Chapter 1 GENERAL PART

Subchapter 1 General Provisions

Division 1 Scope of application of Act

§ 1. Scope of application

(1) This Act regulates the bases for the entry of aliens into Estonia, their temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia and their legal liability for violation of obligations provided for in this Act.

(2) The Citizen of the European Union Act provides for the legal bases of the temporary stay and residence in Estonia of citizens of the member states of the European Union, citizens of the member states of the European Economic Area or citizens of the Swiss Confederation and their family members.

(3) The Act on Granting International Protection to Aliens provides for the legal bases for the temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia of applicants for international protection and of those who have been granted protection.

(4) The legal bases for the temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia of the staff of diplomatic missions and consular posts of foreign states and their family members are provided by treaties and other instruments of international law.

(5) The National Defence Act provides for the legal bases for the entry into Estonia, temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia of an alien entering Estonia in the framework of international military co-operation. [RT I, 12.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

§ 2. Application of Act

(1) This Act is not applied to citizens of the member states of the European Union, citizens of the member states of the European Economic Area or citizens of the Swiss Confederation and their family members, who have a legal right for stay or residence in Estonia for the purposes of the Citizen of the European Union Act. [RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(2) [Repealed – RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(3) The provisions of Subchapters 1 and 2 of Chapter 2 of this Act are applied to the proceeding of the legal bases for the temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia of the staff of foreign diplomatic missions and consular posts and their family members.

(4) The provisions of this Act are applied taking account of the specifications provided for in a treaty binding on the Republic of Estonia.

Division 2 Definitions

§ 3. Alien

For the purposes of this Act, an alien is a person who is not an Estonian citizen.

§ 4. Minor child

For the purposes of this Act, a minor child is a person under 18 years of age. A person who is married, has a separate family or leads an independent life is not deemed to be a minor child for the purposes of this Act.

§ 5. Permanent resident

For the purposes of this Act, a permanent resident is an Estonian citizen residing in Estonia or an alien residing in Estonia who holds a long-term resident's residence permit in Estonia or a permanent right of residence.

§ 6. Permanent residence in Estonia

For the purposes of this Act, the permanent residence in Estonia of an alien is the stay in Estonia of an alien on the basis of an Estonian residence permit or right of residence. [RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

§ 7. Temporary stay in Estonia

For the purposes of this Act, the temporary stay in Estonia is the stay in Estonia of an alien without a residence permit or a right of residence in Estonia.

§ 8. Employment in Estonia

For the purposes of this Act, employment in Estonia is any activity in Estonia on the basis of an employment contract or another contract, as well as other activities for the benefit of another person where obtaining gain or any other proprietary benefit can be presumed regardless of the type or form of the contract on which such activity is based, or the location or the place of residence of the other party, unless otherwise provided by a treaty or law.

§ 9. Legal income

(1) Lawfully earned remuneration for work, parental benefits, unemployment benefits, income received from lawful business activities or property, pensions, scholarships, means of subsistence, benefits paid by a foreign state and the subsistence ensured by family members earning legal income are deemed to be legal income for the purposes of this Act unless otherwise provided for by this Act.

[RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(2) The maintenance ensured by a family member includes:

1) maintenance of a minor child by a parent;
2) maintenance of an adult child by a parent if the child due to health condition or disability is not able to cope independently;

3) maintenance of an adult child or grandchild studying full time by a parent or grandparent;

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 02.04.2015]

4) maintenance by a spouse;

5) maintenance of a parent or grandparent by an adult child or grandchild if the parent or grandparent is not able to cope independently due to health condition or disability;

6) maintenance of a ward by a guardian.

Division 3

Legal status of alien in Estonia

§ 10. Rights of aliens

(1) An alien staying in Estonia is guaranteed rights and freedoms equal to those of an Estonian citizen unless the Constitution, this Act, other legislation or a treaty binding on Estonia provides otherwise.

(2) An alien is guaranteed the rights and freedoms arising from the generally recognised standards of international law and international practice.

§ 11. Obligations of alien

An alien who is staying temporarily in Estonia or is residing in Estonia is required to observe the constitutional order of Estonia and comply with the legislation of Estonia, respect the constitutional values and principles, the state based on liberty, justice and the rule of law and the organisation of the Estonian society, the Estonian language and culture.

[RT I, 06.04.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.05.2016]

Subchapter 2

General provisions of procedure

§ 12. Application of Administrative Procedure Act

(1) The provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act apply to the administrative proceedings provided for in this Act, taking account of the specifications of this Act.

(2) The provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act do not apply to visa procedures provided for in this Act unless otherwise provided in this Act.

§ 13. Purpose of procedure

(1) The purpose of the proceedings concerning the entry of an alien into Estonia, his or her temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia and the obligation to leave Estonia of an alien is to guarantee that the entry into Estonia of an alien, the temporary stay and residence in Estonia and departure from Estonia of an alien would be in accordance with public interests and correspond to the need of the protection of public order and national security.

(2) The purpose provided for in subsection 1 of this section shall not preclude taking into account other facts or considerations in the proceeding.

§ 14. Facts relevant to proceedings

(1) The relevant rights of an alien, which at his or her own estimate require the entry into Estonia, the temporary stay, residence or employment in Estonia of an alien, are taken into account in the proceedings.

(2) Upon issue of an administrative act or performance of an act, relying on considerations for prevention of danger, uncertainties may be taken account of during proceedings in order to protect public order and national security.

§ 15. Evidence of relevant facts

(1) Upon evaluation and verification of potential future facts and the prevention of threats related to aliens in the proceedings concerning the entry into Estonia of an alien, the temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia and the obligation to leave from Estonia of an alien it is assumed that the occurrence of the fact is probable unless the occurrence of the fact is clearly precluded.

(2) Upon the issue of an administrative act or performance of an act the possibility of proving the facts relevant to the proceedings and the probability of the future change in them shall be taken into account.

(3) When an act was performed or an administrative act was issued taking account of the facts that may occur in future, the occurrence or non-occurrence of the facts shall have no impact on the legality of an act or administrative act.

§ 16. Competence of officials of administrative authority

The head of an administrative authority shall appoint competent officials within the organisation to perform procedural acts and issue administrative acts arising from this Act on behalf of an administrative authority unless otherwise provided for by law or regulation.

§ 17. Active legal capacity in administrative procedures

A minor of at least 15 years of age may perform the procedural acts arising from this Act and participate in the proceedings independently unless otherwise provided for in this Act.

§ 18. Obligation of cooperation

(1) An alien and other person concerned is obliged to cooperate in every way in the clarification of the facts relevant to the proceedings in the organisation of the entry into Estonia, the temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia and the departure from Estonia of an alien.

(2) The obligation of cooperation also extends to the representative of an alien.

§ 19. Burden of proof

(1) An alien and other person concerned are required to prove the facts relevant to the granting, possession, extension and revocation of the legal basis for the temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia of an alien in the proceedings concerning the organisation of the entry into Estonia, temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia and the departure from Estonia of an alien.

(2) The burden of proof of an alien and other person concerned includes the obligation to provide written and oral explanations and the obligation to submit evidence.

§ 20. Notification obligation

(1) An alien and other person concerned have the obligation to notify an administrative authority of the change in and cessation of the facts relevant to granting, possession, extension and revocation of the legal basis for temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia of an alien.

(2) The notification obligation includes, inter alia, the duty of an alien and other person concerned to notify an administrative authority during the conduct of the proceedings of the changes in facts, including the changes in his or her contact details or of a representative, which may affect the conduct of the proceedings.

§ 21. Obligation to participate in proceedings

(1) An alien and other person concerned is obliged to address an administrative authority in person at the summons of the administrative authority in order to carry out the procedural acts.

(2) An alien and other person concerned is obliged to participate in the performance of procedural acts.

(3) Upon a failure to perform an obligation to participate in the procedural acts a favourable administrative act shall not be issued or the procedural act that is applied for shall not be conducted.

§ 22. Performance of procedural acts in person

(1) In case the procedural acts, arising from the law or the nature of the procedural act, are required to be carried out in person, the person is required to appear before an administrative authority in person.

(2) If a person staying in Estonian is permanently unable to appear in person, for reason of health condition, before a competent administrative authority and the appearance in person is required, a competent administrative authority may, if possible, identify a person, verify the identity of a person, take biometric data of the person and carry out other procedural acts at his or her place of residence or stay in Estonia.

(3) If procedural acts shall be performed in person arising from the law or the nature of a procedural act, the party to a proceeding is not allowed to use a representative to perform the procedural act, to perform the procedural act by mail or electronically.

§ 23. Performance of procedural acts through representative

(1) A person may perform procedural acts arising from this Act through a representative unless otherwise provided for in this Act.

(2) If the procedural acts arising from this Act are performed through a representative, an administrative authority shall establish the identity of the representative or verify his or her identity.

(3) If the procedural acts arising from this Act are performed through a representative, he or she is obliged to submit evidence of the right of representation and an administrative authority shall establish the right of representation of the representative.

(4) An administrative authority may also obligate a person to perform procedural acts personally if using of a representative is allowed.

§ 24. Identification and verification of person's identity

(1) Upon performance of procedural acts arising from this Act an administrative authority is required to establish or verify the identity of a person.

(2) A person is required to enable identification and verification of his or her identity.

(3) A favourable procedural act shall not be issued or the procedural act applied for shall not be conducted if it is impossible to identify the person or verify the identity of an alien or other person concerned.

§ 25. Identification of a person on basis of identification document

(1) At the request of an administrative authority a person is required to submit an identification document for the identification and verification of the identity.

(2) A person shall be identified and his or her identity verified on the basis of a document provided for in subsection 2 of § 2 of the Identity Documents Act or a travel document issued by a foreign state.

(3) If an alien under 15 years of age has not been issued a document referred to in subsection 2 of this section, his or her identity shall be identified on the basis of the testimony of his or her legal representative and other evidence.

(4) If an alien does not hold a document referred to in subsection 2 of this section, then, if needed, his or her identity shall be identified or identity verified on the basis of other evidence.

§ 26. Identification of person on basis of biometric data

(1) Biometric data may be obtained from an alien or other person concerned and such data may be processed to identify a person and verify the identity of a person.

(2) At the request of an administrative authority the person is required to enable taking biometric data.

§ 27. Identification of person on basis of DNA data

(1) A DNA sample may be taken from an alien and the respective data processed to identify a person and verify the identity unless it is possible to identify an alien or verify the identity of an alien otherwise.

(2) A decision on taking a DNA sample from a minor shall, in particular, take account of the rights and interests of a minor.

(3) At the request of an administrative authority a person is required to enable a DNA sample being taken.

§ 28. Identification of person on basis of other evidence

An administrative authority may identify a person or verify the identity of a person on the basis of other data known to the administrative authority, not referred to in this Act, including the data collected in the course of proceedings concerning the person, carried out earlier, or the data being processed in the databases with regard to the person.

§ 29. Data submitted in application and evidence appended

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

(1) In order to apply for the issue of administrative acts or performance of procedural acts arising from this Act, a person shall have to submit an application.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

(2) A person is required to submit all the data prescribed in the application.

(3) A person is required to append all the prescribed evidence to the application.

(4) A person may submit the application and the evidence appended thereto in the Estonian, Russian or English language unless otherwise provided for by this Act.

[RT I, 29.06.2012, 5 – entry into force 01.07.2012]

§ 30. Documents issued in foreign state

(1) A document that was issued in a foreign state in a foreign language shall be translated into the Estonian, Russian or English language and the translation shall be made by a sworn translator.

[RT I, 23.12.2013, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2020]

(2) A document that was issued in a foreign state must be legalised or certified with an apostille unless otherwise provided for in a treaty.

§ 31. Provision of additional data and evidence

(1) At the request of an administrative authority a person is required to submit additional or specifying data or evidence regarding facts that are relevant to the proceedings.

