Chapter 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Scope of application of Act

This Act provides the legal status, objective, functions, financing, and organisation of management and activities of Estonian Public Broadcasting [Eesti Rahvusringhääling], (hereinafter Public Broadcasting).

§ 2. Legal status of Public Broadcasting

(1) Public Broadcasting is a legal person in public law founded by this Act.

(2) In the matters not regulated by this Act, the provisions concerning the media service provider provided for by the Media Services Act and the provisions concerning the activity of Public Broadcasting provided by other legislation apply.

[RT I, 06.01.2011, 1 - entry into force 16.01.2011]

(3) For their activities Public Broadcasting does not need an activity licence for provision of television or radio service or registration for provision of on-demand audiovisual media service in the register of economic activities. Radio frequencies and channels needed by Public Broadcasting for the performance of its functions provided by this Act and other necessary parameters shall be approved by the Government of the Republic on the proposal of the Consumer Protection and Technical Regulatory Authority.
[RT I, 12.12.2018, 3 - entry into force 01.01.2019]

(4) The provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act shall apply to the administrative proceedings prescribed by this Act, taking account of the specifications provided for in this Act.

§ 3. Independence of Public Broadcasting

Public Broadcasting shall be independent in the production and transmission of its programmes, programme services and other media services and shall be guided exclusively by the requirements of law.

§ 4. Objective of Public Broadcasting

(1) The objective of Public Broadcasting is to assist in the performance of the functions of the Estonian state provided by the Constitution of the Republic of Estonia. For such purposes, Public Broadcasting shall create programme services, produce and mediate programmes and organise other activities which, separately or as a set shall:

- 1) support the development of the Estonian language and culture;
- 2) enhance the guarantees of the permanence of the Estonian state and nation and draw attention to the circumstances which may pose a threat to the permanence of the Estonian state and nation;
- 3) assist in the increase of the social cohesion of the Estonian society;
- 4) assist in the increase of the economic well-being and competitive ability of Estonia;
- 5) assist in the promotion of the democratic form of government;
- 6) explain the need for the economical use and sustainable development of the natural environment;
- 7) enhance the family-based model of society;
- 8) assist in the audio-visual recording of the Estonian history and culture;
- 9) guarantee the availability of the information needed by each person for his or her self-realisation.

§ 5. Functions of Public Broadcasting

(1) In order to achieve the goals provided for in § 4 of this Act, Public Broadcasting shall perform the following public functions:

1) produce at least two television programme services and four twenty-four-hour radio programme services. The programme services shall be available to the public by public means. The original programmes offered by the television programme services shall be made available to persons with hearing disabilities to the extent possible for Public Broadcasting;

[RT I, 22.12.2020, 35 – entry into force 01.01.2021]

- 2) make available, to a reasonable extent, the programme services specified in clause 1) of this subsection and the programme archive through electronic networks;
- 3) produce other media services with the permission of the Public Broadcasting Council, and distribute the products related to them;
- 4) record events and works of significant importance to the Estonian national culture or history, and guarantee the preservation of the recordings;
- 5) guarantee the accessibility of its audio-visual records under the conditions provided by law. The records are used for profit-making activities pursuant to the procedure provided by the Public Broadcasting Council;
- 6) distribute the programmes and media services introducing the Estonian culture and society all over the world;
- 7) intermediate the best works of the world culture;
- 8) transmit programmes which, within the limits of the possibilities of Public Broadcasting, meet the information needs of all sections of the population, including minorities;
- 9) maintain and develop the professional creative and technical level of Public Broadcasting;
- 10) guarantee the operational transmission of adequate information in situations which pose a threat to the population or the state;
- 11) reflect, to the maximum possible extent, the events which take place in Estonia in its news programmes and other programmes.

(2) Public Broadcasting shall perform other public functions arising from this Act and other legislation.

(3) Public Broadcasting shall organise the introduction of its programme services, programmes and media services, and enhance the trade marks belonging thereto.

§ 6. Programme services of Public Broadcasting

(1) The programme services and media services shall meet the objectives of Public Broadcasting and serve the public interest.

(2) The programme services shall be diverse and deal with the topics of social life in a balanced manner.

(3) The programme services and media services shall promote communication between the members of the society and social groups, the social cohesion of the society, and shall reflect different opinions and beliefs.

