or the child care institution that the child attends has assessed the child's readiness for school, including social maturity, and has recommended commencement of school studies and the parent has informed the rural municipality or city government before May 1 in the current year of the desire to commence the studies. If the parent informs the rural municipality or city government after May 1 in the current year of the desire to commence the studies, the school of residence may admit the child in the event there is a vacant student place in the school.

(5) A rural municipality or city will provide persons who are 17 years of age or older, who have not acquired basic education and whose place of residence is located in the rural municipality or city with opportunities for the acquisition of basic education by way of non-stationary studies.

(6) At the request of a parent, a rural municipality or a city will provide the child of a representative of a foreign country or international organisation accredited to the Republic of Estonia who resides in the rural municipality or city with opportunities for the acquisition of basic education in the school of residence.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 7¹. Availability of general secondary education

(1) Upon managing an upper secondary school, the owner of the school will ensure the existence of qualified teachers required for the implementation of the national curriculum for upper secondary schools, the existence of a learning and teaching environment that complies with the security, health protection and curriculum requirements, the opportunities for supporting the development of students, the capacity to offer elective subjects in addition to compulsory subjects in accordance with the requirements established in the national curriculum for upper secondary schools.

(2) The state and local authority will ensure the opportunity to acquire high-quality general secondary education that offers ample choices and is in compliance with the national curriculum for upper secondary schools, keeping the required number of upper secondary schools in each county based on the number of students. The state will keep at least one upper secondary school in each county.

(3) By a public law agreement, the minister responsible for the field may transfer the management of an upper secondary school to a rural municipality or city or to a legal person in private law in accordance with the Administrative Cooperation Act. The Ministry of Education and Research will exercise supervision over the implementation of the public law contract.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 8. Determination of place of residence of persons

For the purposes of this Act, the place of residence of a person means the address of their place of residence registered in the Estonian population register. If the address of a person has not been registered with sufficient accuracy, the person will determine the address of their place of residence to the missing extent themselves, informing the rural municipality or city government of residence thereof. The address of the substitute home, residential educational institution or youth home will be deemed the place of residence of a person staying in a substitute home, residential educational institution or youth home.

Chapter 2

ENSURING COMPULSORY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

§ 9. Compulsory school attendance

(1) Compulsory school attendance means the duty to participate in the studies laid down in the daily schedule of a school or in an individual curriculum, to do study exercises and to acquire knowledge and skills according to one's abilities. The duty to attend school is not deemed as fulfilled if a person subject to the duty to attend school has not been enrolled in any school or is absent from studies without a good reason.

(2) A person who has reached the age of seven years before October 1 in the current year is subject to the duty to attend school (including a person having foreign citizenship or unspecified citizenship; excluding the child of a representative of a foreign country or international organisation accredited to the Republic of Estonia who resides in Estonia). A person is required to attend school until they acquire basic education or attain the age of 17 years.

(3) A person who, due to their state of health, has not achieved the readiness for school required for commencement of studies by the time of reaching the age of compulsory school attendance, may, on the basis of a recommendation of the counselling committee, commence the performance of the duty to attend school in the next academic year. A parent will submit to the counselling committee an application for the postponement of the commencement of performance of the duty to attend school. The minister responsible for the field will establish the conditions of and procedure for the postponement of performance of the duty to attend school.

§ 10. Duty of rural municipality or city to create opportunities for performance of duty to attend school

(1) A rural municipality or city will provide a person subject to the duty to attend school, whose place of residence is located in the administrative territory of the rural municipality or city, with the opportunity to acquire basic education. For the purpose of providing each person subject to the duty to attend school and the persons specified in subsections 7 (6) and (7) of this Act with the opportunity to acquire basic education a rural municipality or city will establish the conditions of and procedure for determination of the municipal school of residence (hereinafter school of residence). Material circumstances to be taken into account by a rural municipality or city government upon determining the school of residence include the proximity of the place of residence of a student to the school, the enrolment of other children of the same family in the same school and, where possible, the requests of the parents.

(2) A rural municipality or city government will organise the registration of persons subject to the duty to attend school. For the purpose of registration of performance of the duty to attend school, the data of the Estonian population register regarding persons subject to the duty to attend school, whose place of residence is located in the administrative territory of the rural municipality or city, will be compared once per academic year, not later than by September 10, with the data of the Estonian Education Information System (hereinafter education information system).

(3) A municipal school of another rural municipality or city can be set as the school of residence of a student with the consent of the rural municipality or city government that is the owner of the school.

§ 11. Duties of parents upon ensuring performance of duty to attend school

(1) A parent must enable and facilitate the performance of the duty to attend school, including:

- 1) create conditions facilitating learning at home and the prerequisites for participation in studies for a student subject to the duty to attend school;
- 2) submit to the school its contact details and inform the school of any change thereof;
- 3) read instruments regulating school life;
- 4) cooperate with the school on the conditions and pursuant to the procedure provided for in this Act and in the legislation established on the basis thereof;
- 5) take the measures offered to the parent by the school or the rural municipality or city government of residence;
- 6) based on a proposal of the school, address the counselling committee;
- 7) where necessary, request that the school and the rural municipality or city government of residence of the student take the measures of ensuring the performance of the duty to attend school provided for in legislation.

(2) If a parent fails to perform the duties provided for in subsection (1) of this section, the rural municipality or city government will take the required measures to protect the rights of the child.

§ 12. Measures taken by school to ensure performance of duty to attend school

(1) To ensure performance of duty to attend school, a school will, depending on the reasons for absence, take one or several of the measures specified in subsection 58 (3) of this Act against a student who has been absent from study without a good reason.

(2) If the measures taken by the school do not have any impact or they cannot be applied because the school cannot get hold of the student or a parent, the school will address the rural municipality or city government for taking further measures.

§ 13. Measures taken by rural municipality or city to ensure performance of duty to attend school

To ensure the performance of the duty to attend school, the rural municipality or city of residence of a person subject to the duty to attend school supports, where necessary and possible, the person subject to the duty to attend school, the parents and the school, creating the conditions for the performance of the duty to attend school within the limits of its competence, including:

- 1) organises attendance to persons subject to the duty to attend school, identification of the reasons for failing to perform the duty to attend school and taking measures with regard to persons who do not perform the duty to attend school, appointing a position or structural unit entrusted with these functions;
- 2) where possible, organises training for parents whose children do not perform the duty to attend school, in order to support them in creating conditions for the performance of the duty to attend school;
- 3) in accordance with the Juvenile Sanctions Act, submits applications to the Juvenile Committee for discussing cases of offences committed by minors.

§ 14. Liability of parents for failure to ensure performance of duty to attend school

[Repealed – RT I, 12.07.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

Chapter 3 ORGANISATION OF STUDIES

Division 1 Curriculum

§ 15. National curriculum

(1) The national curriculum for basic schools, the simplified national curriculum for basic schools and the national curriculum for upper secondary schools sets out the goals and objectives of studies, expected learning outcomes, assessment criteria and procedure, and requirements for the learning and teaching environment, organisation of teaching and education, graduation from school and school curriculum.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(2) The basic education standard is established in the national curriculum for basic schools and, with regard to students with mild learning difficulties, students with moderate learning difficulties, and students with severe and profound learning difficulties acquiring basic education, in the simplified national curriculum for basic schools. The standard of general secondary education is established in the national curriculum for upper secondary schools. The Government of the Republic will establish the national curriculum for basic schools, the simplified national curriculum for basic schools and the national curriculum for upper secondary schools (hereinafter jointly referred to as national curricula).

(3) The subject syllabi of at least the following compulsory subjects are set out in the national curriculum for basic schools and in the national curriculum for upper secondary schools by subject areas:

- 1) language and literature: Estonian (in an Estonian-medium school), Russian (in a Russian-medium school) and literature;
- 2) foreign languages: Estonian as a second language; English, German, French and Russian as foreign language A; English, German, French and Russian as foreign language B;
- 3) mathematics: mathematics in the basic school; narrow mathematics and extensive mathematics in the upper secondary school;
- 4) natural science: biology, geography, physics, chemistry and, in the national curriculum for basic schools, also nature studies;
- 5) social studies: personal, social and health education, history, civics and citizenship education;
- 6) art subjects: music, arts;
- 7) technology in the national curriculum for basic schools: craft, handicraft and home economics, technology studies;
- 8) physical education: physical education.

(4) In addition, the national curriculum for basic schools and the national curriculum for upper secondary schools include religious studies and career studies, and the national curriculum for upper secondary schools also includes the syllabi of national defence studies and economics and business administration. The syllabi of other optional subjects may be set out in the national curriculum for basic schools and in the national curriculum for upper secondary schools.

(5) Upon the consent of the board of trustees and on the conditions and pursuant to the procedure provided for in national curricula, the list of subjects provided for in this section may be amended for the purpose of using integrated subject and language teaching, carrying out vocational training and taking into account the regional characteristics or the unique characteristics of the school. Based on non-stationary studies or the special educational needs of students, the standard period of study and the academic workload may, on the conditions provided for in national curricula, differ from those provided for in this Act.

[RT I, 02.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 16. Studies under curriculum of International Baccalaureate Organization or under curriculum drawn up based on Convention defining the Statute of the European Schools

(1) Teaching and education in a school may be carried out under the curriculum of the International Baccalaureate Organization and under a curriculum drawn up on the basis of the Convention defining the Statute of the European Schools (hereinafter jointly referred to as international curriculum).

(2) A school that has been accredited by the International Baccalaureate Organization may teach on the basis of the curriculum of the International Baccalaureate Organization. A school that has fulfilled the requirements established on the basis of the Convention defining the Statutes of the European Schools for teaching under the curriculum may teach under the curriculum drawn up on the basis of the Convention defining the Statutes of the European Schools.

(3) Studies may be pursued in a municipal or state school on the basis of an international curriculum provided that the school carries out teaching also on the basis of the national curriculum for basic schools at the same stage of study of the basic school and, in the upper secondary school, on the basis of the national curriculum for upper secondary schools. The implementation of an international curriculum is funded by the owner of the school. The owner of the school and the minister responsible for the field conclude a public law contract for additional funding of studies from the state budget, specifying the grounds of additional funding, the number of student places and the grounds of admission of students.

(4) In the event of studies based on an international curriculum, the school or the owner of the school does not have to abide by this Act if the international curriculum provides otherwise or if a regulation is, under the international curriculum, within the competence of the school and the school has established a regulation different from this Act.

(5) No administrative supervision is exercised over studies based on an international curriculum in matters whereby, in accordance with subsection (4) of this section, the school or the owner of the school does not abide by this Act.

[RT I, 13.03.2014, 4 – entry into force 01.07.2014]

§ 17. School curriculum

(1) On the basis of national curricula, the school will draw up a curriculum (hereinafter school curriculum) that is the underlying document of study in the school and sets out, above all, the choices within national curricula, which arise from the unique characteristics of the school.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(2) The curriculum of a school will be established by the head of the school. The curriculum of the school and amendments thereto will be submitted to the board of trustees, student council and teachers' council for the expression of an opinion before establishment.