(2) If a person fails to submit the required evidence or data to an administrative authority and it is not possible for the administrative authority to obtain the evidence or data with reasonable effort or within a reasonable time, the administrative authority may dismiss the application or refuse to perform a procedural act.

§ 31¹. Collection of data by surveillance activities and enquiry to communications undertaking

(1) A competent authority specified in subsection 1 of § 126² of the Code of Criminal Procedure may, with the written consent of the person, collect data about him or her or evidence regarding the facts that are relevant to the proceedings by surveillance activities specified in subsection 1 of § 126³ of the Code of Criminal Procedure and by an inquiry to a communications undertaking concerning the information provided for in subsections 2 and 3 of § 111¹ of the Electronic Communications Act where that is needed for the issue of an administrative act or performance of an act.

(2) A person shall be notified about the conduct of surveillance activities with regard to him or her after the issue of an administrative act or performance of an act and the data collected by surveillance activities shall be submitted to him or her for examination at his or her request.

[RT I, 29.06.2012, 2 – entry into force 01.01.2013]

§ 32. Signing of application and evidence

(1) A person shall sign an application and the submitted evidence personally.

(2) A legal representative shall sign an application or provided evidence of a minor less than 15 years of age or of a person whose active legal capacity is restricted.

(3) By signing an application a person confirms that he or she has not provided false information or added falsified evidence upon application for the visa.

(4) By signing an application and the provided evidence the person confirms that he or she is aware of the content of the personal data being processed with regard to him, of the purpose, extent, manner and admissibility of the disclosure to a third party of personal data.

(5) An administrative authority may require a person to sign documentary evidence or a copy thereof. By signing the documentary evidence or a copy thereof a person shall confirm that the submitted evidence is an original document, it does not include false data and has not been falsified. By signing a copy of the document a person shall confirm that the copy corresponds to the original document.

(6) If a person is not able to sign an application or documentary evidence, an administrative authority shall make a notation on the application or documentary evidence about the absence of the signature and the reasons therefor. This is equal to signing the application or evidence.

(7) The provisions of this section also apply to applications submitted to commence proceedings and declarations submitted in the course of proceedings.

§ 33. Term for proceeding

(1) The term for the performance of proceedings arising from this Act is provided by regulations issued on the basis of this Act.

(2) If the term for the performance of proceedings has not been provided by a regulation, an administrative authority shall determine the term therefor.

(3) The term established or determined by an administrative authority shall not be longer than six months.

§ 34. Extension of term for proceeding

(1) An administrative authority may extend the term for the proceedings unless it is possible to clarify the facts relevant to the proceedings or to collect evidence within the term provided for proceedings.

(2) By the actual extension of the term for proceedings the new term for proceedings that is determined by an administrative authority shall not exceed the initial term for proceedings.

§ 35. Restoration of term for proceeding

(1) If a term for a proceeding is allowed to expire with good reason, an administrative authority may restore the term on its own initiative or at the request of a participant in the proceeding unless otherwise provided for in this Act.

(2) A reasoned application for the restoration of a term for a proceeding shall be submitted immediately after the circumstances impeding performance of a procedural act cease to exist.

(3) Neither the submission of an application for restoration nor restoration of a term for a proceeding shall make the stay of an alien in Estonia legal if an alien does not have a legal basis for a temporary stay or residence in Estonia.

§ 36. Notification

(1) A person shall be notified of administrative acts issued and acts performed on the basis of this Act if notification has been prescribed by this Act or a ruling has been issued on the basis thereof.

(2) A person shall be notified according to the contact details indicated in the request or application or at the address of the place of residence registered in Estonia if the person has not expressed a wish to receive information pursuant to other contact details or the details of the place of residence.

(3) A person shall be notified of the issue of a favourable administrative act or the performance of an act applied for on the basis of this Act via web page of an administrative authority electronically or in another appropriate manner without disclosing personal details.

[RT I, 17.06.2020, 2 – entry into force 01.07.2020]

(4) An encumbering administrative act can be delivered to a person electronically or by mail or at the location of an administrative authority.

[RT I, 17.06.2020, 2 – entry into force 01.07.2020]

(5) If a person is using a representative in the performance of proceedings, the obligation of an administrative authority to notify the person provided for in this section shall be deemed fulfilled by notification of the representative.

§ 37. Service of administrative act electronically or by mail

[RT I, 17.06.2020, 2 – entry into force 01.07.2020]

(1) An encumbering administrative act issued on the basis of this Act may be served to the person by registered mail or electronically if acknowledgment of receipt of the electronically transmitted document is ensured.

[RT I, 17.06.2020, 2 – entry into force 01.07.2020]

(2) In case of a failure to serve an administrative act in a manner referred to in subsection 1 of this section, an administrative authority may disclose the personal details of the addressee of the administrative act and of the operative part of the administrative act on the web page of the administrative authority. An administrative act is deemed to be served and to have entered into force when the operative part of an administrative act has been published on the web page of an administrative authority.

§ 38. Service of administrative act at location of administrative authority

(1) An administrative authority may appoint a date or term to a person for when he or she is required to appear before an administrative authority in order to receive the administrative act.

(2) In case a person, without any good reason, fails to appear before an administrative authority in person on the appointed date or within the set term, the administrative authority may publish the personal details of the addressee of the administrative act and the operative part of the administrative act on the web page of the administrative authority. An administrative act is deemed to be served and to have entered into force when the operative part of an administrative act has been published on the web page of an administrative authority.

§ 39. Notification of procedural documents

(1) In proceedings concerning the entry into Estonia of an alien, the temporary stay, residence and employment in Estonia and the requirement to leave from Estonia of an alien, a procedural document, including the summons to appear before an administrative authority, may be communicated to the person via the web page of the administrative authority without disclosing personal details, electronically, by mail, at the location of the administrative authority or in another appropriate manner. The administrative authority shall select the manner of communicating the procedural document.

[RT I, 17.06.2020, 2 – entry into force 01.07.2020]

(2) In case of a failure to serve the procedural document to a person in a manner referred to in subsection 1 of this section, which, according to the assessment of an administrative authority had to ensure the service of the procedural document with the highest probability, an administrative authority may publish the personal details of a party to the proceeding and the content of the procedural document on the web page of the administrative authority. A procedural document is deemed to be served to a person when the procedural document, including the content of the summons, has been published on the web page of the administrative authority.

§ 40. Service of procedural act if location of person is unknown

(1) If the address of the location of the person is unknown to an administrative authority and the administrative authority has failed to find out the location of the person within reasonable period of time or with reasonable effort, the personal details of the addressee of the administrative act and of the operative part of both a favourable and encumbering administrative act or a procedural document, including the content of the summons, may be published on the web page of the administrative authority.

(2) An administrative act is deemed to be served to a person and have entered into force and a procedural document to be served when the operative part of the administrative act or the content of the procedural document have been published on the web page of an administrative authority.

§ 40¹. Specification for justification of administrative act

The reasons underlying the administrative act issued on the basis of this Act, including the data and evidence gathered in the proceedings, shall not be disclosed, including to the data subject, to the extent which is contrary to the objectives provided for in subsection 1 of § 279³ of this Act.

[RT I, 13.03.2019, 2 – entry into force 15.03.2019]

§ 40². Assessment of reliability

(1) The Police and Border Guard Board may provide an assessment of the unreliability of an employer, educational institution, internship provider or other person (hereinafter assessment) if an alien comes to a person or if the obligations of a sponsor provided for in this Act apply to the person (hereinafter in this section sponsor).

(2) A consular officer or the Police and Border Guard Board may take into account the assessment of the sponsor with regard to an act to be performed or administrative act issued relating to a future long-stay visa application, application for extension of stay, application for registration of short-term employment, application for residence permit or application for extension of residence permit.

(3) Violations of obligations imposed on the basis of this Act and other reasons on the basis of which there are reasonable grounds to doubt the reliability of the sponsor shall be taken into account upon providing the assessment.

(4) An assessment shall be issued for a period of validity of up to one year.

§ 41. State fee

(1) A state fee shall be paid according to the rate that is established in the State Fees Act for the performance of the following acts and review of applications for the issue of administrative acts:

1) a review of an application for a residence permit, extension of a residence permit and resumption of a residence permit;

2) [Repealed – RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 01.09.2013];

3) [Repealed – RT I, 09.12.2010, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2011]

4) a review of an application for visa and for the extension of the period of stay and;
[RT I, 23.03.2011, 2 – entry into force 05.04.2011]

5) a registration of short-term working.

6) a review of appeals submitted against the decision taken in the course of the contestation of a decision on the refusal to issue a visa, annulment of a visa, revocation of a visa, refusal to extend the period of stay and premature termination of the period of stay,

[RT I, 23.03.2011, 2 – entry into force 05.04.2011]

7) a review of an application for the formalisation as a long-stay-visa of the right to stay in Estonia arising from the expiry of the period of validity of the temporary residence permit.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 17.01.2017]

(2) A state fee shall not be refunded in case of a refusal to review an application.

§ 42. Preservation of procedural documents

A person's request, application, evidence, record, data about sending the summons and service of the document and other procedural documents shall be preserved pursuant to the procedure prescribed in the legislation of the European Union, the Archive's Act and in the regulations issued on the basis thereof.

§ 42¹. Opinion of another administrative authority and person

(1) If the opinion of another administrative authority, a natural or legal person is needed for an administrative authority upon carrying out the proceedings provided for in this Act, the administrative authority may ask for the necessary opinion.

(2) If another administrative authority, natural or legal person has not provided the opinion thereof within the prescribed period or has not extended the time limit, the administrative authority shall carry out the proceeding without the opinion of another administrative authority, natural or legal person.

Chapter 2 TEMPORARY STAY IN ESTONIA AND SHORT-TERM EMPLOYMENT

Subchapter 1 Temporary stay in Estonia

Division 1 Legal bases for entry into Estonia and temporary stay in Estonia

§ 43. Legal bases for entry into Estonia and temporary stay in Estonia

(1) An alien shall have a legal basis for entry into Estonia and temporary stay in Estonia. The legal bases of an alien for a temporary stay in Estonia are:

1) a visa issued by a competent Estonian agency;

2) a visa issued by a competent agency of a member state of the Schengen Convention unless the terms of a visa preclude the right to stay in Estonia;

3) the right to stay in Estonia arising directly from a treaty;

4) the right to stay in Estonia arising from a resolution of the Government of the Republic to forego the visa requirement;

5) the right or obligation to stay in Estonia directly arising from law, a judicial decision or an administrative act;

6) a residence permit issued by a competent agency of a member state of the Schengen Convention;

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

7) a diplomatic or service card issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to the staff of the diplomatic mission and consular post of a foreign state and a representation of an international organisation accredited to Estonia, their family members and private staff;

8) the right to stay in Estonia arising from the expiry of the period of validity of the temporary residence permit;

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

9) a residence permit of an intra-corporate transferee (hereinafter intra-corporate transferee permit) issued by a competent agency of a member state of the European Union on the basis of Directive 2014/66/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council on the conditions of entry and residence of third-country nationals in the framework of an intra-corporate transfer (OJ L 157, 27.05.2014, pp.1–22);

10) A long-stay visa or a residence permit issued to a researcher for the purposes of research or a student for the purposes of studies by a competent agency of a member state of the European Union on the basis of Directive 2016/801/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council on the conditions of entry and residence of third-country nationals for the purposes of research, studies, training, voluntary service, pupil exchange schemes or educational projects and au pairing (OJ L 132, 21.05.2016, pp.21–57).

[RT I, 17.05.2018, 1 – entry into force 23.05.2018]

(2) A long-stay visa issued by a competent agency of a member state of the Schengen Convention is a legal basis for the stay of an alien in Estonia pursuant to a regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council (EU) No 265/2010 amending the Convention Implementing the Schengen Agreement and Regulation (EC) No 562/2006 as regards movement of persons with a long-stay visa (OJ L 85, 31.03.2010, pp.1-4).