(4) The news programmes of Public Broadcasting shall be diverse, balanced, independent and appropriate. Before transmitting the news, the information on which they are based shall be verified with reasonable diligence. Fact and commentary shall be clearly differentiated in a news broadcast.

(5) The programmes of Public Broadcasting shall be politically balanced. In particular, the political balance requirement shall be adhered to during the period of active election propaganda in the elections of the President of the Republic, the Riigikogu, the European Parliament and local government councils. For such purpose, Public Broadcasting shall give equal opportunities to all the candidates participating in the elections of the President of the Republic, to all the political parties and independent candidates participating in the elections of the Riigikogu and the European Parliament and, taking account of a large number of election coalitions and independent candidates, in the elections of local governments, shall create opportunities for as many powers as possible who participate in the elections and have an integral programme to adequately present their position. Similarly to the elections of local governments, equal opportunities shall be created in the event of referendums. The rules for reflecting elections in the programme services of Public Broadcasting shall be approved by the Public Broadcasting Council and such rules shall be disclosed not later than within a week after the date of announcement of the elections.

§ 7. Budget of Public Broadcasting

(1) Before the beginning of the next financial year or not later than within two weeks after the approval of the state budget, the management board of Public Broadcasting shall prepare the balanced budget which shall set out all the income, expenditure and financing transactions for the next financial year. The budget of the National Broadcasting which shall be in compliance with the financial plan, the rules of budget position set out in § 6, rule of net debt burden set out in § 10 and restrictions established on the basis of § 11 of the State Budget Act. (4) The term for performance of the obligations assumed by Public Broadcasting shall not exceed twenty-five years.

§ 9. Development plan

(1) Each financial year, the management board of Public Broadcasting shall prepare a development plan that must cover the following financial year and three financial years following that year.

(2) The development plan shall set forth the goals for development of the Public Broadcasting for each corresponding financial year, the tasks for reaching such goals and the reasoning behind it, and a budgetary strategy for reaching the development goals. Among other, the development plan shall set forth:

- 1) the structure of the programme service to be transmitted during the financial year and the considerations for its creation;
- 2) a justification of how the structure of the chosen programme services helps to perform the functions of Public Broadcasting;
- 3) the objectives and reasons for developing the media services;
- 4) co-operation with international organisations;
- 5) the principles for using the budget planned for the financial year in order to reach the goals and perform the duties that have been set.

(3) The management board of Public Broadcasting shall submit the draft of the development plan to the Public Broadcasting Council for approval not later than eleven months before the beginning of the relevant financial year. The Public Broadcasting Council shall approve the development plan not later than by 1 March each year. If the development plan is not approved by the prescribed date, the development plan prepared during the preceding year is deemed to be the development plan for the next year.

(4) A development plan approved by the Public Broadcasting Council shall be forwarded to the Ministry of Finance through the Ministry of Culture.

[RT I, 13.03.2014, 2 - entry into force 23.03.2014]

(5) A development plan shall be published on the website of Public Broadcasting.

(2) The following shall be set out in the contract:

- 1) the data set out in subsection 9 (2) of this Act;
- 2) the amount of support necessary for the performance of the public functions to be allocated from the state budget for the current financial year;
- 3) the conditions of and procedure for altering the amount of support allocated from the state budget;
- 4) the contracting parties, their representatives and the right of representation of the representatives of the contracting parties;
- 5) the time and place of conclusion of the contract;
- 6) the time of entry into force and expiry of the contract;
- 7) the conditions and procedure for amendment of the contract;
- 8) the conditions and procedure for termination of the contract;
- 9) the rights, obligations and liabilities of contracting parties;
- 10) circumstances which prevent the performance of the contract which are deemed to be force majeure;

- 11) procedure for settlement of disputes which may arise upon performance of the contract;
- 12) procedure for submission of reports on performance of the contract which shall also provide the penalties resulting from failure to submit data or submission of misleading data;
- 13) details of the contracting parties (postal address, registry code, number of bank account).

(3) [Repealed - RT I, 13.03.2014, 2 – entry into force 23.03.2014]

(4) The management board of Public Broadcasting shall submit the draft of the contract which has been approved by the Public Broadcasting Council to the Ministry of Culture not later than by 15 February of the current year.

(5) Simultaneously with approving the national budgetary strategy, the Government of the Republic shall authorise the minister responsible for the area to conclude the contract. The contract shall be signed by the minister responsible for the area and the chairman of the management board of Public Broadcasting.