(3) Information about the curriculum of a school will be registered in the education information system's sub-register of curricula and education licences.

(4) By an agreement between the head of school or a teacher authorised by the head of school and a student or, where a student has limited active legal capacity, a parent, the school may consider studies or activities falling outside the school's curriculum, including studies in another general education school, as part of the teaching carried out by the school, provided that it allows the student to achieve the learning outcomes specified in the school curriculum or in the student's individual curriculum.

§ 18. Individual curriculum

(1) When teaching a student, a school may change or adjust the time, contents, process and environment of study. If the changes or adjustments substantially increase or decrease the weekly workload or intensity of studies in comparison with the school curriculum or reduce or replace the learning outcomes provided for in the national curricula, an individual curriculum will be drawn up for the student on the conditions provided for in the national curricula.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(2) If the individual curriculum drawn up for a student with special educational needs lays down reduction or replacement of the learning outcomes provided for in the national curriculum or the release from learning a compulsory subject, the individual curriculum may be implemented on the basis of a recommendation of the counselling committee.

(2¹) An individual curriculum will be drawn up for all students with moderate, severe and profound learning difficulties.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(3) The student or, if the student has limited active legal capacity, their parent and, where necessary, teachers and support specialists will be involved in drawing up an individual curriculum.

§ 19. Learning and teaching environment

(1) The learning and teaching environment must support the development of students.

(2) Upon organisation of teaching and education at school and outside school, the school will follow the requirements established for the learning and teaching environment in the national curricula and other legislation.

(3) [Repealed – RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 20. Educational literature

(1) The school will allow students acquiring basic education to freely use the educational literature (e.g. textbooks, workbooks, exercise-books and worksheets) required for completion of at least the school curriculum and allow students acquiring general secondary education to freely use textbooks required for completion of at least the school curriculum.

(2) The Ministry of Education and Research will, per grade and subject, ensure the availability of the minimum educational literature required for completion of national curricula. Schools are free to choose the educational literature required in each grade for completing the school curriculum.

(3) The requirements established for educational literature, the minimum requirements for reviewing and reviewers of educational literature and the types of the minimum educational literature ensured by the state per grade and subject will be established by the minister responsible for the field.

(4) A publisher of educational literature will make educational literature compliant with the national curriculum also available digitally in a portal run by the Ministry of Education and Research on the conditions and in accordance with the procedure agreed between the Ministry of Education and Research and the publisher.

(5) The minister responsible for the field may conclude a public law contract with a state-owned foundation for running a digital educational literature portal. The Ministry of Education and Research will exercise supervision over the implementation of the public law contract.

(6) A publisher of educational literature will register in the educational literature sub-register of the education information system the data of educational literature complying with the requirements established in the regulation of the minister responsible for the field.

(7) The minister responsible for the field will have the right to delete a registration from the sub-register of educational literature in the education information system if:

- 1) the publisher of educational literature has submitted a respective reasoned application;
- 2) the educational literature does not comply with the national curricula or the requirements established for educational literature in the regulation of the minister responsible for the field; or
- 3) the publisher of educational literature has not made the educational literature digitally available.

(8) If a publisher of educational literature has submitted an application for the deletion of a registration from the sub-register of educational literature, but the minister responsible for the field finds that the application is not reasoned and the registered educational literature complies with the national curricula, the minister may refuse deletion of the registration, specifying the reasons for the refusal.

(9) The minister responsible for the field will inform a publisher of educational literature of the intent to delete a registration. Within 30 days after receiving a notice of the intent to delete the registration, the publisher of educational literature has the right to submit objections to the minister responsible for the field regarding the deletion of the registration.

(10) Within five working days of deleting the registration, the Ministry of Education and Research will inform the publisher of educational literature thereof in a form that can be reproduced in writing.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 21. Language of instruction

(1) The language in which studies are pursued amounts to no less than 60 per cent of the lowest permitted study workload laid down in the national curricula, is deemed the language of instruction of a school or class. If are not pursued to the extent of 60 per cent in any language, the studies are deemed bilingual. In the event of bilingual studies the two languages in which most of the studies are pursued are deemed as the languages of instruction.

(2) In basic schools the language of instruction is Estonian. In a municipal basic school or in single classes thereof the language of instruction may be any language on the basis of a decision of the council of the rural municipality or city government relying on a proposal of the board of trustees of the school and in a state basic school or in single classes thereof the language of instruction may be any language on the basis of a decision of the minister responsible for the field.

(3) In upper secondary schools the language of instruction is Estonian. In municipal upper secondary schools or single classes thereof of the language of instruction may be another language. The permission to pursue studies in another language or bilingual studies is granted by the Government of the Republic on the basis of an application of a rural municipality or city government. The board of trustees of the school makes such a proposal to the rural municipality or city government on the basis of the development plan of the school.

(4) In a school or class where the language of instruction is not Estonian, it is compulsory to teach Estonian as of the first grade. In such a school or class the school ensures the organisation of teaching Estonian at a level that allows the graduates of the basic school to continue their studies in an Estonian-medium educational institution.

(5) A school will organise language and cultural teaching for students acquiring basic education whose native language is not the language of instruction or who communicate at home in a language different from the language of instruction, which is the native language of at least one parent, provided that no fewer than ten students with the same native language or with the same language of household communication request it.

(6) The Government of the Republic will establish the conditions of and procedure for language and culture teaching specified in subsection (5) of this section.

(7) The Ministry of Education and Research will organise the coordination of creation of opportunities for the language and cultural teaching provided for in subsection (5) of this section, including procurement of materials required for language and cultural teaching.

[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

(8) For the purpose of organising the procurement of materials required for language and cultural teaching, the minister responsible for the field may conclude a public law contract with a state-owned foundation. The Ministry of Education and Research will exercise supervision over performance of the public law contract.

[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

§ 22. Stationary and non-stationary studies

(1) Stationary or non-stationary studies or both stationary and non-stationary studies may be pursued in a school.

(2) Stationary studies are aimed at persons subject to the duty to attend school or students for whom learning is a full-time activity, whereby the share of activities instructed by the school exceeds that of independent learning.

(3) Non-stationary studies are studies aimed at adult learners, whereby independent learning has a larger share besides lessons in comparison with stationary studies. Lessons also include the time of provision of various services supporting the development of students, for instance, career counselling.

(4) Persons of 17 years of age or older can acquire basic education in the non-stationary studies. Based on a recommendation of the counselling committee, persons subject to the duty to attend school can acquire basic education in the non-stationary studies if they have special educational needs or another reason that makes the acquisition of education difficult in the stationary studies.

(5) In non-stationary studies the school ensures the student a workload of at least 24 lessons per week of a quarter of the academic year. In a class of up to ten students the school ensures the student a workload of at least 15 lessons per week of a quarter of the academic year. Upon consent of the student, the workload may be reduced. The workload of students is specified in the daily schedule of the school or, where necessary, in an individual curriculum.

(6) Single subjects can also be studied in the non-stationary studies. The workload of a student studying single subjects is laid down for each academic year in an individual curriculum.

(7) Students pursuing the non-stationary studies have the right to take a leave of absence from studies for one year once every three years.

(8) A basic school where non-stationary studies are pursued is required to provide persons who have exceeded the age of compulsory school attendance with the opportunity to graduate from the school as external students under the national curriculum for basic schools. An upper secondary school where non-stationary studies are pursued is required to provide the opportunity to graduate from the school as external students under the national curriculum for upper secondary schools.

(9) An employed student who pursues their studies in the non-stationary form has the right to be granted a study leave by their employer pursuant to the procedure provided for in the Adult Education Act.

§ 23. Home educating requested by parents

(1) A student acquiring basic education may be taught by way of home educating at the request of a parent. Upon application of home educating requested by a parent, the parent organises and funds the part of the studies pursued outside the school.

(2) The minister responsible for the field will establish the conditions of and procedure for home education.

§ 24. Academic year

(1) An academic year lasts from September 1 to August 31.

(2) An academic year consists of academic quarters and school holidays.

(3) An academic quarter contains at least 175 school days in total. In the final year academic quarters contain at least 185 school days in total. No lessons take place on the day of a final exam and on two preceding days. The day of a final exam and the preceding two days are included in the number of school days.

(4) A school day is a calendar day when a student is required to participate in studies under the daily schedule or individual curriculum. One week comprises up to five school days.

(5) A lesson is a period prescribed for instructed studies in the daily schedule of a school or in the individual curriculum of a student. Instructed studies are studies pursued in the manner determined by the school, for example, a lecture, individual lesson, consultation, e-learning and a study visit aimed at the acquisition of knowledge and skills and taking place in a learning and teaching environment where both the student and the teacher participate. The calculated length of a lesson is 45 minutes. A lesson is followed by a recess. A lesson may be divided into multiple parts and up to two consecutive lessons may be taught without a recess. The length of a recess is at least ten minutes per lesson.

(6) In a basic school, activities relating to additional studies may be organised during the summer holiday, taking into account that a holiday of no less than ten consecutive weeks without any activities relating to studies and examinations is ensured for a student acquiring basic education.

(7) The minister responsible for the field will establish school holidays. On the basis of a proposal of the head of the school and with the approval of the board of trustees, the owner of a school may establish school holidays different from those established by the minister responsible for the field, taking into account that during the academic year there are four school holidays with a total duration of at least 12 weeks, whereby the summer holiday lasts at least eight consecutive weeks.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 25. Academic workload and daily schedule

(1) Students' weekly academic workload by subjects is laid down in the school curriculum.

(2) In lessons, the maximum weekly workload of a basic school student is as follows:

- 1) grade 1 – 20;
- 2) grade 2 – 23;
- 3) grades 3 and 4 – 25;
- 4) grade 5 – 28;
- 5) grades 6 and 7 – 30;
- 6) grades 8 and 9 – 32.

(3) The minimum permitted academic workload in an upper secondary school is 96 courses (72 in the non-stationary studies). In upper secondary schools the workload of compulsory studies common for all students is 63 courses (for students who learn Estonian as a second language, 67 courses). A course corresponds to 35 lessons taught under one subject.

(4) Upon planning and implementing teaching and learning, it is made certain that students' academic workload corresponds to their age and abilities, granting them time for resting and hobby activities.

(5) A teacher plans their work in cooperation with other teachers. The main topics covered during an academic quarter or course, the required learning materials, the organisation of assessment and planned events are communicated to basic school students in the beginning of the academic quarter and to upper secondary school students in the beginning of the course.

(6) The daily schedule of a school reflects the sequence and duration of study activities and extra-curricular activities supporting the school curriculum such as activities organised in long day groups, hobby groups and studios. The daily schedule of a school is established by the head of the school.

(7) [Repealed – RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 26. Number of students in classes and study groups in basic school

(1) The upper limit of the size of a class is 24 students in basic school. If studies have been organised in study groups, the upper limit of the size of a class is applied to the study groups as well.

