

Output indicators of statistical action “Estonian MFI statistics”

Methodology and classifications:

- REGULATION (EU) No 1071/2013 OF THE EUROPEAN CENTRAL BANK of 24 September 2013 concerning the balance sheet of the monetary financial institutions sector (recast) (ECB/2013/33)

Quantitative variable	Classifiable variables	Number of variable values
MFI aggregated balance sheet	Division of assets and liabilities under the MFI balance sheet statement scheme	49
MFI analytical indicators	Monetary aggregate M3: M2 / repo / money market units / short-term debt securities	5
	Monetary aggregate M2: M1 / deposits with a maturity of up to 2 years / short-term deposits	4
	Monetary aggregate M1: demand deposits	2
	Long-term financial liabilities: deposits with a maturity of more than 2 years / short-term deposits / bonds with a maturity of more than 2 years / capital and reserves	5
	Receivables from euro area residents: receivables from the general government / receivables from other euro area residents / including loans	4
	Foreign assets (net): assets/liabilities	3
Central bank's analytical indicators	Estonia's contribution to the euro area base money	1
	Domestic (euro area) receivables: receivables from the euro area general government / receivables from other euro area residents	3
	Foreign assets (non-euro area)	1
	Foreign liabilities (non-euro area)	1