(6) If the amount of support allocated from the state budget provided by the contract changes after approval of the national budgetary strategy and after the approval of the state budget, or it is altered by a supplementary budget or amendment to the state budget, the corresponding amendments shall be made to the contract under the terms and pursuant to the procedure prescribed by the contract.

(7) The contract shall be published on the webpage of the Ministry of Culture and Public Broadcasting within one week after the date of signing of the contract.

§ 11. Advertising, teleshopping and sponsorship in Public Broadcasting

(1) Public Broadcasting shall not transmit advertising and teleshopping and shall not receive support from sponsorship, except in the cases provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The Public Broadcasting Council may permit, as an exception, the transmission of advertising or sponsor information in the programmes or media services of Public Broadcasting if:

- 1) it relates to the broadcasting rights of an international major event acquired via the EBU (European Broadcasting Union), or
- 2) it relates to the broadcasting rights of a cultural or sports event of significant public interest.

(3) Unless otherwise provided by the broadcasting rights specified in subsection (2) of this section, the information concerning sponsors accompanying broadcasting rights to events broadcast in the radio programme services shall contain the names of sponsors without any background sound and such information broadcast in the television programme services shall contain the names of sponsors without any logo or trademark.

(4) Pursuant to the procedure established by the management board, Public Broadcasting may broadcast announcements free of charge concerning non-profit making public events or call on people to behave in a certain manner if this is in public interest.

(5) Public Broadcasting shall not be a sponsor or donor.

(6) Public Broadcasting may introduce itself, its programme services and programmes and the products related thereto.

§ 12. Impact analysis

(1) Together with the draft of a development plan, the Public Broadcasting Council shall receive an impact analysis which shall provide a reasoned assessment of the performance of the development goals set forth in the development plan and the conformity of the activity of Public Broadcasting to this Act.

(2) The impact analysis is an annex to the development plan of the next financial year.

Chapter 2 MANAGEMENT OF PUBLIC BROADCASTING

§ 13. Public Broadcasting Council

The Public Broadcasting Council (hereinafter Council) is the highest directing body of Public Broadcasting. The Council shall plan the activities of Public Broadcasting, organise the management of Public Broadcasting and supervise the activities of the management board. The Council shall submit a written and oral report on the activities of the Council to the Riigikogu Cultural Affairs Committee once a year.

§ 14. Formation of Council

(1) The Council consists of members of the Riigikogu and of acknowledged experts in the field of activity of Public Broadcasting. On the proposal of the Riigikogu Cultural Affairs Committee, the Riigikogu shall appoint:

- 1) one representative from each faction of the Riigikogu until the date of termination of the authority of the composition of the Riigikogu; Upon termination of the authority of the composition of the Riigikogu, the Council members who are members of the Riigikogu shall stay with the Council until the entry into force of the decision to appoint members of the new composition of the Riigikogu to the Council;
- 2) four experts from among the acknowledged experts in the field of activity of Public Broadcasting whose authority shall continue for five years.

(2) In order to appoint a member of the Council, the written consent of the person to be appointed is necessary.

§ 15. Members of Council

(1) A Council member shall not be:

- 1) a member of the management board, a procurator or an auditor of Public Broadcasting;
- 2) a member of a management body of a media service provider;
[RT I, 06.01.2011, 1 - entry into force 16.01.2011]
- 3) a sole proprietor for the purposes of a media service provider;
[RT I, 06.01.2011, 1 - entry into force 16.01.2011]
- 4) in a contractual relationship with any media service provider;
[RT I, 06.01.2011, 1 - entry into force 16.01.2011]
- 5) a partner, shareholder or member of a media service provider;
[RT I, 06.01.2011, 1 - entry into force 16.01.2011]
- 6) a member of the Government of the Republic.

(2) The authority of a member of the Council shall terminate prematurely:

- 1) upon his or her resignation;
- 2) upon removal by the Riigikogu;
- 3) upon leaving or exclusion from a Riigikogu faction;
- 4) on other bases provided by law.

(3) A member of the Council shall resign from office at his or her own request or shall be removed if he or she no longer meets the requirements provided for in this Act or is permanently unable to perform his or her duties. The Riigikogu shall make a decision concerning the resignation or removal of a member of the Council on the proposal of the Riigikogu Cultural Affairs Committee.