(2) The owner of a school may establish an upper limit of the size of a class lower than the upper limits specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) By way of exception, the owner of a school may, on the basis of a proposal of the head of the school and with the approval of the board of trustees, establish an upper limit higher than the upper limit of the size of a class specified in subsection (1) of this section. An upper limit higher than the upper limit provided for in this Act will not be established with regard to the classes and groups specified in subsection 51 (1) of this Act.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(4) If the total number of students of two or three classes in a basic school is 16 or less, a composite class may be made of these students.

§ 27. Admission of students to school

(1) A basic school is required to admit all persons subject to the duty to attend school who have expressed such desire and for whom the school is the school of residence. Parents are free to choose a school for a person subject to the duty to attend school, if the desired school has vacant student places.

(2) A person who needs special treatment due to behavioural problems is admitted to school on the basis of a respective court judgment or ruling.

(3) The prerequisite for admission to an upper secondary school is the basic education or respective education acquired in a foreign country. Everyone has equal right to compete for admission to an upper secondary school. Upon admission to an upper secondary school, the knowledge and skills of a person may be assessed, but the admission criteria must be based on objective and previously disclosed criteria.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(4) The minister responsible for the field will establish the general conditions of and procedure for the admission of students to school.

(5) To the extent authorised by the regulation of the minister responsible for the field established on the basis of subsection (4) of this section, the owner of a school or the head of school authorised by the owner of a school will establish the conditions of and procedure for admission to the school, including the procedure for the evaluation of knowledge and skills upon admission to upper secondary school. The head of school will prepare the draft conditions of and procedure for admission to the school and it will be submitted to the board of trustees for the expression of an opinion before establishment.

(6) Heads of school make decisions to enrol persons, taking into account the provisions of this section.

§ 28. Exclusion of students from school

(1) A student will be excluded from school:

- 1) if the student or a parent of a student with limited active legal capacity has submitted the respective application to the school;
- 2) if the student has commenced the acquisition of education in another general education school or in a foreign educational institution and is not subject to subsection (3) of this section during the studies abroad;
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]
- 3) if studies are not pursued in the class where the student is supposed to continue their studies;
- 4) if by their behaviour the student jeopardises the security of other people in the school or repeatedly violates the internal rules, except a student subject to the duty to attend school;
- 5) if, upon acquisition of basic education, the student is absent from lessons without a good reason and they cannot therefore be transferred to the next class, except a student subject to the duty to attend school;
- 6) if the student fails to fulfil the conditions of graduation from an upper secondary school within the standard period of study and their period of study has not been extended under an individual curriculum;
- 7) if over a half of the course grades received by the student are “weak” or “poor” in three or more subjects over the academic year when studying in an upper secondary school;
- 8) if, while pursuing studies in the non-stationary form, the student has not participated in studies for five consecutive study weeks, except a student subject to the duty to attend school;
- 9) if the student acquired education in a school that organises teaching and learning in a prison or in a school for students who need special treatment due to behavioural problems and the student was released from prison or the term of staying at the school for students who need special treatment due to behavioural problems expired;

10) if the student has fulfilled the conditions of graduation from a basic school or an upper secondary school and a graduation certificate has been issued to the student;

11) in the event of the death of the student.

(2) Additional grounds for exclusion from upper secondary school may be specified in the internal rules of upper secondary schools.

(3) A student acquiring basic education who temporarily acquires education of the same level in a foreign educational institution will not be excluded from the student list of the school within the standard period of study if home educating is applied to the student is subject at the time of studying abroad at the request of a parent. A student acquiring general secondary education who temporarily acquires education of the same level in a foreign educational institution will not be excluded from the student list of the school within the standard period of study if the student continues the studies as an external student at the time of studying abroad.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(4) The minister responsible for the field will establish a procedure for exclusion of students from school.

(5) Heads of school make decisions to exclude students, taking into account the provisions of this section.

§ 29. Assessment of students

(1) The purpose of assessment is to:

1) support the development of students;

2) give feedback on the academic achievement of students;

3) encourage and guide students to study with purpose;

4) guide the development of the self-esteem of students and to guide and support students in making their further education choices;

5) guide the activities of teachers in supporting learning and individual development;

6) provide a basis for the transfer of students to the next class and for making a decision to graduate from school.

(2) The knowledge, skills and experience of students are assessed on a five-point scale where the grade “5” means “very good,” “4” means “good,” “3” means “satisfactory,” “2” means “poor” and “1” means “weak.”

(3) At stages I and II of the basic school verbal assessments without any numerical equivalent may be used upon assessment of students. The use of descriptive verbal assessments will be provided for in the school curriculum. If a student leaves school or not later than at the end of stage II, the verbal assessments of the current academic year, which serve as the basis for the transfer of the student to the next class, will be transformed to the grade scale specified in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The general conditions of and procedure for assessment, use of an assessment system different from the assessment system specified in subsection (2) of this section, notification of assessment, imposition of additional studies, transfer to the next class and requirement to repeat the grade will be provided for in the national curricula and the detailed conditions and procedure will be provided for in the school curriculum, except notification of assessment, which will be provided for in the internal rules of the school.

§ 30. Graduation from basic school

(1) The conditions of graduation from basic school are provided for in the national curriculum for basic schools and in the simplified national curriculum for basic schools, taking into account the provisions of this section.

(2) Final examinations in basic schools are examinations with harmonised assignments (hereinafter harmonised final examinations of basic school) and school examinations with materials approved by schools (hereinafter school examinations of basic school). The minister responsible for the field will establish the conditions of and procedure for preparing and conducting final examinations in basic schools as well as the conditions of and procedure for drawing up, assessing and preserving examination papers.

[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

(2¹) The Ministry of Education will organise the preparing and conducting of harmonised final examinations of basic school and the drawing up, assessing and preserving of examination papers.

[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

(2²) For the purpose of preparing and organising the conducting of harmonised final examinations of basic school and drawing up, assessing and preserving examination papers, the minister responsible for the field may conclude a public law contract with a state-owned foundation. The Ministry of Education and Research will exercise supervision over the performance of the public law contract.

[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

(3) For the purpose of graduation from basic school under the national curriculum for basic schools, the harmonised examinations of basic school or, in the events specified in the national curriculum for basic schools, the school examination of basic school are taken in the following subjects:

- 1) Estonian or, in the event specified in the national curriculum for basic schools, Estonian as a second language;
- 2) mathematics;
- 3) a subject chosen from among subjects established on the basis of subsection (4) of this section.

(4) The minister responsible for the field will establish the subjects, forms and times of harmonised final examinations of basic school not later than by May 25 in the academic year preceding the final examinations of basic school.

(5) The school will, on the basis of a decision of the teachers' council, issue a basic school graduation certificate to a student or external student who has fulfilled the conditions of graduation from basic school. The data of basic school graduation certificates will be registered in the sub-register of documents certifying education in the education information system.

(6) The Government of the Republic will establish the statute and form of the basic school graduation certificate.

§ 31. Graduation from upper secondary school

(1) The conditions of graduation from upper secondary school are provided for in the national curriculum for upper secondary schools, taking into account the provisions of this section.

(2) The final examinations of upper secondary school are state examinations and school examinations of the upper secondary school. The minister responsible for the field will establish the conditions of and procedure for preparing and conducting final examinations in upper secondary schools as well as the conditions of and procedure for drawing up, assessing and preserving examination papers.
[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

(2¹) The Ministry of Education and Research will organise the preparing and conducting of state examinations, and drawing up, assessing and preserving examination papers, and the issue of state examination certificates.
[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

(2²) For the purpose of preparing and organising the conducting of state examinations, drawing up, assessing and preserving examination papers and issuing state examination certificates, the minister responsible for the field may conclude a public law contract with a state-owned foundation. The Ministry of Education and Research will exercise supervision over performance of the public law contract.
[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

(3) Upon preparing state examinations, the learning outcomes specified in the national curriculum for upper secondary schools that are compulsory for all students will be followed.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(4) The minister responsible for the field will establish the forms and times of state examinations not later than by May 25 in the academic year preceding the final examinations of upper secondary school.

(5) State examinations in Estonian or, in the events provided for in the national curriculum for upper secondary schools, in Estonian as a second language as well as in mathematics and in a foreign language will be taken to graduate from an upper secondary school. A state examination has been passed if at least one per cent of the maximum score has been obtained. A state examination has been passed with a satisfactory result if at least 20 per cent of the maximum score has been obtained.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(6) In order to graduate from an upper secondary school, the following must be passed with a satisfactory result:
1) a school examination of the upper secondary school;
2) a student investigation paper or practical work, except in the event of graduation from school as an external student.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(7) On the basis of subsection (2), the state examination in a foreign language required for graduation from upper secondary school may be replaced by an internationally recognised examination in the same language on the conditions and pursuant to the procedure established by the minister responsible for the field.

(8) The minister responsible for the field will establish the conditions of and procedure for preparing and assessing student investigation papers and practical work.

(9) Results of state examinations and electronic certificates will be made available to examinees electronically. The data of state examination certificates will be registered in the sub-register of documents certifying education in the education information system.

(10) Upper secondary school graduation certificates will be issued to students or external students who have fulfilled the conditions of graduation from upper secondary school. The data of upper secondary school graduation certificates will be registered in the sub-register of documents certifying education in the education information system.

(11) The Government of the Republic will establish the statute and form of the upper secondary school graduation certificate.

(12) A person who has acquired secondary education will pay a state fee for registration for a repeat taking of a state examination in the same subject. If the organisation of conducting state examinations has been transferred to a state-owned foundation under a public law contract concluded on the basis of subsection (2²) of this section, no state fee will be charged, but the foundation will have the right to charge a fee for registration for a repeat taking of the state examination, but the fee will not exceed the rate of the state fee charged for it under the State Fees Act.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 32. Database of final examinations

(1) For the purpose of creating and administering final examination assignments, drawing up and making available final examination papers and ensuring the taking and standardised assessment of final examinations the Government of the Republic will establish the database of final examinations that forms a part of the state information system.

(2) The Government of the Republic will approve the statutes of the database of final examinations.

(3) The chief processor of the database of final examinations is the Ministry of Education and Research.

§ 33. Challenging results of state examinations and harmonised final examinations of basic school

(1) An appeal may be lodged with the Ministry of Education and Research against the results of a state examination and a harmonised final examination of basic school. An appeal will be lodged within five working days as of the date of making the state examination certificate or school graduation certificate available. The minister responsible for the field will form an appeals committee for reviewing appeals lodged.

(2) Within ten days after an appeal was filed the appeals committee will make one of the following decisions regarding an examination paper whose result was challenged:

- 1) not to change the examination result;
- 2) to raise the examination result;
- 3) to lower the examination result.

(3) On the grounds and pursuant to the procedure provided for in the Code of Administrative Court Procedure an appeal may be lodged with an administrative court regarding the results of a state examination and a harmonised final examination of basic school, provided that an appeal has been filed with the appeals committee beforehand and that the committee has returned the appeal, has not resolved it within the prescribed term, has refused to amend the examination result or lowered it.