[RT I, 23.03.2011, 2 – entry into force 05.04.2011]

(3) The legal basis provided for in clause 5 of subsection 1 of this section is a legal basis for the stay in Estonia of prisoners or persons in detention or custody staying in a custodial institution in Estonia and they do not need any other legal basis for the stay in Estonia provided for in this Act or any other Act during their stay in a custodial institution.

(3¹) An obligation to leave Estonia imposed by an administrative Act or judicial decision is not deemed a legal basis for a temporary stay in Estonia of an alien for the purposes of clause 5 of subsection 1 of this section.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

(3²) The minister in charge of the policy sector or the Director General of the Police and Border Guard Board authorised by the minister may, in an emergency or an emergency situation, grant an alien who is staying in Estonia, whose return to the country of origin is impeded, a legal basis for the stay in Estonia within the meaning of clause 5 of subsection 1 of this section.

[RT I, 06.05.2020, 1 – entry into force 07.05.2020]

(4) The basis provided for in clause 8 of subsection 1 of this section is a legal basis for the stay in Estonia of an alien within the following 90 days as of the day of expiry of the period of validity of the residence permit if the period of validity of the temporary residence permit of an alien terminated on the date of expiry.

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(4¹) The legal basis for staying in Estonia provided in subsection 4 of this section does not apply in case an alien has been granted the residence permit for short-term employment based on § 176² of this Act.

[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 - entry into force 01.01.2023]

(5) The basis provided for in clause 8 of subsection 1 of this section is a legal basis for the stay in Estonia of an alien within the following 270 days as of the day of expiry of the period of validity of the temporary residence permit issued on the basis of clause 3 of § 118 or clause 6 of subsection 1 of § 181 of this Act if the period of validity of the residence permit of an alien terminated on the date of expiry.

[RT I, 17.05.2018, 1 – entry into force 23.05.2018]

(6) An intra-corporate transferee permit is a legal basis for the stay in Estonia for the purpose of work in the framework of an intra-corporate transfer and for movement in transit to another member state of the European Union for the purpose of an intra-corporate transfer.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 17.01.2017]

§ 44. Terms for temporary stay in Estonia

(1) An alien may stay in Estonia under the terms and conditions determined by visa.

(2) If an agreement has been entered into with a foreign state for visa-free travel or the visa requirement has been waived for the citizens of a foreign state, a citizen of such foreign state may stay in the member states of the Schengen Convention, including Estonia, for up to a total of 90 days within any period of 180 days unless otherwise provided for by the treaty.

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 02.04.2015]

(3) It is permitted to stay in Estonia on the basis of a residence permit or a long-stay visa issued by a competent agency of a member state of the Schengen Convention for up to a total of 90 calendar days within the period of 180 days.

[RT I, 17.06.2020, 2 – entry into force 01.07.2020]

(3¹) The intra-corporate transferee permit issued by a competent agency of another member state of the European Union allows staying in Estonia for the purpose of intra-corporate transfer during the period of validity of such residence permit.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 17.01.2017]

(3²) It is permitted to stay in Estonia for the purposes of studies with a long-stay visa or a residence permit issued by a competent agency of a member state of the European Union specified in clause 10 of subsection 1 of § 43 of this Act for up to 360 days if the alien has been admitted to the professional higher education or bachelor's studies, the integrated curricula of Bachelor's and Master's studies or Master's or Doctoral studies.

[RT I, 17.05.2018, 1 – entry into force 23.05.2018]

(3³) It is permitted to stay in Estonia with a long-stay visa or residence permit issued by a competent agency of another member state of the European Union specified in clause 10 of subsection 1 of § 43 of this Act for the purposes of research during the period of validity of the visa or residence permit if the short-term employment of an alien has been registered in the Police and Border Guard Board.

(3⁴) If a competent agency of a member state of the European Union has issued a long-stay visa or residence permit for the purposes of research to an alien who is staying in Estonia under the conditions specified in subsection 3³ of this section, his or her family member may stay temporarily in Estonia during the period of validity of that visa or residence permit.

[RT I, 17.05.2018, 1 – entry into force 23.05.2018]

(4) An alien who is a crew member may be permitted to Estonia as a transit passenger if the purpose of the entry into Estonia is to commence or terminate employment as a crew member on board of a ship at an Estonian port or the commencement of employment on board of another ship at an Estonian port or in cases provided for in a treaty for transferring to a ship in another state or returning to the country of origin.

(5) In the case specified in subsections 2¹ and 2² of § 105 of this Act, an alien who is a crew member may stay on a ship sailing under the national flag of Estonia for the purpose of work.

[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 - entry into force 01.10.2022]

§ 45. Health insurance policy

(1) During the temporary stay in Estonia and applying for extension of the period of stay an alien is required to have a valid health insurance policy guaranteeing that any costs related to his or her medical treatment as a result of illness or injury during the period of stay in Estonia will be met.

(2) An alien need not have a health insurance policy:

- 1) if an alien is deemed to be a person covered by compulsory health insurance pursuant to the Health Insurance Act;
- 2) if an alien has an insurance policy guaranteeing that any costs related to his or her medical treatment as a result of illness or injury will be met to the same extent as for a person covered by health insurance;
- 3) in a case provided by a treaty or;
- 4) if any costs related to his or her medical treatment as a result of illness or injury shall be paid by another state or international organisation.

§ 45¹. Obligations of sponsor

The educational institution in which an alien commenced studies in Estonia on the basis of a long-stay visa or residence permit issued by a competent agency of another member state of the European Union specified in clause 10 of subsection 1 of § 43 of this Act shall have the obligations of a sponsor provided for in this Act.

[RT I, 17.05.2018, 1 – entry into force 23.05.2018]

Division 2

Extension of period of temporary stay in Estonia

§ 46. Conditions of extension of period of stay

(1) The period of stay in Estonia permitted on the legal basis for temporary stay in Estonia (hereinafter referred to as 'period of stay' in this Subchapter) is generally not extended.

(2) As an exception, the period of stay may be extended up to ninety days if a circumstance has arisen of which an alien was unaware before entry into Estonia or a new circumstance has arisen after the entry of an alien into Estonia.

(3) At least one of the following reasons is deemed to be a circumstance specified in subsection 2 of this section that requires a continued temporary stay of an alien in Estonia or prevents his or her departure from Estonia:

- 1) force majeure;
- 2) a humanitarian ground;
- 3) a good occupational reason and
- 4) a good personal reason

(4) The right or obligation to stay in Estonia directly arising from law, a judicial decision or an administrative act shall not be extended pursuant to this Act.

§ 47. Legal effect of application for extension of period of stay

If an alien has applied for the extension of the period of stay during the period of temporary stay, his or her stay in Estonia is deemed legal during the review of his or her application.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 17.01.2017]

§ 48. Refusal to extend period of stay

(1) The extension of the period of stay is refused if:

- 1) a circumstance which is the basis for premature termination of the period of stay exists with regard to an alien;
- 2) an application for the extension of the period of stay is not submitted within the specified term and the term is not restored;

[RT I, 17.06.2020, 2 – entry into force 01.07.2020]

3) upon application for the extension of the period of stay, false information or falsified documents have been submitted about the facts relevant to the proceedings;

4) an alien fails to submit information and evidence at the request of and within the term designated by an administrative authority;

5) there is doubt that the alleged purpose of the extension of the period of stay of an alien does not correspond to the actual purpose of the continued stay of an alien in Estonia;

6) an application for the extension of the period of stay submitted by an alien is not substantiated;

7) there is reason to doubt the trustworthiness of an alien;

8) the travel document of an alien does not comply with the established requirements;

9) an alien does not hold a valid travel document;

10) other facts which preclude the extension of the period of stay exist.

(2) If a legal basis for an alien to stay in Estonia is a residence permit issued by a competent agency of a member state of the Schengen Convention, upon the extension of the period of stay, the period of validity of the period of stay shall generally not exceed the period of validity of his or her residence permit.

§ 49. Grounds for refusal to extend period of stay

(1) Refusal to extend the period of stay shall not be substantiated.

(2) The reason for refusal to extend the period of stay or the information thereof shall not be disclosed to an alien or any other person.

§ 50. Competence to decide extension of period of stay

(1) The Police and Border Guard Board shall decide on extension or refusal to extend of the period of stay.

(2) The Ministry of Foreign Affairs shall decide on extension of or refusal to extend the period of stay permitted on the basis of a service card issued to the staff of a diplomatic mission and consular post of a foreign state and an agency of an international organisation accredited to Estonia, their family members and private staff.

Division 3

Premature termination of period of temporary stay in Estonia

§ 51. Premature termination of period of stay

(1) Premature termination of the period of stay is the shortening of the period of stay of an alien in Estonia, permitted on a legal basis for the temporary stay in Estonia of an alien, except by the visa issued on the basis of this Act.

[RT I, 17.05.2018, 1 – entry into force 23.05.2018]

(2) Upon premature termination of the period of stay on a legal basis specified in subsection 1 of this section, the period of stay shall be shortened once.

(3) The period of stay may be terminated prematurely at any time before entry of an alien into Estonia, at a border checkpoint or during the stay of an alien in Estonia.

§ 52. Bases for premature termination of period of stay

(1) The period of stay may be terminated prematurely if at least one of the following bases exists:

- 1) an alien does not hold a valid travel document;
- 2) the travel document of an alien or the entries in it are falsified;
- 3) there is doubt to believe that the alleged purpose of the entry into the territory of the member states of the Schengen Convention of an alien does not correspond to the actual purpose;
- 4) an alien has already stayed in the territory of the member states of the Schengen Convention for 90 days within a period of 180 days;
[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 02.04.2015]
- 5) an alien lacks the sufficient means of subsistence, taking into consideration the duration and nature of the stay in the state, or the means necessary for his or her return to their country of origin or to a transit country.
- 6) a prohibition on entry applied by Estonia or a prohibition on entry applied by a member state of the Schengen Convention and entered into the Schengen information system according to the Schengen Convention, applies with regard to an alien and;
- 7) an alien may constitute a threat to public order, national security, international relationships or public health of any member state of the European Union;
- 8) an alien submits a personal application for that purpose;
[RT I, 06.05.2020, 1 – entry into force 07.05.2020]
- 9) the main reason for the stay in Estonia of an alien is employment and his or her employment contract or other contract or activity, where obtaining gain or any other proprietary benefit can be presumed, expires or has expired.
[RT I, 06.05.2020, 1 – entry into force 07.05.2020]

(2) There is reason to believe that the alleged purpose of the entry of an alien into the territory of member states of the Schengen Convention does not correspond to the actual purpose thereof for the purposes of clause 3 of subsection 1 of this section if, in particular:

- 1) there is doubt that an alien may not leave the territory of member states of the Schengen Convention after the expiry of the legal basis;
- 2) there is doubt that an alien may violate the conditions of the temporary stay in the territory of the member states of the Schengen Convention;
- 3) there is reason to doubt the trustworthiness of an alien or;
- 4) an alien does not comply with the conditions of the temporary stay in the territory of the member states of the Schengen Convention.

(3) The basis indicated in clause 5 of subsection 1 of this section is, in particular, applied as a basis for premature termination of the period of stay if:

- 1) an alien lacks the required sufficient funds to cover the costs of the stay in the territory of the member states of the Schengen Convention and of his or her departure therefrom or to ensure his or her accommodation or;
- 2) the health insurance policy of an alien shall expire before the end of the permitted period of stay.

(4) The basis indicated in clause 7 of subsection 1 of this section is, in particular, applied as the basis for premature termination of the period of stay if:

- 1) an alien has been punished for offence or;
- 2) a circumstance which is the basis for application of a prohibition on entry exists with regard to an alien.