(4) Upon premature termination of the authority of a member of the Council, the Riigikogu shall, within three working weeks as of the termination of the authority of the member of the Council, appoint a new member on the proposal of the Riigikogu Cultural Affairs Committee.

§ 16. Chairman of Council

(1) The members of the Council shall elect the chairman of the Council from among themselves. The chairman of the Council shall be elected by a majority vote of the membership of the Council. The Council may remove the chairman of the Council by a majority vote of the membership of the Council. The Council shall determine the procedure for the substitution of the chairman.

(2) The chairman of the Council shall organise the activities of the Council, represent the Council and, in the cases provided for in this Act, Public Broadcasting, and perform other obligations assigned to him or her by legislation.

§ 17. Meetings of Council

(1) The meetings of the Council shall be held as necessary but not less frequently than once every two months. A meeting shall be called by the chairman of the Council or by a member of the Council substituting for the chairman. Advance notice of at least five working days shall be given of the holding of a meeting and of its agenda.

(2) A meeting of the Council shall be called if this is demanded by a member of the Council, the management board, an auditor or an ethics adviser. If the meeting is not called within two weeks after the date of receipt of the relevant request, a member of the Council, the management board, auditor or ethics adviser have the right to call the meeting themselves.

(3) Upon convening the Council an issue which is not included on the agenda in the notice may be added to the agenda of the meeting of the Council only if all members of the Council participate in the meeting and at least three-quarters of the members of the Council support including the issue on the agenda.

(4) A member of the Council shall not be represented by another member of the Council or by a third person at a meeting or in the adoption of a resolution.

(5) Minutes shall be taken of the meetings. The minutes shall be signed by all the members of the Council who participate in the meeting and the recording secretary of the meeting. The dissenting opinion of a member of the Council shall be entered in the minutes, which shall be confirmed by his or her signature.

(6) The Council has a quorum if at least half of the Council members, including the chairman or a Council member substituting for the chairman, participate in the meeting.

(7) If the requirements of law are violated in the calling of a meeting of the Council, the Council shall not be authorised to adopt resolutions unless all the members of the Council participate in the meeting. Decisions made at such meeting of the Council are void unless the members of the Council with respect to whom the procedure for calling the meeting was violated approve of the decisions.

§ 18. Decisions of Council

(1) Unless otherwise provided for in this Act, the Council shall adopt resolutions by a majority vote of the members of the Council.

(2) A member of the Council shall not participate in voting if approval of the conclusion of a transaction between the member and Public Broadcasting is being decided, or if approval of the conclusion of a transaction between a third person and Public Broadcasting is being decided if the interests of the member of the Council arising from such transaction are in conflict with the interests of Public Broadcasting.

(3) Each member of the Council has one vote. A member of the Council shall not remain undecided or abstain from voting. Upon an equal division of votes, the chairman of the Council or, in the absence of the chairman, the Council member substituting for the chairman shall have the casting vote.

(4) The members of the Council absent from a meeting may participate in voting if they communicate their vote in a format which can be reproduced in writing.

(5) The resolutions of the Council shall be published on the webpage of Public Broadcasting.

§ 19. Adoption of Council decisions without calling meeting

(1) The Council has the right to adopt resolutions without calling a meeting if all of the members of the Council consent thereto.

(2) The chairman of the Council shall send a draft of the resolution specified in subsection (1) of this section to all members of the Council, specifying the term by which a member of the Council shall present his or her written position thereon. If a member of the Council does not give notice of whether the member is in favour of or opposed to the resolution during this term, it shall be deemed that he or she votes against the resolution.

(3) If a resolution is made pursuant to the procedure provided for in this section, the resolution shall be adopted if more than one-half of the votes of the members of the Council are in favour unless the law prescribes a greater majority requirement.

(4) The chairman of the Council shall prepare a record of voting on the results of voting in lieu of minutes of the meeting and shall send the record promptly to the members of the Council and management board. A record of voting shall set out:

- 1) the adopted resolutions and the number of votes in favour, including the names of the members of the Council who voted in favour of the resolution;
- 2) other circumstances of importance with regard to the vote.

(5) The written opinions of members of the Council specified in subsection (2) of this section shall be an integral part of the record of voting.

(6) A resolution may be formalised also without giving advance notice to the Council members and without a record of vote if all the members of the Council agree to and sign the resolution. A resolution shall set out the names of the members of the Council and the time of passing the resolution.