§ 34. National assessment of learning outcomes

(1) The purpose of national assessment of learning outcomes is to give students, parents, schools, owners of schools and the state as objective and comparable feedback as possible on the attainment of the learning outcomes provided for in the national curricula and the effectiveness of teaching and learning in schools and provide the state with necessary information for making education policy decisions.

(2) External valuation of learning outcomes will take place through standard-determining tests, harmonised final examinations of basic school and state examinations.

(3) The minister responsible for the field will establish the subjects, forms and time of standard-determining tests, the conditions and procedure for preparing, drawing up, carrying out and assessing and the procedure for standard-determining tests and the conditions of and procedure for analysing harmonised final examinations of basic school and state examinations.

(3¹) The Ministry of Education and Research will coordinate the preparing, drawing up, conducting and assessing of standard-determining tests and the analysis of standard-determining tests, harmonised final examinations of basic school and state examinations.

[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

(3²) For the purpose of preparing, drawing up, conducting and assessing standard-determining tests and analysing the results of standard-determining tests, harmonised final examinations of basic school and state examinations, the minister responsible for the field may conclude a public law contract with a state-owned foundation. The Ministry of Education and Research will exercise supervision over performance of the public law contract.

[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

(4) The minister responsible for the field or the institution specified in subsection (3²) of this section will inform schools of the results of the national assessment of learning outcomes.

[RT I, 02.07.2012, 1 – entry into force 01.08.2012]

Division 2

Participation in studies

§ 35. Participation in studies and absence from studies organised in school

(1) Students have the right and duty to do study exercises and to participate in the studies laid down for them in the daily schedule of their school or in their individual curriculum.

(2) Absence from studies is permitted only with a good reason. The school assesses whether the reasons for absence from studies can be deemed good. Good reasons for absence from lessons are as follows:

- 1) the student falls ill or the provision of the student with a health service;
- 2) the road leading to the school is impassable or the occurrence of another force majeure circumstance, including the weather conditions specified in a regulation of the minister responsible for the field based on clause 8 (2) 3) of the Public Health Act whereby the absence from studies is reasoned;
- 3) substantial family-related reasons;
- 4) other reasons deemed good by the school.

(3) Schools will adopt a procedure for notifying of absence from studies in their internal rules.

(4) Schools will keep account of absence from studies, make a summary thereof at least once per academic quarter and inform parents thereof.

§ 36. Notifying of absence of students subject to duty to attend school from studies

(1) Not later than on the first school day of absence from studies a parent will notify the school of the student's absence from studies and the reasons thereof. If the parent has not informed the school of the student's absence, the school will inform the parent thereof not later than the next school day. The parent will notify the school of the duration of the absence not later than on the second school day following the lapse of the reasons for absence.

(2) If a school employee has reasonable doubt that false information has been submitted when reasoning a student's absence, the school will have the right to ask additional explanations from a parent or address the rural municipality or city government of the student's residence and the latter will take measures to identify the actual reasons for absence and to ensure the performance of the duty to attend school.

(3) If a parent has not notified the school of a student's absence and the school cannot identify the reason for absence, the school will inform the rural municipality or city government of the student's residence thereof not later than on the next day of absence from studies. In such an event the rural municipality or city government will organise the taking of measures in order to identify the reasons for absence and ensure performance of the duty to attend school.

(4) Information about students who have been absent from studies without a good reason for more than 20 per cent of lessons during one academic quarter is registered in the sub-register of students, higher education students and resident physicians.

Division 3

Supporting development of students at school

§ 37. Supporting development of students

(1) Teachers observe the development and coping of students at school and, where necessary, adjust studies according to the needs of students. For the purpose of developing the abilities and talents of students, their individual study needs will be identified, suitable teaching methods will be chosen and, where necessary, differentiated teaching will be carried out. Schools will provide students who temporarily fall behind in attaining the presumable learning outcomes with additional pedagogical guidance outside lessons.

(2) Students will be provided with the services of at least a special education teacher (including a speech therapist), psychologist and social educator (hereinafter support specialists). The owners of the schools will create and the heads of school will organise the opportunities for implementation of the services of support specialists. The head of school may commission the services of the support specialists from the Ministry of Education and Research or, in the event specified in subsection (2²) of this section, from a state-owned foundation that provides schools with the services of a special education teacher and psychologist at least in each county. The service prices must be cost-based and they will be established by a regulation of the minister responsible for the field specified in subsection (2¹) of this section.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(21) The description of the services of the support specialists, the scope and conditions of provision of the service by the state, and the prices of the services will be established by a regulation of the minister responsible for the field.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(22) For the performance of the function specified in subsection (2) of this section, the minister responsible for the field may conclude a public law contract with a state-owned foundation. The Ministry of Education and Research will exercise supervision over the implementation of the public law contract.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(3) A developmental conversation is held at school with each student at least once per academic year for the purpose of supporting the development of the student, and further study and development goals are agreed on the basis thereof.

(4) The student, class teacher and, in the event the student has limited active legal capacity, a parent participate in a developmental conversation. If the school has been unable to get hold of a parent of a student required to attend school in order to agree on the time of a developmental conversation or has failed to attend the developmental conversation for the second time, the school will inform the rural municipality or city government of the student's residence and the latter will, where necessary, organise measures to be taken for the protection of the rights of the child. Where necessary, a parent of a student with active legal capacity, provided that the student has granted consent thereto, as well as other school employees, support specialists and representatives of the rural municipality or city government of the student's residence will be involved.

(5) The conditions of and procedure for the organisation of developmental conversations will be established by the head of school, who submits these to the teachers' council and the board of trustees for the expression of an opinion beforehand.

§ 38. Long day group

(1) The head of a school may, upon the consent of the owner of the school, form long day groups in the school for students acquiring basic education. Supervision and pedagogical instruction and guidance in spending spare time, doing homework, pursuing hobbies and developing interests is offered to students as extracurricular activities organised in a long day group. On the basis of a proposal of the board of trustees, a school will organise the formation of a long day group jointly with the owner of the school.

(2) The work organisation and daily schedule of a long day group will be established by the head of school, setting a time for doing homework, outdoor recreation and hobby activities. The proposals of the board of trustees, the security and protection of the health of students, the overall teaching and education goals of the school, the age and individual characteristics of the students of the long day group, the conditions at their homes, the reasoned requests of parents and students, and the transport facilities will serve as the basis for planning and organising the work of a long day group.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(3) [Repealed – RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(4) A student is admitted to and excluded from a long day group by a decision of the head of school and on the basis of a request of a parent or, in the event provided for in the Juvenile Sanctions Act, on the basis of a decision of the juvenile committee.

§ 39. Boarding school facilities

(1) A school may have boarding school facilities that constitute a structural unit of the school under the statutes of the school.

(2) Extracurricular activities ensuring the learning, living and education conditions that comply with the needs and interests of students as well as with the security and health protection requirements are organised in boarding school facilities.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(3) The minister responsible for the field will establish the conditions of and procedure for operation of boarding school facilities.

(4) The organisation of the life of students in boarding school facilities and the conditions of and procedure for admission to and exclusion from boarding school facilities will be specified in the internal rules of the boarding school facilities. The head of school will establish the internal rules of the boarding school facilities and these will be submitted to the teachers' council, board of trustees and student council for the expression of an opinion before establishment. The minister responsible for the field may establish the general conditions of and procedure for admission of students to state-supported places in the boarding school facilities specified in subsection (7) of this section.

(5) [Repealed – RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(6) At the request of the owner of a school and with the approval of the governor of the county of location of the school, the minister responsible for the field will designate a municipal or private school whose existing boarding school facilities or whose boarding school facilities to be formed contain state-supported places for the basic education-acquiring children of families who have difficulties copies for the purposes of the Social Welfare Act (hereinafter state-supported place in boarding school facilities) and establish the number of state-supported places in the boarding school facilities in these schools.

(7) A reasoned application of the rural municipality or city government of the place of residence of the student, the approval of the governor of the county of the place of residence of the student and the location of the boarding school facilities, and the consent of the student or a parent of the student who has limited active legal capacity serves as the basis for the admission of the student to a state-supported place in the boarding school facilities.

(8) The following will be specified in a reasoned application of a rural municipality or city government:

- 1) the term during which the student must be provided with accommodation in the boarding school facilities;
- 2) deficiencies in caring for and raising the student or other circumstances that prevent the student from performing the duty to attend school;
- 3) other social welfare measures taken with regard to the student and parents along with the reasons as to why these have not proven sufficient or why their use is not possible;
- 4) types and scope of assistance rendered to the student and parents during the time of staying at the boarding school facilities.

(9) A student admitted to a state-supported place in boarding school facilities is, at least until the end of the current academic quarter, allowed to go to the school in whose structural unit the boarding school facilities are.

§ 40. Hobby activities at school

(1) Hobby activities are activities supporting the completion of a school curriculum or other extracurricular activities taking place in or organised by a school. Various forms and methods of study, including hobby groups and studios, are used in hobby activities.

(2) In extracurricular activities a student has the right to use the civil engineering works, rooms and library of their school and the teaching and learning, sports, technical and other facilities of the school pursuant to the procedure provided for in the internal rules of the school.

§ 41. School library

(1) A school is required to have a library.

(2) The main function of a library is to support studies under the curriculum of the school, develop students' individual learning and information acquisition skills and their interest in reading through preservation of printed materials, audiovisual data media and other data media and through making these available.

(3) Based on the purpose of use, libraries are divided into the main collection and the educational literature collection.

(4) The minister responsible for the field will establish the bases of the work organisation of school libraries.

(5) A public library may perform the main function of a school library with regard to the main collection if the public library is located in the same building as the school or close enough to the school so the performance of the main function of the school library is not impeded. In such an event the school library is required to have at least a collection of educational literature.

§ 42. Support covering school lunch expenses of municipal and private school students

[RT I, 05.11.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(1) The owner of a school organises catering for students at school in accordance with the health protection requirements established on the basis of the Public Health Act.

(2) Support for covering the school lunch expenses of students acquiring basic and secondary education in the stationary studies in municipal and private schools is allocated in the state budget (hereinafter school lunch support).

[RT I, 05.11.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(3) The school lunch support is allocated on the basis of the number of students acquiring basic and secondary education in the stationary studies in the municipal and private schools in the administrative territory of a rural municipality or city, which is indicated in the education information system as of November 10 in the year preceding the planned year, and on the basis of the calculated price of a school lunch per student.

[RT I, 05.11.2014, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

(4) The Government of the Republic will establish the school lunch support per student and the procedure for allocation of the school lunch support.

(5) The council of a rural municipality or city will establish the conditions of and procedure for using the school lunch support.

§ 43. Provision of health services at school

(1) Students acquiring basic or general secondary education in the stationary studies are provided with health services at school, including activities carried out by nurses. The minister responsible for the field will establish the activities to be carried out by nurses providing health services at school and the requirements for the time, scope, availability and location of the activities of the nurses.