(5) The period of stay is not terminated prematurely if the temporary stay of an alien in Estonia is necessary for humanitarian grounds, on grounds of national interests or to fulfil international obligations.

§ 53. Grounds for premature termination of period of stay

(1) Upon premature termination of the period of stay an alien shall be notified of the legal basis for termination.
[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 17.01.2017]

(2) The grounds for premature termination of the period of stay or the information thereof shall not be disclosed to an alien or any other person.

§ 54. Legal effects of premature termination of period of stay

(1) Upon premature termination of the period of stay before entry of an alien into Estonia or at a border checkpoint, an alien shall not be permitted into Estonia and shall be sent back pursuant to the procedure provided for in the State Borders Act.

(2) Upon premature termination of the period of stay, an alien is required to immediately leave Estonia. The obligation to leave may be immediately executed pursuant to the procedure provided for in the Obligation to Leave and Prohibition on Entry Act.

§ 55. Competence to decide on premature termination of period of stay

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Police and Border Guard Board or the Estonian Internal Security Service shall prematurely terminate the period of stay.

Subchapter 2 Visa

Division 1 Categories of visas

§ 56. Visa

A visa is a permit issued to an alien for entry into the territory of the member states of the Schengen Convention, into Estonia or into the transit zone at the airport and for a temporary stay therein under the conditions determined by a visa unless otherwise provided for by law.

§ 57. Categories of visa

The categories of visas are:

- 1) an airport transit visa;
- 2) a short-stay visa and
- 3) a long-stay visa.

§ 58. Airport transit visa

An airport transit visa may be issued to an alien pursuant to Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing a Community Code on visas (Visa Code) (OJ L 243, 15.09.2009, pp. 1-58) (hereinafter Visa Code).

§ 59. Short-Stay Visa

A short-stay visa may be issued to an alien on the bases provided for in the Visa Code.

§ 60. Long-Stay Visa

(1) A long-stay visa may be issued to an alien for single or multiple temporary stay in Estonia.

(2) A long-stay visa may be issued with a period of validity up to twelve months.
[RT I, 23.03.2011, 2 – entry into force 05.04.2011]

(3) A long-stay visa may be issued for the period of stay of up to 365 days within twelve consecutive months unless otherwise provided for by a treaty.
[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 17.01.2017]

(4) [Repealed – RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(5) [Repealed – RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(6) The whole period of stay of an alien with a long-stay visa shall not be longer than 548 days within 730 consecutive days unless otherwise provided for by a treaty.
[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 17.01.2017]

(7) Subsection 6 of this section shall not be applied with regard to an alien whose short-term employment has been registered on the basis of subsection 10 of § 106 of this Act if the alien has prior stayed in the state with a long-term visa for purposes other than seasonal work.
[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 17.01.2017]

Division 2 Issue of and refusal to issue visa

Subdivision 1

Issue of visa

§ 61. Conditions determined by visa

(1) The following conditions shall be determined by a visa:

- 1) the period of validity – a period during which a visa is valid for single, double or multiple entries into the territory of the member states of the Schengen Convention, Estonia or the transit zone at the airport, for stay therein and departure therefrom;
- 2) the period of stay – the number of days during which an alien may stay in the territory of the member states of the Schengen Convention, in Estonia or in the transit zone at the airport during the period of validity of the visa;
- 3) the number of entries – the number of entries into the territory of the member states of the Schengen Convention, into Estonia or into the transit zone of the airport permitted to an alien during the period of validity of the visa;
- 4) the territorial validity – a territory of one or several member states of the Schengen Convention or the transit zone at the airport where an alien may stay on the condition that the visa area is entered and left through the territory of the state determined by the territorial validity.

(2) An alien is required to comply with the conditions determined by a visa upon entry into, stay in and departure from the territory of the member states of the Schengen Convention, Estonia or the transit zone of the airport.

§ 62. Conditions of issue of visas

(1) An airport transit visa and a short-stay visa may be issued to an alien under the conditions provided for in the Visa Code.

(2) A long-term visa may be issued to an alien:

- 1) who holds a valid travel document;
- 2) if the purpose of his or her application for the Estonian long-stay visa is justified;
- 3) he or she has sufficient financial resources to cover the costs of accommodation and stay during his or her stay in Estonia and to return to his or her country of origin or transit;
- 4) he or she has a valid health insurance policy which guarantees payment of any costs related to his or her medical treatment due to his or her illness or injury during the validity of the visa, in the case of a multiple-stay visa until the expiry of the period of the first planned stay.

[RT I, 17.06.2020, 2 – entry into force 01.07.2020]

(3) A health insurance policy is not required in the cases of a long-stay visa if an alien is deemed to be a person covered by compulsory health insurance pursuant to the Health Insurance Act or if the costs relating to the medical treatment of an alien are paid by another state or international organisation or in cases provided by a treaty.

§ 62¹. Issue of visa related to short-term employment of alien in Estonia

(1) Prior to application for a visa for short-term employment in Estonia an alien is required to register his or her short-term employment in Estonia with the Police and Border Guard Board.

(2) If an alien is issued a visa for short-term employment in Estonia, and the alien is a parent raising a minor child or the sole guardian of an adult child who is unable to cope independently due to the state of health or disability, a visa may be issued to the child of an alien under the same conditions as to the specified alien.

[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 – entry into force 24.05.2022]

(2¹) If the short-term employment of an alien in Estonia is registered for the purpose of research and development, as an academic staff member or as an intra-corporate transferee on the basis of clause 2 of subsection 1⁴ or subsection 13 of § 106 of this Act, a visa may be issued to the spouse, a minor child and an adult child who is unable to cope independently due to their state of health or disability, for the period of stay of an alien in Estonia, taking account of the conditions of the issue of a visa.

[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 – entry into force 24.05.2022]

(3) If the short-term employment of an alien in Estonia is registered and the alien has a legal basis for the temporary stay in Estonia, a short-term or long-term visa may be issued to a child of the alien who is a parent raising a minor child or the sole guardian of an adult child who is unable to cope independently due to the state of health or disability.

[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 – entry into force 24.05.2022]

§ 62². Issue of visa related to commencement of studies of alien in Estonia

(1) A short-term or long-term visa for study may be issued to an alien admitted to a state-recognised basic school, upper secondary school, vocational educational institution or an institution of higher education.

[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 – entry into force 24.05.2022]

(2) A visa may be issued for study at the level of higher education studies if the alien commences studies at the educational institution that is institutionally accredited.

[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 – entry into force 24.05.2022]

(3) If an alien who has been admitted to the studies in an educational institution at the fourth or fifth qualification level of vocational training, in professional higher education or Bachelor's studies, to the studies based on the integrated curricula of Bachelor's and Master's studies or Master's or Doctoral studies is issued a visa related to the commencement of studies in Estonia, the spouse of the alien, a minor child thereof and an adult child who due to his or her health status or disability is unable to cope independently may be issued a visa under the same conditions as to the specified alien.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.04.2017]

(1) A residence permit may be issued to settle with his or her spouse if the spouses share close economic ties and a psychological dependence, the family is stable and the marriage is not fictitious.

(2) The marriage is fictitious if the marriage has been contracted with the purpose of getting a residence permit and there is no real family life between the persons.

§ 139. Requirement for legal income of family

If an alien applies to settle with his or her spouse who resides in Estonia, his or her spouse is required to have permanent legal income that shall ensure the subsistence of the family in Estonia, or the joint permanent legal income of the spouses shall ensure the subsistence of the family in Estonia.

§ 140. Requirement for registered residence and actual dwelling

(1) If an alien applies to settle with his or her spouse who resides in Estonia, the family must have a registered place of residence and an actual dwelling in Estonia.

(2) The requirement for registered place of residence and actual dwelling shall not be applied as a requirement for the issue of a temporary residence permit to settle with the spouse if the spouse for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit is applied for has received a residence permit for enterprise or for employment in one of the following cases:

- 1) persons engaged in creative activities who work in a performing arts institution for the purposes of the Performing Arts Institutions Act;
- 2) for employment as a teacher in Estonia in an educational institution which complies with the requirements established by the legislation;
- 3) for research activities if an alien has appropriate professional training or experience therefor or employment as an academic staff member in Estonia in an educational institution which complies with the requirements established by the legislation;
[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 – entry into force 24.05.2022]
- 4) for employment as a sportsman, coach, referee or sports official for professional activities on the basis of a summons from a respective sports federation;
- 5) for employment as a member of the management body of a legal person registered in Estonia with the duty to perform directing or supervisory functions;
- 6) for employment as an expert, adviser or consultant provided that an alien has appropriate professional training for such activities in the respective field;
- 7) for employment as a fitter of equipment or a skilled worker provided that an alien has the required professional training in the respective field;
- 8) for employment as a top specialist on the basis of clause 3 of subsection 2 of § 181 of this Act provided that an alien has appropriate professional training for such activities in this field;
- 9) employment in a start-up company.

(3) The requirement for registered place of residence and actual dwelling shall not be applied as a requirement for the issue of a temporary residence permit to settle with the spouse if the spouse for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit is applied for has received a residence permit for studies based on the integrated curricula of Bachelor's and Master's studies or Master's or Doctoral studies or if the spouse has been issued the residence permit for studies in professional higher education or Bachelor's studies or in vocational training at the fourth or fifth qualification level within the framework of an international cooperation program or a treaty or an international cooperation agreement of an educational institution or if the alien has been designated a scholarship which is financed by the Estonian state or is internationally recognized.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.04.2017]

§ 140¹. Specification of requirements for issue and extension of residence permit

If an alien is applying for a residence permit for the purpose of settling with his or her spouse who holds a temporary residence permit issued to a large investor for engagement in business, the requirement for actual dwelling specified in subsection 1 of § 117 of this Act and for the place of residence registered in the population register specified in § 121 and subsection 3 of § 129 of this Act shall not be applied as a requirement for the issue and extension of a residence permit.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

§ 141. Specifications of bases for refusal of issue of temporary residence permit

If an alien applies for a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her spouse, the fact that the stay of an alien in Estonia may endanger morality or rights or interests of other people is not applied as the basis for refusal to issue a residence permit.

§ 142. Unjustified application for issue of temporary residence permit to settle with spouse

(1) An application for a residence permit to settle with a spouse who is an Estonian citizen may be considered unjustified if it is possible for the spouse who resides in Estonia to settle in the country of nationality or the country of location of his or her spouse or if it is possible for the spouses to settle in another country.

(2) An application for a residence permit to settle with a spouse who resides in Estonia and who is an alien shall be considered unjustified if an alien who applies for a residence permit and the spouse for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit is applied for do not prove that it is not possible for them to settle in the country of their common nationality, or in the country of nationality or the country of location of an alien who applies for a residence permit.

(3) The provisions of subsections 1 and 2 of this section do not preclude considering the application for a residence permit to be unjustified under other facts.

§ 143. Period of validity of temporary residence permit to settle with spouse

(1) [Repealed – RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

(2) [Repealed – RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

(2¹) [Repealed – RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

(2²) [Repealed – RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

(3) If a residence permit is issued to an alien to settle with the spouse residing in Estonia on the basis of a temporary residence permit, the period of validity of the residence permit to be issued to an alien shall not exceed the period of validity of a residence permit of the spouse for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit was issued.

§ 143¹. Establishment of period of validity of temporary residence permit issued to settle with spouse

(1) Upon establishment of the period of validity of temporary residence permit issued to settle with the spouse, the duration of the marriage between an alien and the spouse for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit is applied for is taken into account.

(2) The provisions of subsection 1 of this section do not preclude taking account of other relevant facts upon establishment of the period of validity of the residence permit.
[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

§ 144. Additional bases for refusal to extend temporary residence permit to settle with spouse

The extension of a temporary residence permit to settle with a spouse shall be refused if:

- 1) the basis or grounds for the issue of the residence permit has ceased to exist;
- 2) the marriage has been terminated;
- 3) [Repealed – RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]
- 4) the legal income of a spouse or the joint income of the family does not ensure subsistence of the family in Estonia;
- 5) the family does not have a registered place of residence in Estonia or;
- 6) the family does not have an actual dwelling in Estonia.