§ 20. Operating expenses of Council and remuneration of Council members

(1) The operating expenses of the Council shall be covered from the budget of Public Broadcasting. The managing board shall ensure the necessary conditions and means for the work of the Council.

(2) Out of the means specified in subsection (1) of this section, Council members are remunerated to the extent of two monthly minimum wages per month, and the chairman of the Council is remunerated to the extent of three minimum monthly wages per month.

§ 21. Competence of Council

(1) The Council has exclusive competence to:

1) approve of the financial plan of Public Broadcasting, submit a request to the minister responsible for the area for support from the state budget to Public Broadcasting, approve of the budget and supervise the execution thereof;

[RT I, 13.03.2014, 2 - entry into force 23.03.2014]

2) approve of the internal audit rules and the work schedule of the internal auditor of Public Broadcasting;

3) approve of the procedure for use and disposal of assets of Public Broadcasting;

4) approve of the interim report on execution of the budget and the annual account of Public Broadcasting;

5) determine the structure of Public Broadcasting;

6) increase the number of programme services of Public Broadcasting;

7) exercise supervision over performance of the objectives and functions of Public Broadcasting listed in §§ 4 and 5 of this Act.

(2) The consent of the Council is required for conclusion of transactions that are beyond the scope of everyday economic activities on behalf of Public Broadcasting and, above all, for conclusion of transactions which bring about:

1) transfer or encumbrance of immovable;

2) transfer or encumbrance of a movable entered in the register with the value of more than 64,000 euros;

[RT I 2010, 22, 108 - entry into force 01.01.2011]

3) the assumption of loans or other debt obligations in an amount exceeding 64,000 euros;

[RT I 2010, 22, 108 - entry into force 01.01.2011]

4) the making of investments exceeding a prescribed sum of investments for the current financial year;

5) foundation of a foundation or becoming a member of a non-profit association.

(3) The prior consent specified in subsection (2) of this section is not required if a delay in conclusion of the transaction would bring about significant damage to Public Broadcasting.

(4) The restrictions specified in subsection (2) of this section have no effect against third parties.

(5) In order to fulfil its tasks, the Council has the right to examine all documents of Public Broadcasting and to check the accuracy of the accounting of Public Broadcasting, the existence of assets of Public Broadcasting and the conformity of the activities of Public Broadcasting with the law. The members of the Council may demand copies of reports and documents unless the Council decides otherwise.

(6) The Council has the right to obtain information concerning the activities of Public Broadcasting from the management board and to demand an activity report and preparation of a balance sheet from the management board.

(7) The Council shall decide on conclusion and terms and conditions of transactions with members of the management board and on the conduct of legal disputes with the members of the management board. The Council shall appoint a representative of Public Broadcasting for the conclusion of the transactions and conduct of the legal disputes.

(8) The Council shall also have other rights provided by law.

(1) Upon performance of his or her obligations, a member of the Council shall act in a loyal manner with respect to Public Broadcasting and exercise a necessary level of diligence commensurate with the position of a Council member.

(2) Members of the Council who have caused damage to Public Broadcasting by violation of their obligations shall be solidarily liable for compensation for the damage caused. A Council member is relieved from liability if he or she proves that he or she has performed his or her obligations with the diligence specified in subsection (1) of this section or if he or she maintained a dissenting opinion in the adoption of the resolution which was the basis for the illegal activity, and the dissenting opinion has been recorded in the minutes.

(3) The limitation period for submission of claims against a member of the Council shall be five years.

§ 23. Management board of Public Broadcasting

(1) The management board of Public Broadcasting (hereinafter management board) is the management body of Public Broadcasting who represents and manages Public Broadcasting.

(2) Upon managing, the management board shall be guided by the budget, development plan and strategic documents approved by the Council. Transactions which are beyond the scope of everyday economic activities may only be concluded by the management board with the consent of the Council. The management board is required to act in the most economically purposeful manner.

(3) The management board shall present the Council with an overview of the economic activities and economic situation of Public Broadcasting at least once every three months and shall immediately give notice of any material deterioration in the economic condition of Public Broadcasting or of any other material circumstances related to the economic activities of Public Broadcasting. The reports and notices of the management board shall be comprehensive and clear and submitted to the Council in good time and in a format which can be reproduced in writing.

(4) The management board shall organise the accounting of Public Broadcasting.