(2) The owner of a school ensures the availability of health services at school and, for the purpose of ensuring consistency, cooperates with the provider of health services at school, ensures the existence of the rooms and non-medical equipment in accordance with the requirements established on the basis of subsection 25 (2) of the Health Care Services Organisation Act, bears the related expenses, and organises and funds the transportation of a student to the place of provision of health services in the event of an indispensable need and if a parent of the student is unable to organise transportation in such a situation.

§ 44. Ensuring mental and physical security at school

(1) Schools ensure the mental and physical security and the protection of the health of students during their stay at school.

(2) The procedure for prevention of situations jeopardising the mental or physical security of students and school employees, reaction to such situations, notification of incidents, resolution of incidents and the procedure for the application of the measure provided for in subsection (7) of this section will be laid down in the internal rules of a school with the approval of the owner of the school.

(3) In accordance with the internal rules of a school, the owner of the school creates the opportunities for and the owner of the school organises the protection of the mental and physical security and protection of the health of students and school employees and for taking measures for the prevention of mental and physical violence.

(4) Supervision over students throughout the school day is ensured at school for the purpose of prevention of violence. The use of the rooms and territory is organised to the extent of the possibilities in such a manner that it would help to prevent the emergence of a situation jeopardising the mental or physical security of the students and school employees.

(5) For the purpose of preventing a situation threatening the security of students and school employees and reacting to a situation a school may use surveillance equipment for the purposes and pursuant to the procedure of the Security Act, taking into account the requirements provided for in the Personal Data Protection Act.

(6) The procedure for use of surveillance equipment is provided for in the internal rules of a school.

(7) For the purpose of ensuring surveillance over the security of students, school employees and students with limited active legal capacity, a school may control entry to and exit from the school building or territory and restrict the exit from the school building or territory by students with limited active legal capacity acquiring basic education in the stationary studies.

§ 45. Resolution of emergencies at school

(1) An emergency means an event or a chain of events that jeopardise the life and health of persons staying at school, causes substantial harm to the environment or extensive economic damage.

(2) The owner of a school will create the opportunities for and the head of the school will organise the protection of students and school employees in the event of an emergency.

(3) The head of a school will organise the drafting of the emergency plan of the school, involving the teachers' council, the board of trustees and experts therein, where necessary. The following will be laid down in an emergency plan:

- 1) general principles of resolving an emergency;
- 2) functions of the persons involved in resolving an emergency at school;
- 3) persons directing and contributing to the resolution of an emergency;
- 4) organisation of directing and coordinating the resolution of an emergency;
- 5) organisation of exchange of information;
- 6) organisation of notifying school employees, students, parents and, where necessary, other persons;
- 7) organisation of studies in the event of an emergency;
- 8) activities after an emergency.

(4) The head of school will establish an emergency plan.

Division 4

Specifications of organisation of studies of students with special educational needs

§ 46. Students with special educational needs

(1) A student with special educational needs means a student whose talent, specific learning difficulties, health status, disability, behavioural and emotional disorders, longer-term absence from studies or insufficient proficiency in the language of instruction of a school brings about the need to make changes or adjustments in the subject matter, process, duration, workload or environment of study (e.g. teaching materials, school rooms, language of communication, including a sign language or other alternative means of communication, support staff, teachers who have received special training) or in the expected learning outcomes or in the work plan drawn up by a teacher for working with a class.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the talent of a student is considered a special educational need whereby the student, owing to their great abilities, is able to achieve excellent results and has demonstrated either separately or in combination the following high abilities: overall intellectual capacity, academic ability, creative thinking, leadership abilities, abilities in visual arts or performing arts, psychomotor ability.

(3) A special educational need is identified using pedagogical-psychological assessment, repeat and more accurate observation of the behaviour of a student in different conditions, gathering information about the student and the environment of their upbringing, and medical and speech therapy examinations of the student. Talented students are also identified on the basis of the results of standardised tests carried out by licensed specialists, achievement of very good results in national or international subject Olympics, contests or competitions, and assessments of field experts.

§ 47. Organisation of studies of students with special educational needs

(1) Upon the organisation of the studies of a student with special educational needs, the principles of inclusive studies, according to which students with special educational needs usually study in an ordinary class of their school of residence, are followed.

(2) The principles of organisation of studies for students with special educational needs will be laid down in the school curriculum.

(3) The head of school appoints a person whose duty is to organise cooperation between support specialists, instructors of talented students and teachers (hereinafter special educational needs coordinator) for the purpose of supporting the teaching and development of a student with special educational needs.

(4) The special educational needs coordinator supports and instructs a teacher in identifying special educational needs and makes proposals to the teacher, parent and head of school regarding further educational work, application of measures offered by the school in support of the development of the student or conducting further investigations, thereby cooperating with teachers and support specialists.

§ 48. Measures applied by decision of school in support of student with special educational needs

(1) By a decision of the head of school or a school employee authorised by the head of school the measures provided for in this chapter, including the support specialist service, implementation of an individual curriculum, admission to the long day group, admission to boarding school facilities and, with the approval of a parent, the transfer of the student to the group or class specified in clauses 51 (1) 1) to 4), may be applied to a student with special educational needs, unless a recommendation of the counselling committee is the prerequisite for the application of the measures.

(2) If the special educational needs of a student arise from their talent, the implementation of an individual curriculum and, where necessary, additional instruction by subject teachers or other specialists of the respective field will be ensured through educational programmes or other educational institutions.

(3) In the period of application of a measure the teachers and support specialists attending to the student observe the development and coping of the student.

(4) For the purpose of assessment of the effectiveness of the application of the measures, all the teachers and support specialists who participated in the application of the measures will describe the development and coping of the student and make their recommendations at least once per academic year.

(5) At the end of the period of application of the measures, the special educational needs coordinator will assess the effectiveness of the measures in cooperation with teachers and support specialists and make proposals to the parents and, where necessary, to the head of school for further activities: termination of the application of the measures; continuance of the application of the measures in the same or improved manner; replacement of a measure or addition of another measure; conducting further investigations; recommending that the student see a specialist doctor, a specialist of a particular field or the consulting committee.

(6) The results of the pedagogical-psychological assessment carried out for identification of special educational needs, additional observations and recommendations of teachers regarding the strengths and weaknesses of a student, recommendations of the support specialists of the school, test and examination results, and the recommendations of the counselling committee regarding organisation of studies and the measures applied to the student on the basis thereof will be documented in a child development observance chart drawn up for the purpose of observance of the development and coping of the student with special educational needs. The head of school will appoint the persons in charge of drawing up and filling in the individual development observance map.

§ 49. Measures applied by recommendation of counselling committee in support of student with special educational needs

(1) By a recommendation of the counselling committee and with the approval of a parent, the school will teach the student on the basis of the simplified national curriculum, transfer the student to a class of students with special educational needs specified in clauses 51 (1) 5) to 12) of this Act, organise studies pursuant to the simplified national curriculum for basic schools, apply home educating or one-to-one teaching based on the health status, replace or reduce the learning outcomes prescribed in the national curriculum for basic schools, or release from learning a compulsory subject.

(2) Upon organisation of studies and application of measures pursuant to the recommendations of the counselling committee, the observance of the development and coping of the student will be continued. Upon expiry of the term set by the counselling committee or at least once per academic year the special educational needs coordinator assesses in cooperation with teachers and support specialists the impact of the organisation of studies or application of measures recommended by the counselling committee on the development and coping of the student and on the basis thereof makes proposals for further activities, including for conducting additional examinations or addressing the counselling committee for the purpose of obtaining new recommendations.

(3) If it is not possible to organise studies in the school of residence due to a student's special educational needs, the rural municipality or city of the student's residence will, in cooperation with other schools and owners of schools, provide the student with opportunities of acquisition of education in accordance with the recommendations of the counselling committee. If, based on a recommendation of the counselling committee, the student commences studies in a school outside the administrative territory of the rural municipality or city of residence, the rural municipality or city of residence will organise transportation or compensate for the student's travel expenses. The organisation of transport and travel expenses will be compensated for pursuant to the procedure established by the rural municipality or city government, except if the travel expenses are compensated out of the state budget pursuant to the procedure established on the basis of subsection 28 (2) of the Public Transport Act.

§ 50. Counselling committee

(1) The minister responsible for the field or, in the event specified in subsection 37 (2²) of this Act, a state foundation will establish in each county at least one counselling committee entrusted with the function of making recommendations for the postponement of the duty to attend school, admission of a person below seven years of age to school, and organisation of the teaching and education of persons with special educational needs in the events provided for in this Act and in the Preschool Child Care Institutions Act. Based on the special needs or the need for a support measure, the minister responsible for the field or, in the event specified in subsection 37 (2²) of this Act, a state foundation may establish a national counselling committee.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2014]

(2) The counselling committee has no less than five members. The counselling committee must include a special education teacher, a speech therapist, a school psychologist, a social worker and a representative of the county or city government. Where necessary, the counselling committee may involve other experts in its work. The establisher of the counselling committee will establish the rules of procedure of the committee.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2014]

(3) Upon making recommendations regarding a person with special educational needs, the counselling committee relies on the results of a prior pedagogical and psychological and, where necessary, medical examination of the person, which have been submitted to the committee.

(4) The minister responsible for the field will establish the conditions of and procedure for submission of applications to counselling committees.

(5) The counselling committee informs the school where a student studies of the recommendations of the committee regarding the student. The recommendations of the counselling committee are mandatory for the school organising studies of the student and, in the event the student has limited active legal capacity, a parent has granted their approval.

(6) The state budget will include support for covering the operating the expenses of counselling committees.

§ 51. Groups and classes of students with special educational needs

(1) For the purpose of better organisation of the studies of students with special educational needs, the following groups and classes may be formed in schools in order to create the required support services for students whom these cannot be ensured in an ordinary class:

- 1) remedial instruction groups for students acquiring basic education for provision of special education or speech therapy assistance – the upper limit of the size of the group is 6 students;
- 2) classes for students with behavioural problems acquiring basic education – the upper limit of the size of the class is 12 students;
- 3) classes for students with severe somatic illnesses – the upper limit of the size of the class is 12 students;
- 4) classes for students with a speech impairment, visual impairment, hearing impairment or physical/motor disability – the upper limit of the size of the class is 12 students;
- 5) classes for students with specific learning difficulties acquiring basic education – the upper limit of the size of the class is 12 students;
- 6) classes for students with mild learning difficulties acquiring basic education – the upper limit of the size of the class is 12 students;
- 7) classes for students with emotional and behavioural disorders acquiring basic education – the upper limit of the size of the class is 8 students;
- 8) classes for students with multiple disabilities acquiring basic education – the upper limit of the size of the class is 6 students;
- 9) classes for students with moderate learning difficulties acquiring basic education – the upper limit of the size of the class is 6 students;
- 10) classes for students acquiring basic education whom the counselling committee has, based on their specific educational needs, recommended studying in a small class, including students with autism spectrum disorders, activity and attention disorders or addiction disorders or students whose talent in combination with another special need results in the need to study in a small class – the upper limit of the size of the class is 4 students;
- 11) classes for students with severe and profound learning difficulties acquiring basic education – the upper limit of the size of the class is 4 students;
- 12) classes for students with educational problems acquiring basic education – the upper limit of the size of the class is 12 students.