§ 145. Specifications for bases for refusal to extend temporary residence permit

(1) If an alien applies for a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her spouse, the circumstance that the stay of an alien in Estonia may endanger morality or rights or interests of other people is not applied as a basis for refusal to extend a residence permit.

(2) If an alien has been issued a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her spouse, who has a residence permit issued to a large investor for engagement in enterprise, the circumstance that the alien does not have a registered residence or actual dwelling in Estonia shall not be applied as a basis for the refusal to extend the residence permit.
[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

§ 146. Additional bases for revocation of temporary residence permit issued to settle with spouse

(1) A temporary residence permit to settle with a spouse shall be cancelled if:

- 1) the basis or grounds for the issue of the residence permit has ceased to exist;
- 2) the marriage has been terminated;
- 3) [Repealed – RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]
- 4) the legal income of a spouse or the joint income of the family do not ensure subsistence of the family in Estonia;
- 5) the family does not have a registered place of residence in Estonia or;
- 6) the family does not have an actual dwelling in Estonia.

(2) A temporary residence permit that was issued to settle with a spouse shall be cancelled concurrently with the revocation of the residence permit of the spouse for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit was issued.

(3) A temporary residence permit that was issued to settle with a spouse may be cancelled on the basis specified in subsection 1 of this section within three years as of the issue of the residence permit.
[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

§ 147. Specification of bases for revocation of temporary residence permit

(1) If an alien has a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her spouse, the circumstance that the stay of an alien in Estonia may endanger morality or the rights or interests of other people, shall not be applied as a basis for revocation of a residence permit.

(2) If an alien has been issued a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her spouse, who has a residence permit issued to a large investor for engagement in enterprise, the circumstance that the alien does not have a registered residence or actual dwelling in Estonia shall not be applied as a basis for the revocation of the residence permit.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

§ 147¹. Expiry of temporary residence permit issued for settling with spouse

If an alien has a temporary residence permit to settle with their spouse due to the fact that their spouse has a temporary residence permit for study and the spouse has failed to complete the study program to the extent required to hold a residence permit for study or has interrupted studies, the validity of an alien's temporary residence permit expires 30 days after the spouse has failed to complete the study program to the required extent or has interrupted studies.

[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 – entry into force 24.05.2022]

§ 148. Obligations of sponsor

The spouse for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit was issued to an alien has the obligations of a sponsor provided for in this Act.

§ 149. Specifications of requirements of issue of residence permits to settle with spouse

(1) If an alien has been issued a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her spouse and has lived for at least three years in Estonia on this basis thereof, he or she may be issued a temporary residence permit for settling permanently in Estonia without applying the provisions of § 210¹ and § 210² of this Act.

(2) If an alien has been issued a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her spouse and their marriage ends before three years have passed as of the issue of a residence permit but the obligation to leave Estonia of an alien would be clearly too burdensome for him or her, he or she may be issued a temporary residence permit for settling permanently in Estonia without applying the provisions of § 210¹ and § 210² of this Act.

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

§ 149¹. Specifications of legal status of alien applying for residence permit to settle with spouse

The stay in Estonia of a spouse of an alien who is a holder of the EU Blue Card of another member state of the European Union and is applying for the EU Blue Card in Estonia is legal until the decision with regard to the application is made if he or she holds a residence permit issued by another member state of the European Union to a family member of an alien holding the European Union Blue Card and he or she is applying for a residence permit in Estonia to settle with spouse for the purpose of settling with an alien who is applying for the EU Blue Card.

[RT I, 09.03.2011, 3 – entry into force 19.06.2011]

Subdivision 2

Temporary residence permit to settle with close relative

§ 150. Close relative

(1) A temporary residence permit may be issued to an alien to settle with a close relative who is an Estonian citizen or who is an alien who resides in Estonia and holds a residence permit in one of the following cases:

- 1) to a minor child in order to settle with a parent who resides in Estonia;
- 2) to an adult child in order to settle with a parent who resides in Estonia if the child is unable to cope independently due to health reasons or a disability;
- 3) to a parent or grandparent in order to settle with his or her adult child or grandchild who resides in Estonia if the parent or grandparent needs care which he or she cannot receive in the country of his or her location or in another country and if the permanent legal income of his or her child or grandchild who legally stays in Estonia ensures the subsistence of him or her in Estonia and;
- 4) to a ward in order to settle with the guardian who resides in Estonia if the permanent legal income of the guardian ensures the subsistence of the ward in Estonia.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

(2) In the case specified in clause 3 of subsection 1 of this section, a close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit is applied for is required to have a long-stay resident's residence permit.

(3) The requirement for prior residence in Estonia shall not be applied if:

- 1) the close relative has a temporary residence permit and an alien and the close relative, for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit is applied for, enter into Estonia together;
- 2) the close relative has the EU Blue Card;
- 3) the close relative has been issued a temporary residence permit on the basis of § 210³ of this Act;
- 4) the close relative has a temporary residence permit for an intra-corporate transfer.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

(4) The persons specified in clauses 3 and 4 of subsection 1 of this section are not granted a temporary residence permit in case the alien has been granted a temporary residence permit based on § 176² of this Act.

[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 - entry into force 01.01.2023]

§ 150¹. Temporary residence permit issued to minor child who was born in Estonia

(1) A minor child, who was born in Estonia or who is settling in Estonia immediately after birth together with his or her parent or parents, shall be issued a temporary residence permit to settle with a parent who is residing in Estonia if the parent is holding the Estonian temporary residence permit during the birth of the child.

(2) On order to waive the residence permit issued on the basis of subsection 1 of this section in the case of joint legal custody the parents shall have the right to jointly submit the application before the child reaches one year of age.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

§ 151. Requirement of registered place of residence and actual dwelling of close relative

(1) A close relative for the purposes of settling with whom a residence permit is applied for is required to have a registered place of residence and an actual dwelling in Estonia.

(2) Upon application of a residence permit to settle with close relative the requirement for a registered place of residence and an actual dwelling specified in subsection 1 of this section shall not be applied as a condition of the issue of a residence permit provided that an alien and the close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit is applied for enter into Estonia together.

§ 151¹. Specification from requirements for issue and extension of residence permit

If an alien is applying for residence permit for the purpose of settling with the close relative who holds a temporary residence permit issued to a large investor for enterprise, the requirement for actual dwelling specified in subsection 1 of § 117 of this Act and for the place of residence registered in the population register specified in § 121 and subsection 3 of § 129 of this Act shall not be applied as a requirement for the issue and extension of a residence permit.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

§ 152. Requirement for covering maintenance and treatment costs

If the residence permit has been issued to an adult child in order to settle with a parent who resides in Estonia, to a parent or grandparent in order to settle with his or her adult child or grandchild who resides in Estonia, to a ward in order to settle with the guardian who resides in Estonia, the close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit is issued is required to cover the maintenance and treatment costs of an alien.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

§ 153. Specifications of bases for refusal to issue temporary residence permit

If an alien applies for a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her close relative, the circumstance that the stay of an alien in Estonia may endanger morality or the rights or interests of other people shall not be applied as a basis for the refusal to issue a residence permit.

§ 154. Consideration of rights and interests of child

(1) Upon the issue of a temporary residence permit to a minor child to settle with his or her parent the rights and interests of the child shall be taken into consideration in particular.

(2) A temporary residence permit shall not be issued if the settling of the child in Estonia damages his or her rights and interests and if the legal, financial or social status of him or her may deteriorate as a result of settling in Estonia.

(3) Under joint legal custody the consent of the other parent is required for issue of a residence permit.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

(3¹) Under joint legal custody the consent of the other parent is not required for issue, to a minor child who was born in Estonia, of a temporary residence permit provided for in subsection 1 of § 150¹ of this section.
[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

(4) The residence permit of a minor child shall not be cancelled and extension thereof shall not be refused if this does not correspond to the rights and interests of the child.

(5) If a minor child has been issued a residence permit to settle with a close relative and reaches the age of majority during the period of validity of the residence permit, his or her residence permit shall be valid until its expiry.

(6) Upon reaching the age of majority an alien who has been issued a temporary residence permit to settle with a close relative as a minor may be issued a residence permit under the conditions and with the period of validity which are not related to the close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit is issued. In that case the conditions and requirements for the issue of a residence permit that are to be met for the issue of a temporary residence permit on any basis shall be applied upon the issue of a temporary residence permit to an alien.

§ 155. Period of validity of temporary residence permit issued to settle with close relative

If a temporary residence permit is issued to settle with a close relative who holds a temporary residence permit, the period of validity of the residence permit issued to an alien shall not exceed the period of validity of the residence permit of the close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit was issued.

§ 155¹. Specifications of extension of temporary residence permit issued to settle with close relative

(1) If a minor child has been issued a temporary residence permit to settle with a parent residing in Estonia on the basis of clause 1 of subsection 1 of § 150 or subsection 1 of § 150¹ of this Act and the temporary residence permit of the parent is extended or he or she is issued a new temporary residence permit, the period of validity of the residence permit of a minor child is extended until the expiry of the period of validity of the residence permit of the parent.

(2) Under joint legal custody the consent of the other parent is not required for the extension of the period of validity of the temporary residence permit in the case specified in subsection 1 of this section.
[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

§ 155². Expiry of temporary residence permit issued for settling with close relative

If an alien has a temporary residence permit to settle with a close relative due to the fact that their close relative has a temporary residence permit for study and the close relative has failed to complete studies to the extent required to obtain a residence permit for study or interrupted studies, the validity of an alien's temporary residence permit expires 30 days after the close relative has failed to complete the study program to the required extent or has interrupted studies.

[RT I, 14.05.2022, 1 – entry into force 24.05.2022]

§ 156. Additional bases for refusal to extend temporary residence permit issued to settle with close relative

The extension of a temporary residence permit to settle with a close relative residing in Estonia shall be refused if:

- 1) [Repealed – RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]
- 2) the close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit was issued cannot guarantee the subsistence of an alien in Estonia for no good reason or;
- 3) the close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit was issued fails to have a registered place of residence or an actual dwelling.

§ 157. Specifications of bases for refusal to extend temporary residence permit

(1) If an alien holds a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her close relative, the circumstance that the stay of an alien in Estonia may endanger morality or the rights or interests of other people shall not be applied as a basis for refusal to issue a residence permit.

(2) If an alien was issued a temporary residence permit as a minor child to settle with a parent, the extension of his or her residence permit shall not be refused due to his or her reaching the age of majority if he or she is a dependant of his or her parent.

(3) If an alien has been issued a residence permit to settle with a close relative who holds a temporary residence permit issued to a large investor for enterprise, the circumstance that the alien does not have a registered place of residence or dwelling in Estonia shall not be applied as a basis for refusal to extend the residence permit.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

§ 158. Additional bases for revocation of the temporary residence permit issued to settle with close relative

(1) The temporary residence permit which was issued to settle with a close relative who resides in Estonia shall be cancelled if:

- 1) [Repealed – RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]
- 2) the close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit was issued fails to ensure, for no good reason, the subsistence of an alien in Estonia;
- 3) the close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit was issued fails to have a registered place of residence or the actual dwelling.

(2) A temporary residence permit that was issued to settle with a close relative shall be cancelled concurrently with the revocation of the residence permit of the close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit was issued.

§ 159. Specifications of bases for revocation of temporary residence permit

(1) If an alien holds a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her close relative, the circumstance that the stay of an alien in Estonia may endanger morality or the rights or interests of other people shall not be applied as the basis for revocation of the residence permit.

(2) If an alien was issued a temporary residence permit as a minor child to settle with a parent, his or her residence permit shall not be cancelled after he or she has reached the age of majority.