(5) The activities of the management board shall be organised by the chairman of the management board.

§ 24. Members of management board

(1) The management board consists of the chairman and four members of the management board.

(2) A member of the management board shall be a natural person with active legal capacity who is at least 21 years of age.

(3) At least one half of the members of the management board shall have their residence in Estonia, in another Member State of the European Economic Area or in Switzerland.

(4) The following persons shall not be members of the management board:

1) a person with respect to whom a court has, pursuant to § 49 of the Penal Code, imposed a prohibition on acting as a member of the management board, a person who is prohibited from operating within the same area of activity as Public Broadcasting, or a person who is prohibited to act as a member of the management board on the basis of an Act or a court decision;

2) a person who is in a contractual relationship with any private media service provider;

[RT I, 06.01.2011, 1 - entry into force 16.01.2011];

3) a person who is a member of the management body or an auditor of another media service provider, a shareholder or a partner with a qualifying holding in another media service provider, or a person exercising dominant influence over the management thereof in any other manner;

[RT I, 06.01.2011, 1 - entry into force 16.01.2011];

4) a sole proprietor within the meaning of a media service provider;

[RT I, 06.01.2011, 1 - entry into force 16.01.2011];

5) a member of the Riigikogu or the Government of the Republic;

6) a member of a management body of a political party registered in Estonia.

§ 25. Appointment and removal of members of management board

(1) The management board shall be appointed and removed by the Council. In order to appoint a member of the management board, his or her consent is required.

(2) The Council shall appoint the chairman of the management board by a two-thirds majority of its members. Four members of the management board shall be appointed on the proposal of the chairman of the board.

(3) The management board shall be appointed for five years.

(4) The Council may remove the chairman of the management board by a two-thirds majority of its members under the following circumstances:

1) on the basis of a judgment of conviction;

2) upon becoming evident of grave errors in management;

3) due to long-term incapacity for work;

4) upon a serious violation of this Act;

5) upon the existence of other bases arising from this Act.

(5) A member of the management board who is not the chairman of the management board may be removed by the Council on the proposal of the chairman of the management board or upon becoming evident of the circumstances set forth in subsection (4) of this section.

(6) A member of the management board may resign with good reason if he or she notifies the Council of his or her resignation.

(7) Rights and obligations arising from a contract concluded with a member of the management board of Public Broadcasting shall terminate pursuant to the contract.

§ 26. Right of representation of management board

(1) Each member of the management board may represent Public Broadcasting in all legal acts.

(2) A transaction concluded between Public Broadcasting and a member of the management board shall be void if the Council does not agree to the transaction. The above shall not apply to transactions concluded in the course of everyday economic activities of Public Broadcasting or based on the market price of a service.

§ 27. Remuneration of member of management board

(1) The amount of remuneration payable to a member of the management board and the procedure for payment shall be determined by a decision of the Council.

(2) Upon determining the procedure for remuneration of a member of the management board and the amount of fees and other benefits, and upon concluding contracts with a member of the management board, the Council shall ensure that the total amount of the payments to be made to a member of the management board is in reasonable proportion to the duties of the members of the management board.

(3) Additional remuneration may be paid to a member of the management board, taking account of the efficacy of his or her work. The amount of remuneration shall be justified and shall not, during a financial year, exceed four times the monthly remuneration paid to a member of the management board.

(4) Based on a decision of the Council, a member of the management board may be paid a termination-of-contract compensation if the member of the management board is removed before the end of the term specified in subsection 25 (3) of this Act. The total amount of the compensation shall not exceed four times the monthly remuneration paid to a member of the management board. Compensation shall not be paid if a member of the management board is removed due to the becoming evident of a grave error in management or due to the violation of this Act or other legislation.

§ 28. Liability of members of management board

(1) Upon the performance of his or her obligations, a member of the management board shall act in a loyal manner in respect to Public Broadcasting and exercise the necessary level of diligence. A member of the management board shall act to the highest benefit of Public Broadcasting, prevent any damage to the property of Public Broadcasting and apply generally recognised professional skills.

(2) Members of the management board who have caused damage to Public Broadcasting by violation of their obligations shall be solidarily liable for compensation for the damage caused. A member of the management board shall be relieved from liability if he or she proves that he or she has performed his or her obligations with the diligence specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The limitation period for submission of claims against a member of the management board shall be five years.