(2) The classes and groups of students with special educational needs will be specified in the statutes of schools. With the approval of the owner of the school the head of school may form classes and groups of students with special educational needs, which have not been specified in the statutes.

(3) A composite class whose size is determined on the basis of the special educational needs of specific students may be made of two or three classes of students with special educational needs, but in any event it will not exceed 12 students.

(4) The minister responsible for the field will establish the bases of organisation of studies and education in classes and groups of students with special educational needs and the conditions of and procedure for admission to, transfer to and exclusion from a class or group.

§ 52. One-to-one teaching

(1) By a recommendation of the counselling committee and with the approval of the student or, in the event the student has limited active legal capacity, a parent, one-to-one teaching is applied to the student who due to their health status requires constant supervision or assistance at school.

(2) The minister responsible for the field will establish the conditions of and procedure for the application of one-to-one teaching.

§ 53. Home educating and in-hospital teaching due to health status

(1) Home educating means the organisation of educating at a student's home or in another place outside the school premises agreed with the student or, in the event the student has limited active legal capacity, a parent of the student. Home educating is applied to a student with special educational needs based on the student's health status.

(2) In-hospital teaching means the teaching of a hospitalised student acquiring basic or general secondary education.

(3) The minister responsible for the field will establish the conditions of and procedure for home educating and in-hospital teaching.

§ 54. Additional studies for students who have graduated from basic school under simplified national curriculum for basic schools

(1) By a decision of the owner of a school additional studies may be organised in a basic school for students who have graduated from basic school under the simplified national curriculum for basic schools in order to provide additional preparation and support for the smooth continuance of studies or entry into the labour market.

(2) Students who have obtained a basic school graduation certificate in the same year and who are not ready to continue their studies or enter the labour market or who were not admitted to the desired educational institution will be admitted to additional studies. Students in additional studies are subject to the provisions of law applicable to students acquiring basic education in the stationary form of study, given the specifications arising from this section.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(3) The duration of additional studies is one academic year. Persons attending additional studies are provided with instructed studies to the extent of 1,050 lessons, including 525 lessons of general education studies and 525 lessons of vocational training and development of social and personal skills. Vocational training is carried out in cooperation with a relevant vocational educational institution or employer.

(4) A transition plan is made for each student, specifying the subject matter and daily schedule of the studies of the student. The student's knowledge and skills, the requests and needs of the student and a parent, and the facilities of the school are taken into account upon drawing up the transition plan.

Chapter 4 STUDENTS AND PARENTS

§ 55. Notification of students and parents

(1) Students and their parents have the right to receive information and explanations from the school regarding the organisation of studies and the rights and duties of students. The school is required to grant the parents of a student studying in the stationary form of study access to the information that is in the possession of the school regarding the student. By a written application, a student with active legal capacity can prohibit access to the information that is in the possession of the school regarding the student. Parents' access to the information about whether a student is enrolled in the school or not may be prohibited only with good reason.

(2) Schools disclose the conditions of and procedure for admission and the contact details of the institutions exercising administrative supervision over the school on their website.

[RT I, 13.03.2014, 4 – entry into force 01.07.2014]

(3) Students are notified of the main subjects covered during an academic quarter or course, the required learning materials, the organisation of assessment, and the planned events in the beginning of the academic quarter or course. The school provides the parents of students studying in the stationary form of study with the opportunities of accessing relevant information.

(4) The part of the daily schedule of the school applicable to the students is made available to the students and the parents of students studying in the stationary form of study pursuant to the procedure provided for in the internal rules of the school.

(5) Schools inform students and their parents of the grades of the students. If a student or, in the event a student has limited active legal capacity, a parent of a student has not granted approval to the electronic notification of the student's grades, the school will inform the student and the parent of the student's grades via a report card or the student's record books issued on paper.

§ 56. Calling meeting of parents

In order to coordinate cooperation between the school and the parents, the head of school calls a meeting of the parents of the students studying in the stationary form of study, thereby giving all parents the chance to participate in the parents' meeting at least once a year. In the event of the stationary form of study the head of school is obligated, at the request of the parents of at least one-fifth of the students of the class, to call a meeting of the parents of the students of the class.

§ 57. Commending students

On the conditions and pursuant to the procedure established by the minister responsible for the field students are commended during their studies, with distinction on their basic school graduation certificate and, upon graduation from an upper secondary school, by a gold or silver medal. Schools may provide for other measures of commendation in their internal rules.

§ 58. Application of support measures and imposition of sanctions on students

(1) Reasoned, relevant and proportional support measures may be taken and sanctions may be imposed with regard to a student with the aim of influencing students to abide by the internal rules of the school, respect others and prevent the emergence of situations jeopardising safety at school.

(2) Before taking support measures or imposing sanctions, the student's explanations are heard and the choice of the support measure or sanction is reasoned to the student. A student and, before imposing the sanctions specified in clause 12) of subsection (2) of this section, a parent of the student are allowed to express their opinion on the student's behaviour and the imposition of the sanction before the imposition of the sanction.

(3) The support measures (including conducting a developmental conversation, implementation of an individual curriculum, admission of the student to a long day group, hobby group or boarding school facilities of the school, provision of the services of a support specialist, transfer of the student to a class for students with behavioural problems or educational problems) may be taken against and one or several of the following sanctions may be imposed on a student on the conditions and pursuant to the procedure provided for in this Act:

- 1) discussion of the student's behaviour with the student's parent;
 - 2) discussion of the student's behaviour with the student in the presence of the head of school or head teacher;
 - 3) discussion of the student's behaviour with the student in the teachers' council;
- [RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]
- 4) appointment of a support person to the student;
 - 5) a written reprimand;
 - 6) taking custody by the school of objects used by the student in a manner not in accordance with the school's internal rules;
 - 7) removal from a lesson along with the duty to stay in the prescribed place and achieve the required learning outcomes by the end of the lesson;
 - 8) conciliation of parties involved in a conflict with the aim of achieving an agreement on further steps;
 - 9) carrying out an activity that benefits the school, which may be applied only with the approval of the student or, in the event the student has limited active legal capacity, a parent of the student;
 - 10) the duty to stay at school after the end of lessons and perform the prescribed activity to the extent of 1.5 hours during one day of study;
 - 11) a temporary ban on participating in extracurricular activities (e.g. events and trips) at school;
 - 12) a temporary ban on participating in studies along with the duty to achieve the required learning outcomes by the end of the period.

(4) The head of school or a person authorised by the head of school decides the imposition of the sanctions provided for in subsection (3) of this section, except for the imposition of the sanctions provided for in clause 12) of subsection (3), which is decided by the teachers' council.

(5) The objects that the school has taken custody of are preserved and returned pursuant to the procedure provided for in the internal rules of the school.

(6) If the student needs to use transport in order to get home from school, the organisation of transport will be taken into account upon imposing the sanctions specified in clause 10) of subsection (3).

(7) At the time of imposition of the sanctions specified in clauses 7) and 10) of subsection (3) of this section the school will ensure supervision over the student and, where necessary, the pedagogical instruction of the student.

(8) A temporary ban on participation in studies along with the duty to achieve the required learning outcomes by the end of the period may be applied with regard to a student to the extent of 10 days of study over a half-year. The decision on the imposition of a temporary ban on participation in studies is made in writing and delivered to the student or, in the event the student has limited active legal capacity, to a parent by mail or is handed over against signature. An individual curriculum is drawn up in cooperation with the student or, in the event the student has limited active legal capacity, a parent of the student on whom a temporary ban on participation in studies is imposed in order to ensure the achievement of the required learning outcomes. The parent of the student with limited active legal capacity ensures supervision over the student in the period of imposition of the sanction specified in this subsection and the organisation of studies pursuant to the individual curriculum.

(9) The procedure for notification of the application of support measures and imposition of sanctions will be laid down in the internal rules of the school. A parent of a student with limited active legal capacity is informed at least of the imposition of the sanctions specified in clauses 10) and 11) of subsection (3) in a form that can be reproduced in writing.

§ 59. Issue of student cards

Student cards of schools are issued free of charge at the request of students or parents of students with limited active legal capacity. The minister responsible for the field will establish the procedure for issuing student cards and the form of student cards.

§ 60. Student body and student council

(1) The students of a school constitute the student body.

(2) The student body of a school has the right to decide and independently organise the matters of student life in accordance with acts and legislation adopted based on acts.

(3) A student body has the right to:

1) form unions and organisations with other student bodies on the basis of and pursuant to the procedure provided for in legislation without having the status of an entity specified in § 5 of the Non-Profit Associations Act and in subsection 5 (2) of the Foundations Act;

2) become a member of Estonian and international organisations or pursue cooperation with them through a student council;

3) decide and organise all the other matters of student life, which fall within the competence of student bodies under an Act or legislation adopted on the basis of an Act and which are not for anyone else to decide and organise on the same grounds.

(4) A student body has the right to elect a student council who represents the student body within the competence of the student council specified in the statutes of the student council in the internal relationships of the school and in relations with other organisations, institutions and persons. In its activities, the student council follows the interests, needs, rights and duties of students.

(5) The procedure for the formation, rights, duties, responsibilities and rules of procedure of a student council are laid down in the statutes of the student council. The student body draws up the statutes of the student council, thereby cooperating, where necessary, with the head of the school or the school employees appointed by the head of the school. The student body approves the statutes of the student council pursuant to the procedure laid down in the statutes of the school. The student council submits the statutes of the student council to the head of the school for approval. Within 30 days as of the receipt of the statutes the head of the school will approve the statutes of the student council if it complies with acts, legislation adopted on the basis of acts and internationally recognised democratic principles or submits written reasons as to why the statutes cannot be approved.

(6) All the students of the school have the right to elect the student council. The head of the school organises the elections of the first student council pursuant to the procedure laid down in the statutes of the school, following democratic principles.

(7) Where possible, funds for funding the activities of the student council may be allocated in the school budget, considering the needs of the student council and students.

Chapter 5 MANAGEMENT OF SCHOOLS

Division 1 Foundation of schools and education licences

§ 61. Foundation of schools

(1) A state school will be founded by the minister responsible for the field and a municipal school by the council of a rural municipality or city.

(2) The county governor or, in the event of state schools, also the rural municipality or city of the location of the school will express an opinion on the necessity of the foundation of a school based on the regional education policy and the need of development of the school network.

(3) A school founded jointly by several rural municipalities or cities (hereinafter joint school) will be founded by rural municipality or city councils. The bases of operation of a joint school will be laid down in a public law contract to be made by rural municipality or city governments authorised by rural municipality or city councils, setting out the rights, duties and obligations of the parties in managing the school.