(3) If an alien has been issued a residence permit to settle with a close relative who holds a temporary residence permit issued to a large investor for engagement in business, the circumstance that the alien does not have a registered place of residence or dwelling in Estonia shall not be applied as a basis for revocation of the residence permit.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

§ 160. Obligations of sponsor

The close relative for the purposes of settling with whom the residence permit was issued to an alien has the obligations of a sponsor provided for in this Act.

§ 161. Specifications of requirements for residence permit issued to settle with close relative

If an alien who has been issued a temporary residence permit to settle with his or her close relative and the basis or grounds for the issue of the residence permit have ceased to exist but the obligation of an alien to leave Estonia would be clearly too burdensome for him or her, the alien may be issued a temporary residence permit for settling permanently in Estonia without applying the provisions of § 210¹ and § 210² of this Act.

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

§ 161¹. Specifications of legal status of alien applying for residence permit to settle with close relative

The stay in Estonia of a close relative of an alien who is a holder of the EU Blue Card of another member state of the European Union and is applying for the EU Blue Card in Estonia is legal until making the decision with regard to the application if he or she holds a residence permit issued to a family member of an alien holding the European Union Blue Card by another member state of the European Union and he or she is applying for a residence permit in Estonia to settle with close relative for the purpose of settling with an alien who is applying for the EU Blue Card.

- 6) employment as a specialist in information or communication or
- 7) employment as a specialist in legal, cultural or social sphere.

§ 190⁸. Commencement of work for another employer

(1) In case an alien is residing in Estonian on the basis of an EU Blue Card and wishes during the first two years of the period of validity of the EU Blue Card to terminate the employment with the employer for employment with whom the EU Blue Card was issued to an alien and to commence employment with another employer, then such other employer shall need a consent of the Estonian Unemployment Insurance Fund for employing an alien.

(2) At the request of an employer the Estonian Unemployment Insurance Fund may grant a permission to the employer to fulfil the position with an alien if the employer with whom an alien wishes to commence employment has not found a suitable employee under the conditions and procedure provided for in § 177.

(3) In the case an alien has been residing in Estonia on the basis of an EU Blue Card for at least two consecutive years and he or she holds a valid EU Blue Card, he or she can commence employment with another employer and terminate employment with the present employer. In such case the new employer who wishes to employ and alien need not get consent of the Estonian Unemployment Insurance Fund to fulfil the position with an alien.

§ 190⁹. Temporary unemployment

(1) During the period of validity of the EU Blue Card an alien can be unemployed once for up to three months.

(2) The date following the day of terminating the work relations of an alien is deemed to be the date of starting the temporary unemployment.

§ 190¹⁰. Specifications of bases of revocation of EU Blue Card

An EU Blue Card issued to an alien shall not be revoked due to unemployment of an alien:

- 1) during the review by the Estonian Unemployment Insurance Fund of the application to be submitted for commencement of employment with another employer;
- 2) in the course of three months as of the date of becoming unemployed if he or she has become unemployed for the first time during the period of validity of an EU Blue Card.

§ 190¹¹. Specifications of period of validity of temporary residence permit for employment

(1) If an alien is issued an EU Blue Card, the period of validity thereof is determined for three months longer than the period of employment guaranteed by an employer taking into account that the period of validity of an EU Blue Card cannot exceed two years and three months.

(2) An EU Blue Card may be extended for up to four years and three months at a time.

§ 190¹². Specifications of bases for refusal to extend temporary residence permit for employment and revocation thereof

The extension of an EU Blue Card is refused or an EU Blue Card is revoked if:

- 1) during two first years of the period of validity of an EU Blue Card an alien has commenced employment with another employer who did not have a consent of the Estonian Unemployment Insurance Fund to fulfil the position by an alien;
- 2) an alien has been unemployed for longer than three consecutive months during the period of validity of an EU Blue Card;
- 3) an alien has been unemployed for more than once during the period of validity of an EU Blue Card or
- 4) a subsistence allowance has been assigned to an alien during the period of validity of an EU Blue Card.

§ 190¹³. Specifications regarding legal status of alien applying for EU Blue Card

If an alien who holds an EU Blue Card issued by another member state of the European Union is applying for an EU Blue Card in Estonia, his or her stay in Estonia is legal until the making of a decision with regard to the application.

Subchapter 2 Residence permit for long-term resident

Division 1

Issue and refusal to issue residence permit for long-term resident

§ 230. Residence permit for long-term resident

A residence permit for a long-term resident is a permit issued to an alien for entry into Estonia and residence in Estonia for an unspecified term pursuant to the conditions provided for in this Act and determined by the residence permit.

§ 231. Rights of alien with residence permit for long-term resident

(1) A residence permit for a long-term resident shall grant an alien the rights provided for in Chapter III of Council Directive 2003/109/EU concerning the status of third-country nationals who are long-term residents, (OJ L 016, 23.01.2004, pp. 44-53).

(2) Subsection 1 of this section shall not be applied:

1) [Repealed – RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 12.07.2013]

2) with regard to a minor child under five years of age who is a child of a citizen of Estonia residing in Estonia or an alien who is holding a residence permit for a long-term resident of Estonia if the child is given a residence permit for long-term residents;

3) with regard to an alien who is holding a residence permit for a long-term resident in Estonia issued under the conditions provided for in subsection 5 of § 232 of this Act.

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(3) An alien who is holding a residence permit for a long-term resident in Estonia does not need a specific permit for employment and engagement in business activities in Estonia.

[RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

§ 232. Conditions of issue of residence permit for long-term resident

(1) A residence permit for a long-term resident may be issued to an alien who corresponds to the following conditions:

- 1) he or she has resided in Estonia on the basis of a residence permit for at least last five years before the submission of the application for a residence permit for a long-term resident;
[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]
- 2) he or she has a valid temporary residence permit;
- 3) he or she has a permanent legal income which ensures his or her own subsistence in Estonia;
- 4) he or she is deemed to be an insured person for the purposes of the Health Insurance Act or a treaty of the Republic of Estonia;
- 5) he or she has met the integration requirement;
- 6) the information of his or her place of residence has been registered in the Population Register;
- 7) no facts which are the basis for the refusal to issue a residence permit for a long-term resident exist in respect of him or her.

(2) Clauses 1–3 of subsection 1 of this section shall not be applied with regard to a child under fifteen years of age, who is a child of a citizen of Estonia residing in Estonia or of an alien residing in Estonia and holding a long-term resident's residence permit of Estonia.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

(2¹) The requirement for prior residence of an alien in the member states of the European Union on the basis of the EU Blue Card for at least five years immediately before the lodging of an application for a residence permit for a long-term resident, including the last two years in Estonia on the basis of the EU Blue Card, may be applied with regard to an alien who holds the EU Blue Card in Estonia instead of the requirement for residence on the basis of a residence permit provided for in clause 1 of subsection 1 of this section.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

(2²) Upon meeting the requirement provided for in clause 1 of subsection 1 of this section the period of residence as an applicant for international protection immediately before the grant of international protection and the period of residence in Estonia as a person enjoying international protection shall be included into the period of residence in Estonia prior to the lodging of an application for a residence permit for a long-term resident.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

(3) The requirement of residence on the basis of a residence permit provided for in clause 1 of subsection 1 of this section and clause 2 shall not apply with regard to an alien who has lost the citizenship of Estonia or who has been issued a personal identification document of the citizen of Estonia by mistake within six months as of the loss of the Estonian citizenship or the revocation of the document certifying the identity of an Estonian citizen.

(4) Subsection 3 of this section shall not be applied with regard to an alien who, upon application for the Estonian citizenship or for a document certifying the identity of the Estonian citizen, has submitted false information or falsified documents regarding the facts which are relevant to the proceedings.

(5) The conditions provided for in clauses 1, 2 and 4–6 of subsection 1 of this section shall not be applied with regard to an alien who has settled in Estonia before 1 July in the year 1990 and who has factually resided and resides in Estonia and has not left to reside in another state and whose residence in Estonia does not pose a threat to the interests of the Estonian state.

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

§ 232¹. Long-term resident's residence permit for minor child who was born in Estonia

(1) A minor child who was born in Estonia or who is settling in Estonia immediately after birth together with a parent or parents shall be issued a long-term resident's residence permit if the parent is holding a valid long-term resident's residence permit of Estonia during the birth of the child.

(2) A child under fifteen years of age shall be issued a long-term resident's residence permit if the parent, for the purposes of settling with whom he or she is issued the residence permit, is issued a long-term resident's residence permit.

(3) In the case of a joint legal custody the parents shall have the right to jointly submit the application to waive the residence permit issued on the basis of subsection 1 of this section until the child reaches one year of age.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.10.2017]

§ 233. Calculation of period of residence in Estonia

(1) The period of residence in Estonia required for the issue of a residence permit for a long-term resident shall include the period of his or her temporary stay outside Estonia, which does not exceed six consecutive months and in total ten months within five last years immediately before the lodging of the application for a residence permit for long-term residents.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

(1¹) The period of residence in Estonia required for the issue of a residence permit for a long-term resident to an alien who holds the EU Blue Card shall include the period of his or her temporary stay outside member states of the European Union, which does not exceed twelve consecutive months and in total eighteen months within five last years immediately before the lodging of the application for a residence permit for long-term residents.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

(2) The period of the stay in Estonia on the basis of a temporary residence permit for study shall be taken into account in half in the calculations of the period of stay required for the issue of a residence permit for a long-term resident if an alien has been issued a residence permit on another basis later.

(3) If an alien's stay outside Estonia within five last years before the lodging of an application for a residence permit for a long-term resident has lasted longer than six consecutive months and in total ten months within five last years and the Police and Border Guard Board has considered his or her stay outside Estonia justified, the period of permanent residence in Estonia required for the issue of a residence permit for a long-term resident shall extend by the length of the period of the stay away, which exceeds the allowed time period specified in subsection 1 of this section.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

§ 234. Integration requirement

(1) An alien who is applying for a residence permit for long-term residents is required to have the Estonian language proficiency at least at the elementary level – language proficiency level B1 or a corresponding level.

(2) The integration requirement need not be complied with by:

- 1) an alien under 15 years of age;
- 2) an alien over 65 years of age and
- 3) an adult alien who has restricted active legal capacity.

(3) The Estonian language proficiency is evaluated at the Estonian language proficiency level exam under the conditions provided for in the Language Act.

(4) An alien who has acquired the basic, secondary and higher education in the Estonian language is not required to take the Estonian language examination.

§ 235. Release from taking of Estonian language proficiency examination

(1) An alien who, for health reasons, is permanently unable to comply with the requirements of the Estonian language proficiency level examination shall be released from the examination.

(2) An alien who, for health reasons, is permanently unable to fully comply with the requirements of the Estonian language proficiency level examination shall pass the examination to such extent and in such manner as his or her state of health allows.

(3) In cases specified in subsections 1 and 2 of this section the expert committee shall decide on the partial or total release of an alien from the Estonian language proficiency examination.

§ 236. Contestation of decision of expert committee

An appeal against a decision of the expert committee may be filed with an administrative court within thirty days as of the date of receipt of the decision.

§ 237. Refusal to issue residence permit for long-term residents

(1) The issue of a residence permit for a long-term resident may be refused if:

- 1) an alien may constitute a threat to public order or national security;
- 2) an alien has submitted false information concerning the facts which are relevant to the proceedings or has used deceit upon application for the issue of a residence permit for long-term residents;
- 3) an alien has been punished in Estonia for intentionally committed crime against the state and his or her criminal record has not expired.

(2) The issue of a residence permit for a long-term resident shall be refused if:

- 1) an alien has been issued a temporary residence permit for study;
- 2) an alien has been issued a temporary residence permit in case of substantial public interest;

[RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 12.07.2013]

3) an alien does not comply with the conditions of the issue of a residence permit for a long-term resident provided for in this Act;

[RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 12.07.2013]

4) an alien is holding a valid temporary residence permit on the basis of the Act on Granting International Protection to Aliens before the decision is made with regard to the application for residence permit for a long-term resident and with regard to him or her a basis for the ending or revocation of the refugee status or supplementary protection status of an alien provided for in that act has become evident.

[RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 12.07.2013]

(3) In case of the refusal to issue a residence permit for a long-term resident for the reason that the person may constitute a threat to public order or national security or has submitted false information or used deceit or an alien has been punished in Estonia for an intentional criminal offence against the state and his or her criminal record has not expired, the gravity or type of the offence committed by an alien or the threats related to the relevant person are considered, taking into account the length of the period of stay in Estonia of an alien and connections with Estonia and the country of origin.

(4) The provisions of § 124 of this Act are applied upon refusal to issue a residence permit for long-term residents on the grounds that the person constitutes a threat to public order or national security.

Division 2

Resumption of residence permit for long-term resident

§ 238. Conditions of resumption of residence permit for long-term resident

(1) Upon revocation of a residence permit for long-term resident due to staying outside Estonia or other member state of the European Union or due to the acquisition of a long-term resident status in a member state of the European Union the long-term resident's residence permit of an alien may be resumed if he or she complies with the following conditions:

1) he or she has lived in Estonia on the basis of a temporary residence permit for at least last two years immediately before the submission of an application for the resumption of a residence permit for a long-term resident;

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

2) he or she has a valid temporary residence permit;

3) he or she has a permanent legal income for his or her subsistence in Estonia;

4) he or she is deemed to be a person insured for the purposes of the Health Insurance Act or a treaty;

5) no facts which are the basis for the refusal to issue a residence permit for a long-term resident exist in respect of him or her.

(2) The period of residence in Estonia required for the resumption of a residence permit for a long-term resident shall include his or her temporary stay outside Estonia which does not exceed four months within the last two years immediately before the submission of an application for the resumption of a residence permit for a long-term resident.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

Division 3

Validity of residence permit for long-term resident

§ 239. Validity of long-term residence permit

A residence permit for a long-term resident is valid until the expiry of the period of validity of the residence permit or revocation of the residence permit.

§ 240. Expiry of residence permit for long-term resident

(1) The period of validity of a residence permit for a long-term resident shall expire:

1) upon the grant of the Estonian citizenship to an alien or upon his or her resumption of the Estonian citizenship;

2) upon the grant of the citizenship of a member state of the European Union to an alien or upon his or her resumption thereof;

3) upon the death or declaration of death of an alien.

(2) Upon the grant of the citizenship of a member state of the European Union to an alien or upon his or her resumption of the Estonian citizenship the person shall obtain the right of permanent residence of a citizen of the European Union for the purposes of the Citizen of European Union Act.

§ 241. Revocation of the residence permit for long-term resident

(1) A residence permit for a long-term resident may be revoked if:

1) an alien has submitted false information concerning facts which are relevant in the proceedings or used fraud upon application for issue of a residence permit for a long-term resident;

2) an alien constitutes a threat to public order or national security;

[RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 12.07.2013]

3) an alien has been punished in Estonia for intentionally committed crime against the state and his or her criminal record has not expired;

[RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 12.07.2013]

4) an alien has held a valid temporary residence permit on the basis of the Act on Granting International Protection to Aliens immediately before the application for residence permit for a long-term resident and with regard to him or her a basis for the ending or revocation of the refugee status or supplementary protection status of an alien provided for in that act has become evident.

[RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 12.07.2013]

(2) A residence permit for a long-term resident shall be revoked:

1) at the personal request of an alien;

2) if an alien stays outside member states of the European Union for twelve consecutive months during a year;

3) if an alien has acquired a status of a long-term resident in another member state of the European Union;

[RT I, 09.03.2011, 3 – entry into force 19.06.2011]

4) if the stay of an alien outside Estonia has lasted for at least six consecutive years;

5) if an alien who holds a residence permit of a long-term resident as a person who resided in Estonia on the basis of the former EU Blue Card stays outside member states of the European Union for twenty-four consecutive months or

[RT I, 09.03.2011, 3 – entry into force 19.06.2011]

6) if an alien holds a residence permit of a long-term resident which is issued to him or her as a family member of a person who resided in Estonia on the basis of the former EU Blue Card and stays outside the member states of the European Union for twenty-four consecutive months.

[RT I, 09.03.2011, 3 – entry into force 19.06.2011]

(3) The revocation of a residence permit of a long-term resident on the grounds that an alien has submitted false information or used deceit upon application for a residence permit of a long-term resident or an alien constitutes a threat to public order and national security or an alien has been punished in Estonia for an intentional criminal offence against the state and his or her criminal record has not expired, the gravity or type of the offence committed by an alien or the threats related to the person concerned shall be considered, taking into account the length of the stay in Estonia of an alien, the age of an alien, the consequences of the revocation of the residence permit of a long-term resident for an alien and his or her family and connections with Estonia and the country of origin.

(4) The facts specified in clauses 2–4 of subsection 2 of this section do not constitute a basis for the revocation of a residence permit if the Police and Border Guard Board have deemed the absence of an alien from Estonia to be justified.

Chapter 4

PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

§ 270. Admissibility of processing personal data

(1) In the proceedings concerning the application for a legal basis for the temporary stay, residence or taking employment in Estonia, the verification of the legality of the legal basis, the application for the extension or revocation of the legal basis, as well as in the proceedings regarding performance of the obligation to leave, an administrative authority which is conducting the proceedings may process personal data, including specific type of personal data.

[RT I, 13.03.2019, 2 – entry into force 15.03.2019]

(2) An administrative authority may forward the personal data specified in subsection 1 of this section to third persons without a person's consent and without separately notifying him or her thereof in order to clarify and verify the facts relevant to the proceedings. Third persons may process the personal data communicated to them to the extent that is necessary for clarification of the facts relevant to the proceedings.

(3) A natural or legal person who has the obligations of a sponsor arising from this Act, an employer of an alien, a user undertaking, a provider of accommodation services, a provider of transport services and a person providing housing to an alien may process the personal data of an alien, except a specific type of personal data, without the consent of an alien and without separately notifying him or her thereof, or to perform obligations arising from this Act or the Obligation to Leave and Prohibition on Entry Act to the extent that is needed to fulfil the respective obligation.

[RT I, 13.03.2019, 2 – entry into force 15.03.2019]

(4) An administrative authority may request a person to submit an application in writing in order to explain to him or her the purposes, extent and manner of the processing of the personal data which are to be processed with regard to him or her, the contents and sources of the personal data and the admissibility of the communication of the data to third persons and disclose the information of third persons to whom his or her personal data have been communicated.

(5) The Estonian Internal Security Service may apply the provisions concerning the processing of personal data in the Security Authorities Act for the performance of the functions provided for in this Act.

[RT I, 13.03.2019, 2 – entry into force 15.03.2019]

§ 271. Communication and collection of personal data

(1) Upon carrying out the proceedings an administrative authority has the right to collect data about facts which may be relevant to the proceedings regarding aliens from databases, other public agencies and persons and legal persons governed by private law who perform public functions. Such persons and agencies are obliged to communicate these data to an administrative authority which has the right to process these data.

(2) The communication of personal data collected about an alien, including forwarding specific type of personal data, to a foreign state, an international organisation, a European Union institution and a single database for the European Union may be permitted for the performance of obligations arising from a treaty, the legislation of the European Union, an act or a regulation.

[RT I, 13.03.2019, 2 – entry into force 15.03.2019]

(3) The personal data, including a specific type of personal data received from a foreign state or an international organisation, may be processed for the performance of obligations arising from a treaty, the legislation of the European Union, an act or a regulation.

[RT I, 13.03.2019, 2 – entry into force 15.03.2019]

(4) The Police and Border Guard Board shall have the right to notify the employer of an alien without the consent of the alien of the refusal to issue a residence permit to the alien or the refusal to extend his or her residence permit or of the revocation of the residence permit.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

§ 272. Processing of biometric data

(1) In the conduct of proceedings in the matter specified in this Act, biometric data may be obtained from a person and such data may be processed.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, biometric data is a facial image, fingerprint images, a signature or image of signature, and iris images.

(3) With regard to an alien who refuses to enable taking biometric data may be applied coercion with the use of physical force or bonds as long as it is needed for taking biometric data. Before application of coercion an alien shall be informed of the application thereof.

(4) Coercion shall not be applied if an alien refuses to enable taking biometric data upon application for visa.

(5) The processing of biometric data collected in the course of the proceedings provided for in this Act is only permitted in the cases and under the conditions provided by law.

§ 273. Data processed in proceedings of legal bases for temporary stay in Estonia

The data collected in the course of proceedings concerning applications for a visa and the extension of the period of stay, the premature termination of the period of stay, the revocation and annulment of a visa shall be processed without an alien's consent in order to perform the functions provided for in a treaty, the legislation of the European Union, an act or a regulation.

§ 274. Data processed in proceedings of residence permit and work permit

The data collected in the course of proceedings concerning applications for residence and work permits and a temporary residence permit, the extension of a temporary residence permit, a residence permit of a long-term resident, the resumption of a residence permit for a long-term resident, a work permit, the extension of a work permit, the registration of the absence from Estonia, the transfer of the data of a residence permit into the travel document of a foreign state, as well as the data collected in the course of the procedure of revocation of a residence permit and a work permit shall be processed without an alien's consent in order to perform functions specified in a treaty, the legislation of the European Union, an act or a regulation.

§ 275. Processing of DNA data

(1) DNA samples may be taken from an alien upon conducting the proceedings provided for in this Act and the respective data may be processed unless it is possible to identify a person otherwise.

(2) With regard to an alien who refuses to enable taking DNA samples, coercion may be applied with the use of physical force or braces as long as it is necessary for taking DNA samples. Before the coercion is applied an alien shall be notified about the application thereof.

(3) The processing of the DNA data collected in the course of the proceedings specified in this Act is only allowed in the cases and under the conditions provided by law.

(4) The data received as a result of taking DNA samples shall be entered into the National DNA Database.

§ 276. Capturing of fingerprints

(1) In visa proceedings and the proceedings of a residence and work permit fingerprints shall be captured from a person and the respective personal data shall be processed without the person's consent.

(2) Biometric data collected upon fingerprinting in the visa procedure shall be entered in the automated biometric identification system database (hereinafter ABIS database).
[RT I, 08.07.2021, 1 – entry into force 15.07.2021]

(3) Biometric data collected upon fingerprinting in the procedure of a residence permit and work permit shall be entered in the ABIS database.
[RT I, 08.07.2021, 1 – entry into force 15.07.2021]

§ 277. Restrictions on fingerprinting

(1) An alien shall not undergo fingerprinting if:

- 1) an alien lacks all fingers;
 - 2) his or her state of health has rendered the person unable to undergo fingerprinting or
 - 3) an alien belongs under the category of persons from whom fingerprints are not captured arising from the provisions of the Visa Code or clauses 6 and 7 of subsection 1 of § 101, clauses 3 and 4 of subsection 1 of § 224, clauses 6 and 7 of subsection 1 of § 250 and clauses 2 and 3 of subsection 1 of § 268 of this Act.
- [RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(2) An alien must provide evidence of his or her state of health due to which the person is unable to undergo fingerprinting.

(3) An alien shall not undergo fingerprinting if his or her state of health does not enable him or her to appear before an administrative authority in person. An alien shall provide evidence of his or her state of health due to which he or she is unable to appear before an administrative authority in person.

§ 278. Fingerprinting in visa procedure

Upon the lodging of an application for a visa and an application for the extension of the period of stay the applicant's fingerprints shall be captured unless otherwise provided for by the Visa Code or this Act.