(3¹) A municipal school may operate in the administrative territory of another rural municipality or city with the consent of the rural municipality or city.
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(4) It may be stipulated in a decision of foundation of a school that teaching and education will not be carried out in all classes or at all the stages of study at once, but that teaching and education will be commenced gradually.

(5) The data of a school is registered in the education information system's sub-register of educational institutions.

(6) Municipal and state schools are registered in the national register of state and local agencies.

§ 62. Name of school

The name of a school will clearly differ from the names of other educational institutions registered in the education information system and not be misleading with regard to the education level that can be acquired at the school.

§ 63. Education licence of municipal school

(1) An education licence gives a rural municipality or city the right to organise teaching and education at the education levels or basic school stages in the respective school. The minister responsible for the field will decide on the granting of an education licence.

(2) The owner of a school will submit an application for an education licence to the minister responsible for the field at least five months before the start of the academic year.

(3) The following will be appended to the application:

- 1) the decision to found the school;
- 2) the statutes of the school;
- 3) the school curriculum;
- 4) certificate of the owner of the school regarding the existence of the head of school, head teacher and teachers complying with the qualification requirements;
[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]
- 5) the written consent of a provider of health services at school to provide health services at school and information about the existence of an activity licence to provide health services at school;
- 6) information about the existence of the rooms, buildings, land, classrooms and the furnishings of the school buildings required for the operation of the school and their compliance with the health and safety requirements;
- 7) the opinion of the county governor regarding the school to be founded;
- 8) a document certifying payment of the state fee.

(4) In the event of the first application for an education licence a draft school curriculum without any subject syllabi may be submitted instead of a school curriculum.

(5) In the event of the first application for an education licence an education licence will be issued for a term of up to five academic years. During the period of validity of an education licence issued for a specific term administrative supervision over the teaching and education carried out by the school will be exercised. If no precepts are made in the course of administrative supervision or these are complied with by the prescribed time, the data and documents specified in subsection (3) of this section will not have to be appended to the application for a new education licence and, at the request of the owner of the school, the minister responsible for the field will issue the new education licence for an unspecified term, except in the event specified in subsection (6).
[RT I, 13.03.2014, 4 – entry into force 01.07.2014]

(6) If a school operating under an education licence issued for a specific term and applying for a new education licence has submitted documents certifying that the precepts made in the course of administrative supervision have been fulfilled, but in the opinion of the minister responsible for the field new administrative supervision needs to be carried out for the purpose of verifying the actual compliance with the precepts, the minister responsible for the field will issue an education licence for a term of up to five academic years.
[RT I, 13.03.2014, 4 – entry into force 01.07.2014]

(7) The minister responsible for the field will review an application for an education licence within two months as of the date of submission of the application. For the purpose of an expert assessment of the school curriculum the minister responsible for the field may extend the term of reviewing the education licence by up to two months, notifying the applicant for the education licence in a form that can be reproduced in writing.

(8) The minister responsible for the field will not issue an education licence if the information or documents specified in subsection (3) of this section have not been appended to the application or if these do not comply with the requirements established by legislation, the material base of teaching and learning does not correspond to the needs arising from the school curriculum, the school has failed to abide by the requirements for processing sensitive personal data arising from the Personal Data Protection Act or the school that operated on the basis of an education licence issued for a specific term has failed to submit documents that certify the compliance with the precepts made in the course of administrative supervision.
[RT I, 13.03.2014, 4 – entry into force 01.07.2014]

(9) An applicant for an education licence is notified of the issue or refusal to issue an education licence within five working days in a form that can be reproduced in writing.

(10) The minister responsible for the field will establish the form of the education licence.

§ 64. Revocation of education licence of municipal school

(1) The minister responsible for the field will declare an education licence invalid if:

1) it becomes evident in the course of administrative supervision that the head of school, head teacher and teachers working in the school do not comply with the qualification requirements, the studies are not in compliance with the requirements for the national curricula or the school curriculum established on the basis thereof, the application of the measures provided for in legislation for the purpose of supporting the development of students is not in accordance with the requirements of legislation, the learning and teaching environment is not in compliance with the security, health or curriculum requirements, or the activities of the school are otherwise in conflict with acts or legislation adopted on the basis thereof, and the precepts made for the purpose of elimination of deficiencies have not been complied with within the prescribed term or pursuant to the prescribed procedure;

[RT I, 13.03.2014, 4 – entry into force 01.07.2014]

2) within one year after the issue of the education licence the school has not commenced teaching and education;

3) the school has been closed.

(2) The rural municipality or city government is notified of the revocation of an education licence within five working days in a form that can be reproduced in writing.

§ 65. Commencement of teaching and education in state school

3) complies with the qualification requirements established for the position, and

4) is proficient in Estonian at the C1 level provided for in the Language Act.

(3) The amount of the beginner's allowance will be specified in the annual State Budget Act.

(3¹) If a teacher work less than full-time, the amount of the beginner's allowance will be revised in proportion to the occupied position in the academic year of payment of the beginner's allowance.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(4) A person who has received the beginner's allowance is required to return the allowance paid to them if their continuous employment as a teacher ends before five years have passed from the receipt of the first portion of the allowance. Employment is deemed continuous at the time of the permanent incapacity for work of the person who received the beginner's allowance or if the length of employment of the person who received the allowance is not interrupted pursuant to the conditions provided for in clauses 1) and 2) of subsection (2) of this section for more than three months at a time during the said five-year period. The beginner's allowance will be returned within three years as of the submission of the notice of repayment of the allowance in the annual amount of one-third of the amount of the allowance to the repaid.

(5) A person who has received the beginner's allowance is not required to repay the allowance paid to them if, due to a fundamental breach of an obligation by the employer, they have terminated the employment contract extraordinarily or if the employer has terminated the employment contract extraordinarily, because the continuance of the employment relationship on the agreed conditions becomes impossible due to a decrease of the volume of work or reorganisation of work or in another event of cessation of work (lay-off).

(6) The minister responsible for the field will establish the procedure for application, payment and recovery of the beginner's allowance.

Division 5

Internal evaluation of schools

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 - entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 78. Internal evaluation of schools

(1) Internal evaluation is carried out in schools. Internal evaluation is an ongoing process aimed at ensuring the conditions supporting the development of students and the consistent development of a school. To that end the strengths and weaknesses of a school will be identified and the development plan of the school will be drawn up on the basis thereof. Following the goal, teaching and education and management will be analysed and their effectiveness will be evaluated in the course of internal evaluation.

(2) Internal evaluation of a school will be carried out at least once over the term of the development plan of the school.

(3) The procedure for internal evaluation of a school will be established by the head of school who will submit it to the board of trustees for obtaining its opinion beforehand.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 79. [Omitted]

Division 6

Reorganisation, transfer of management and closure of schools

§ 80. Reorganisation and closure of school

(1) A school will be reorganised and closed by the owner of the school who will listen to the opinion of the board of trustees and the student council beforehand. A state school will be reorganised and closed on the basis of the Government of the Republic Act, taking into account the specifications provided for in this section. [RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(2) Schools will be reorganised as follows:

- 1) schools will be merged into one or several schools, whereby the merged schools will be closed and a new school or new schools will be founded on the basis of these schools;
- 2) a school or schools will be merged with another school and the school or schools being merged will be closed;
- 3) a school will be divided into at least two schools and the school that is being divided will be closed;
- 4) a school will be separated from another school and as a result thereof a new school will be founded and the initial school will be preserved;
- 5) the form of operation of a basic school or upper secondary school provided for in § 2 of this Act will be changed.

(3) No less than five months before the start of a new academic year, the Ministry of Education and Research, the governor of the county of location, the school, the parents, the students and the rural municipality or city governments of the students' residence will be notified in a form that can be reproduced in writing of a decision to reorganise and close a school.

(4) If the owner of a school has made a decision to reorganise the school and change the form of operation of a basic school or upper secondary school in such a manner that teaching and education at some level of education or stage of the basic school are terminated, the reorganisation decision may state that the termination of teaching and education at the respective level of education or stage of the basic school will take place gradually and in some classes no teaching and learning will take place before the final reorganisation of the school.

(5) A school is reorganised or closed between July 1 and August 31 in the same year.

(6) In the events specified in clauses 1), 3) and 4) of subsection (2) of this section, an education licence is applied for a new municipal school founded as a result of the reorganisation.

(7) In the event specified in clause 5) of subsection (2) of this section, an education licence will be applied if, as a result of the reorganisation, teaching will commence in the school at a stage of the basic school or at the level of education for which the school does not hold a valid education licence. If, as a result of the reorganisation, teaching is terminated at a stage of the basic school or at an education level, the minister responsible for the field will make the respective amendments to the education licence issued to the school or issue a new education licence.

(8) In the event of a merger of a child care institution or a hobby school with a general education school, the provisions of this Act will be applied. In the event of reorganisation and closure of a general education school and a child care institution operating as a single institution and a general education school and a hobby school operating as a single institution, the provisions of this Act will be applied.

(9) The owner of a school will make certain that the students of the closed school can continue their studies in another school.

§ 81. Transfer of management of schools

(1) The state has the right to transfer the management of a state school to a rural municipality or city and rural municipalities and cities have the right to transfer the management of municipal schools to the city or another rural municipality or city.

(2) Upon transfer of the management of a state school to a rural municipality or city and upon transfer of the management of a municipal school to the state or another rural municipality or city, the provisions of the Law of Obligations Act regarding the transfer of enterprise will be applied with the specifications arising from this Act.

(3) Concurrently with applying for the transfer of the management of a state school to a rural municipality or city or of a municipal school to another rural municipality or city, an education licence will be applied for the school to be transferred in accordance with the conditions and pursuant to the procedure provided by legislation. In the event of the transfer of a municipal school to the state, the education licence of the school to be transferred will be revoked.

(4) The transfer of the management of a state school to a rural municipality or city and the transfer of the management of a municipal school to the state or another rural municipality or city will be provided for in a public law contract to be made between the rural municipality or city government and the minister responsible for the field or between rural municipality or city governments. The compulsory terms and conditions of the public law contract are as follows:

- 1) the date of transfer of the management of the school;
- 2) the functions of the school to be transferred;
- 3) the conditions of and procedure for the continuance of the studies by the students;
- 4) the conditions of and procedure for the continuance of the work of the school employees in the school to be transferred, taking into account the conditions of and procedure for the legislation regulating employment relationships;
- 5) the conditions of, procedure for and deadline of transfer of the assets and property used by the school to the new owner of the school, taking into account the conditions of and procedure for provided by legislation;
- 6) the conditions of, procedure for and deadline of transfer of the records of the school to the new owner of the school;
- 7) resolution of possible organisational and budgetary issues and issues concerning other proprietary obligations and rights relating to the transfer of the management of the school.

(5) Upon transfer of the management of a school, the new owner of the school will provide the students with the possibility to continue acquiring general education in the school.