§ 279. Fingerprinting in proceedings of residence permit and work permit

(1) Upon the submission of an application for the issue of a temporary residence permit, the extension of a temporary residence permit, the issue of a residence permit for a long-term resident and the resumption of a residence permit for a long-term resident the applicant shall undergo fingerprinting.
[RT I, 02.07.2013, 3 – entry into force 01.09.2013]

(2) An alien need not undergo fingerprinting if he or she has undergone fingerprinting in a proceeding concerning the issue of a residence permit, right of residence or work permit or a personal identification document and the captured fingerprints enable identification of a person and comply with the requirements established on the basis of subsection 6 of § 15 of the Identity Documents Act and clauses 4 and 5 of subsection 1 of § 224 and clauses 7 and 8 of subsection 2 of this Act.
[RT I, 03.01.2017, 1 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

(3) If an alien submitted an application for a temporary residence permit, the extension of a temporary residence permit, the issue of a residence permit for a long-term resident, the resumption of a residence permit for a long-term resident, the issue of a work permit or the extension thereof, and he or she did not undergo fingerprinting in the course of the proceeding, the provisions of the Identity Documents Act shall be applied upon the determination of the period of validity of a residence card.

§ 279¹. Specifications of taking biometric data from person staying in custodial institution

If in the course of the proceeding arising from this Act, the taking of biometric data from an alien is prescribed, an administrative authority may take biometric data from a prisoner or a person in detention or custody staying in a custodial institution in Estonia in the custodial institution.
[RT I, 09.12.2010, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2011]

§ 279². Specifications of taking biometric data from applicant for temporary residence permit for participation in criminal proceedings

(1) If in the course of a proceeding arising from this Act, the taking of biometric data from an alien is prescribed, biometric data are taken from an applicant for a temporary residence permit for participation in criminal proceedings in the course of the proceeding of his or her application for a residence permit.

(2) An administrative authority may take biometric data from an applicant for a temporary residence permit for participation in criminal proceedings at the place of stay of the applicant in Estonia.
[RT I, 29.06.2012, 5 – entry into force 01.01.2015]

§ 279³. Restriction of rights of data subject

(1) The right of a data subject to receive information and access to personal data collected on him or her, as well as the right of access to data entered in the database, including the procedural file, may be restricted if it may:

- 1) prevent or damage the prevention, detection, processing or execution of a punishment;
- 2) damage the rights and freedoms of another person;
- 3) endanger the security of the Republic of Estonia, another Member State of the European Union, a Member State of the Schengen Convention or a Member State of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization;
- 4) jeopardize the protection of public order.

(2) The restriction on publication of the information specified in subsection 1 of this section shall apply to the data subject with respect to the following rights:

- 1) to obtain information about the processing of his or her personal data, including which personal data are processed, as well as the manner, method, purpose, legal basis, scope or reason for the processing;
- 2) to know the recipients of his or her personal data and the categories of personal data to be disclosed and whether his or her personal data are transferred to a foreign state or international organization;
- 3) to demand that the processing of his or her personal data be restricted;
- 4) to object to the processing of his or her personal data;
- 5) to find out about a personal data breach.

(3) The restriction on the publication of the information specified in subsection 1 of this section may also be applied to data obtained from a foreign state or an international organization.
[RT I, 13.03.2019, 2 – entry into force 15.03.2019]

§ 279⁴. ABIS database

(1) The ABIS database is an electronic database the purpose of which, within the meaning of this Act, is to process biometric data taken in visa proceedings, upon registration of short-term employment and in residence permit and work permit proceedings for identification of a person and verification of a person's identity.

(2) In proceedings provided for in this Act, data entered in the ABIS database on the basis of the Identity Documents Act, Citizenship Act, Consular Act, Code of Criminal Procedure, Imprisonment Act, Act on Granting International Protection to Aliens, Obligation to Leave and Prohibition on Entry Act and Code of Misdemeanour Procedure may be processed for identification of a person and verification of a person's identity.

(3) Data entered in the ABIS database on the basis of the Acts specified in subsection 2 of this section may be processed for identification of a person and verification of a person's identity for the purposes of ensuring public order and national security only if the person cannot be identified or a person's identity verified based on the data entered in the ABIS database on the basis of this Act.

(4) The provisions of § 15⁵ of the Identity Documents Act shall apply to the processing of data entered in the ABIS database.

(5) The ABIS database shall be founded and its statutes established by a regulation of the Government of the Republic.

(6) The controller of the ABIS database is the Police and Border Guard Board. The processor shall be specified in the statutes of the database.

(7) The composition of data to be entered in the ABIS database and the term for storing thereof shall be prescribed in the statutes of the database.

(8) The data contained in the ABIS database are subject to restrictions on access and have been recognized as information for internal use.

[RT I, 08.07.2021, 1 – entry into force 15.07.2021]

Chapter 5 OBLIGATIONS

§ 280. Notification obligation of alien

An alien is required to notify the Police and Border Guard Board of the following facts:

- 1) the change in marital or family status if such change has been registered in a foreign state;
- 2) the punishment under criminal procedure if the punishment was imposed on an alien by a law enforcement authority of a foreign state;
- 3) any change in the conditions of employment determined by the temporary residence permit for employment, of the termination of the contract and the end of work relations;

[RT I, 09.03.2011, 3 – entry into force 19.06.2011]

- 4) upon the expiry or termination of an insurance contract covering any costs related to the medical treatment as a result of illness or injury of an alien or the expiry of the health insurance provided for in the Health Insurance Act;

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 2 – entry into force 18.01.2017]

- 5) his or her conscription into service in the armed forces of a foreign state, serving in a career position in the armed forces of a foreign state or entering into contractual service relations with the army, he or she has been assigned to the reserve forces thereof or has retired therefrom;

- 6) any change in the location and conditions of accommodation if the short-term employment of an alien has been registered on the basis of subsection 10 of § 106 of this Act and the accommodation of the alien is not ensured by or through the employer.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 2 – entry into force 17.01.2017]

§ 281. Obligation to bear costs related to stay in Estonia or departure from Estonia

(1) An alien is required to bear the costs related to the stay in Estonia and the residence in Estonia, including to ensure covering the costs related to his or her accommodation, catering and the medical treatment as a result of illness or injury of an alien and other subsistence costs.

(2) An alien is required to bear the costs related to his or her departure from Estonia, including the costs of the compulsory enforcement of the duty to leave, of the stay in the detention centre and police detention house which are borne in connection with the expulsion of an alien.

[RT I, 03.07.2013, 2 – entry into force 01.10.2013]

§ 282. Obligation to bear proceeding costs

(1) The costs of participation in the proceedings, including the costs related to appearing before an administrative authority in person and the costs related to the lodging of evidence, shall be borne by the party to the proceeding.

(2) If an alien does not fulfil the obligation to co-operate or acts in bad faith in any other manner, causing additional costs of proceeding to an administrative authority, these costs shall be recovered from an alien, but in the amount not exceeding 6,400 euros.

[RT I 2010, 22, 108 – entry into force 01.01.2011]

(3) The costs of the proceeding specified in subsection 2 of this section may be recovered from an alien in the procedure specified in the Code of Enforcement Procedure.

(4) In order to recover the proceeding costs an alien shall be issued a precept, which determines the term for voluntary compliance with the costs and a warning shall be given of the recovery of the costs in the procedure, provided for in the Code of Enforcement Procedure.

(5) The minister in charge of the policy sector shall establish by a regulation the procedure for the recovery of proceeding costs.

§ 283. Organisation to fulfil obligation to participate in proceeding

(1) An alien who has failed to fulfil the obligation to participate in the proceeding, and who has been obligated by an administrative authority to appear before the administrative authority in person, may be searched for and detained and compelled attendance may be applied with regard to him or her, in order to verify the facts of the stay and employment in Estonia of an alien unless it is possible to carry out the procedure otherwise.

(2) Upon compelled attendance an alien is detained, his or her person is established or his or her identity is verified, the security clearance is conducted and he or she is transported to the location of an administrative authority in order to carry out the procedural acts.

(3) An alien may be detained without the permit of the administrative court to ensure fulfilment of the obligation to participate in the proceeding in the office rooms of the Police and Border Guard Board or the detention house of the police for up to 48 hours but not longer than necessary to perform the duty to participate in the proceeding.

(4) Upon using compelled attendance and detention of an alien the Police and Border Guard Board may apply the measures provided for in §§ 30-33 and 45-53 of the Law Enforcement Act taking account of the specifications provided for in this Act.

[RT I, 13.03.2014, 4 – entry into force 01.07.2014]

(5) The measures specified in §§ 50 and 51 of the Law Enforcement Act may only be applied if there is a reason to believe that without taking such measures the prevention of the assumed illegal stay or employment in Estonia of an alien shall not be effective and other measures have been depleted.

[RT I, 13.03.2014, 4 – entry into force 01.07.2014]

(6) A measure provided for in § 45 of the Law Enforcement Act may only be applied by a police officer.

[RT I, 13.03.2014, 4 – entry into force 01.07.2014]

(7) Upon the detention of an alien the documents, money, valuables and prohibited articles found upon the detention of an alien shall be received for deposit for the time of detention. Prohibited articles are items and substances which are not allowed in commerce and which may present a risk to an alien himself or herself or to other persons, or items and substances the holding of which is not permitted in the office of an administrative authority or a police detention house.

(8) The personal data related to an alien and the data concerning the search, detention and compelled attendance of an alien are public to the extent that is necessary for his or her performance of the obligation to participate in the proceeding.

(9) The personal data related to an alien and the data concerning the search, detention and compelled attendance of an alien may be processed in the Visa Register, the Register of Residence and Work Permits and in the database of aliens staying or having stayed in Estonia illegally.

§ 284. Recovery of costs of participation in proceeding

(1) The costs of the search, detention or compelled attendance of an alien may be recovered from an alien and a person or an institution that has the obligations of a sponsor (hereinafter referred to as 'sponsor') but not more than 6,400 euros.

[RT I 2010, 22, 108 – entry into force 01.01.2011]

(1¹) The costs provided for in subsection 1 of this section may be claimed from the employer who has enabled employment in Estonia of an alien who is staying in the state illegally, except in the case when the employer has performed the obligations provided for in of the provisions specified in § 285 and subsections 1 and 4 of § 286 of this Act and the employer was not aware that the document of an alien proving the right of employment or the right of stay is falsified.

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(2) The costs of the search, detention or compelled attendance of an alien may be recovered pursuant to the procedure provided for in the Code of Enforcement Procedure.

(3) In order to compensate for the costs, an administrative authority shall issue a precept to an alien or his or her sponsor to Estonia to compensate for the costs of the search, detention and compelled attendance of an alien.

(4) A person shall have 90 days for voluntary compliance with the precept.

(5) The precept shall include a warning of compulsory enforcement of the precept pursuant to the procedure provided for in the Code of Enforcement Procedure.

(6) The procedure for the search, detention and compelled attendance of an alien, the list of the costs of the search, detention and compelled attendance of an alien and the procedure for calculation and recovery of the costs shall be established by a regulation of the minister in charge of the policy sector.

§ 285. Notification obligation of employer

(1) An employer is required to notify the Police and Border Guard Board of the commencement of employment by an alien for the employer, of a failure to conclude a contract forming a basis for work relations with the alien who has registered short-term employment, of a failure of an alien to commence employment, of any change in the conditions of employment determined in the temporary residence permit for employment, of the premature termination of the contract forming the basis for work relations and of the actual termination of employment of an alien.

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(1¹) If the short-term employment of an alien has been registered on the basis of subsection 10 of § 106 of this Act and the accommodation of the alien is ensured by or through the employer, the employer is required to notify the Police and Border Guard Board of the change of the location and conditions of the accommodation of the alien.

[RT I, 03.01.2017, 2 – entry into force 17.01.2017]

(2) [Repealed – RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(2¹) The employer has no notification obligation specified in subsection 1 of this section concerning the data which the employer has registered in the employment register.

[RT I, 23.03.2015, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2016]