(6) The management of a school will be transferred after the end of the last academic quarter. The students and employees of the school will be notified of the decision to transfer the management of the school not later than two months before the start of the new academic year.

(7) The transfer of a general education school and a child care institution operating as a single institution and the transfer of a general education school and a hobby school operating as a single institution will take place pursuant to the procedure provided for in this section.

Chapter 6 FUNDING OF SCHOOLS

§ 82. Funding and budget of schools

(1) A school has its own budget.

(2) The budget revenue of a school comprises allocations from the budget of the state and a rural municipality or city, allocations from private entities, donations and revenue obtained from the school's extracurricular activities provided for in the statutes of the school.

(3) The expenses of a municipal school are covered by the owner of the school. Based on the number of students of municipal schools, the support to be allocated to rural municipalities and cities for covering the labour expenses and in-service training expenses of the teachers, heads and head teachers of the municipal schools, investments of the municipal schools and the expenses relating to the teaching and learning materials specified in subsection 20 (1) of this Act are determined annually in accordance with the State Budget Act. If the expenses relating to the teaching and learning materials specified in subsection 20 (1) of this section are covered or if the school curriculum does not demand the use of the materials, the support to be allocated from the state budget for covering the expenses relating to the materials may be used for enabling the free use of other teaching and learning materials required for the completion of the school curriculum. To cover investment-related expenses, the rural municipality or the city may use the support from the state budget for the labour expenses or the service of the support specialists specified in subsection 37 (2) of this Act and for covering other expenses specified in this subsection.

[RT I, 11.03.2015, 3 – entry into force 21.03.2015]

(4) The state budget allocates funds for supporting state-supported boarding school places (hereinafter boarding school facilities support) based on the number of students admitted to the boarding school places, the boarding school facilities support per place and the regulation established on the basis of subsection 39 (6) of this Act. The rural municipality or city and the Ministry of Education and Research will conclude a contract for the purpose of supporting boarding school places.

[RT I, 11.03.2015, 3 – entry into force 21.03.2015]

(5) The Government of the Republic will establish the conditions of and procedure for using the boarding school facilities support and the division of the support between owners of schools. Upon division of the boarding school facilities support between the owners of schools, it is proceeded from the number of students in the state-supported places of boarding school facilities registered in the education information as of November 10 in the year preceding the planned year.

(6) Support for rural municipalities and cities may be granted in the state budget for covering transport-related expenses and accommodation of upper secondary school students. The Government of the Republic will establish the conditions of and procedure for using the support and the division of the support between rural municipalities and cities.

(6¹) Support for the labour expenses of the teachers of municipal schools may be made to rural municipalities and cities in the state budget, provided that the application of subsections 21 (1) and (3) of this Act or the number of students in the only municipal upper secondary school in the administrative territory of the rural municipality or city results in differences in implementing the national curriculum for upper secondary schools. The Government of the Republic will establish the conditions of and procedure for using the support and the division of the support between rural municipalities and cities.

[RT I, 11.03.2015, 3 – entry into force 21.03.2015]

(7) The calculation of the support to be allocated from the state budget to rural municipalities and cities for covering the expenses of municipal school specified in subsection (3) of this section is based on the number of students registered in the education information system as of November 10 in the year preceding the planned year.

(7¹) The state budget allocates funds in support of the labour expenses and in-service expenses of the teachers, heads of school and head teachers involved in in-prison education in schools that organise the same as well as in support of educational literature based on the number of students in in-prison education and on national curricula. The rural municipality or city and the Ministry of Education and Research will conclude a contract for the purpose of supporting in-prison education.

[RT I, 11.03.2015, 3 – entry into force 21.03.2015]

(8) State budget allocates funds to public schools that organise in-patient education for covering the labour expenses and in-service expenses of the teachers, heads of school and head teachers involved in in-patient education as well as for covering the expenses of educational literature.

[RT I, 11.03.2015, 3 – entry into force 21.03.2015]

(9) The expenses of state schools are covered to the extent allocated to state schools under the expenses of the area of government of the Ministry of Education and Research in the annual State Budget Act.

(10) The board of trustees of the municipal school gives an opinion on the draft budget of the municipal school pursuant to the procedure established in the legislation of the rural municipality or city government. The owner of the municipal school approves the budget of the school in accordance with the legislation of the rural municipality or city council or the rural municipality or city government. The minister responsible for the field will approve the budgets of state schools.

(11) Co-funding by students or parents must not be demanded for participation in basic or secondary education in a municipal or state school based on the curriculum of the school. In the event of an activity organised in a school, which is not part of the school's curriculum (extracurricular activity), the expenses may be covered on the terms and conditions and pursuant to the procedure established in the statutes of the school with co-funding by the persons participating in the extracurricular activity.

[RT I, 11.07.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 83. Participation in covering operating expenses of municipal schools

(1) Other rural municipalities or cities participate in full in covering the operating expenses of a municipal school in proportion to the number of students enrolled in the school, whose place of residence, according to the population register, is located in the administrative territory of these rural municipalities or cities.

(2) Upon covering the operating expenses of a municipal school, this Act will be followed, unless the rural municipalities or cities have agreed otherwise between themselves.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, operating expenses have the meaning given to them in the Accounting Act.

(4) The following is not included in the operating expenses:

- 1) expenses relating to studies and the hobby activities of students, which are covered by the students or their parents;
- 2) expenses covered out of the allocations from the state budget;
- 3) expenses covered out of accruals from private entities, donations and revenue obtained from the extracurricular activities specified in the statutes of the school;
- 4) expenses relating to extracurricular activities;
- 5) operational lease expenses relating to school buildings;
- 6) depreciation and re-assessment of fixed assets;
- 7) value added tax expenses relating to the acquisition of fixed assets.

(5) Not later than by November 30 in the year preceding the budgetary year, the rural municipality or city government communicates the calculated cost of the operating expenses of a student place per student to the rural municipalities and cities participating in covering the operating expenses of municipal schools. The calculated cost of the operating expenses of a student place per student is obtained by dividing the amount of the operating expenses planned for the budgetary year of the municipal schools of the rural municipality or city by the number of students enrolled in the municipal schools located in the territory of the rural municipality or city as of November 10 in the year preceding the budgetary year, as indicated by the education information system.

(6) Upon covering the operating expenses, the cost of the operating expenses of a student place in the school where a student is enrolled is relied upon, which is obtained by dividing the amount of the operating expenses set in the budget of the school by the number of students of the school as of the 10th date of the month. Invoices for participating in covering the operational expenses are submitted on a monthly basis to the extent of 1/12 of the cost of the operating expenses of a student place. If the cost of 1/12 of the operating expenses of a student place exceeds the limit of the operating expenses of a student place established on the basis of subsection (7), the limit of operating expenses per month will be relied on upon covering the operating expenses, except in the event of students who study in the classes of students with special educational needs specified in clauses 51 (1) 5) to 12).

(7) The Government of the Republic will establish the monthly limit of the operating expenses of a student place for each budgetary year. Upon establishing the limit of the monthly operating expenses of a student place, it is relied on the total of the operating expenses of municipal schools in the second-to-last budgetary year and the number of students as of November 10 in the year preceding the budgetary year, whereby the following will not be included in the operating expenses:

- 1) expenses covered out of the state budget equalisation fund allocations;
- 2) operational lease expenses relating to school buildings;
- 3) depreciation and re-assessment of fixed assets;
- 4) value added tax expenses relating to the acquisition of fixed assets.

(8) The challenging of an amount payable for covering the operating expenses of a municipal school does not release another rural municipality or city from the obligation to pay the invoice.

Chapter 7

ADMINISTRATIVE SUPERVISION

§ 84. Exercising administrative supervision

(1) The Ministry of Education and Research or, at the request of the minister responsible for the field, the governor of the county of location (hereinafter jointly as supervisory body) exercises administrative supervision over teaching and education carried out by schools.

(2) The minister responsible for the field will establish the priorities of administrative supervision, the exercise of thematic supervision, the formalisation of the results thereof and the procedure for notification of the results by each academic year before the end of the previous academic year.

(3) The supervisory body appoints the persons exercising administrative supervision, involving experts, where necessary.

(4) The minister responsible for the field will establish the qualification requirements for the official exercising administrative supervision.

§ 85. Functions of officials exercising administrative supervision

The functions of officials exercising administrative supervision are as follows:

- 1) to inspect the adherence to the requirements arising from the legislation regulating teaching and education;
- 2) to analyse problems in the implementation of the legislation regulating teaching and education.

§ 86. Rights of officials exercising administrative supervision

Officials exercising administrative supervision have the right to:

- 1) visit a school in order to inspect teaching and education, informing the head of the school thereof in advance;
- 2) participate in the meetings of the teachers' council, the board of trustees and parents;
- 3) access the documents of the school;
- 4) receive information from the school regarding the implementation of legislation;
- 5) make proposals to the head of the school and the owner of the school for improvement of the operations of the school and mandatory precepts for elimination of deficiencies in teaching and education;
- 6) make mandatory precepts to the head of the school and the owner of a private school for bringing the individual legal instruments regulating teaching and education and issued by them in conflict with an Act or other legislation issued on the basis of an Act into compliance with the Act or other legislation issued on the basis of an Act;

7) make a proposal to the county governor for exercising supervision over the lawfulness of an individual legal instrument of a rural municipality or city government or a rural municipality or city council in accordance with the Government of the Republic Act;

8) make a proposal to the person whose competence includes termination of an employment contract with the head of the school to terminate the employment contract with the head of the school who has committed an indecent act, an offence related to office or a corruptive act or make a precept to terminate the employment contract with the head of the school who does not comply with the requirements for the position.

§ 87. Results of administrative supervision

(1) The results of administrative supervision will be set out in a statement.

(2) The statement will contain the time and place of drawing up the statement, brief details on the education institution, the supervisory body exercising supervision, the time of exercising administrative supervision, the names of the officials and experts who carried out administrative supervision, the results of administrative supervision, the time and description of offences, the precepts and proposals made, and the term of notification of complying with the precepts.

(3) The following will be specified in a precept:

- 1) the name of the person or body whom the precept is aimed at;
- 2) the obligation to make precepts required for the termination of the offence;
- 3) the basis of the precept;
- 4) the deadline for complying with the precept.

(4) The minister responsible for the field or the county governor will approve the statement.

(5) The statement will be communicated to the head of the school and the owner of the school within 60 calendar days as of the commencement of administrative supervision.

(6) If the owner of the school fails to comply with the precept within the term specified in the precept, the supervisory board may impose a penalty pursuant to the procedure provided for in the Substitutive Enforcement and Penalty Payment Act. The maximum limit of the penalty payment is 640 euros.

[RT I 2010, 41, 240 – entered into force 01.01.2011]

§ 88. Administrative supervision over provision of health services at school

Within the limits of its competence the Health Board exercises administrative supervision over the provision of students with health services at school on the basis of this Act.
